PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 104th CONGRESS, FIRST SESSION

Vol. 141 WASHINGTON, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1995 No. 139

Senate

(Legislative day of Tuesday, September 5, 1995)

The Senate met at 9:15 a.m., on the expiration of the recess, and was called to order by the President pro tempore [Mr. THURMOND].

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Dr. Lloyd John Ogilvie, offered the following prayer:

And God who gives beginnings, gives the end: a place for broken things too broke to mend.—John Masefield.

Almighty God, Lord of ultimate judgment, and unlimited grace, we come to You for the healing of the profound grief we have over the resignation of our colleague ROBERT PACKWOOD and the circumstances that necessitated it. We thank You that, ''never yet a abyss was found deeper than your love could sound.'' We ask that Your healing grace and mercy, restitution and release, may sound in the depth of his heart today. Heal his brokeness and remind him that You have plans for him, to give him a future and a hope. We praise You for his immense contribution to the work of this Senate through the years. Give him strength and courage as he begins a new phase of his life sustained by Your love and guidance.

Lord, we also ask for Your healing of a pain of a very different kind of brokeness we are all feeling today. We ask You to heal our divisions and bring deeper unity. After our human evaluations are made and judgments rendered, we confess with the Psalmist, ''If You Lord, should mark iniquities, O Lord, who could stand? But there is forgiveness with You that You may be feared. I wait for the Lord, my soul waits, and in His Word I do hope.''—Psalm 130: 3–4.

With an acute awareness of our own needs, give us humility to trust You with our weaknesses and praise You for our strengths. Give us a renewed commitment to exemplify strong moral leadership. Most of all, bind us together in greater oneness as, with one mind and heart, we press on to the work You have given us to do together. In our Lord's name. Amen.

RECOGNITION OF THE ACTING MAJORITY LEADER

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The able Senator from Texas is recognized.

AMENDMENT NO. 2477

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under previous order, the Senator from Pennsylvania [Mr. SANTORUM] is recognized for up to 5 minutes for debate in relation to his amendment.

Mr. SANTORUM. I thank the Chair.

I will not take the 5 minutes. I wanted to inform Members who were not here last night when we debated this amendment, I believe this is an amendment that should get overwhelming support of this body. The amendment addresses a problem that I think has come to light through newspaper articles and other studies that have been done by criminal experts where we found that because of the privacy provisions in the current welfare statutes, police are not able to get addresses of people who are fleeing the criminal justice system, fugitive felons who have warrants out for their arrest or are, in fact, convicted felons who have escaped.

You have warrants out for their arrest, convicted felons that police are trying to track down. They go to the welfare agency and say, ''Are they receiving welfare? Is there a current address you might have?'' And the welfare agency, under law, is not allowed to tell them whether this person is receiving food stamps or AFDC or whatever the case may be.

You might say, how big of a problem is this? Well, in Cleveland they had a sting operation a year or so ago and 33 percent of the people who they caught in this sting operation had welfare cards, either receiving food stamps, AFDC, or SSI.

In Philadelphia—I went there earlier this year and talked to the fugitive task force there—they have 50,000 outstanding fugitive warrants, felony warrants in the city of Philadelphia. And of the people that they have brought in under this task force, the police there claim that 75 percent of the people who they have brought in collect welfare. And there is no way for them to go to the welfare agency with this warrant and be able to find out where these people live because one thing the police of Philadelphia told me is that when these folks sign up for welfare, they give the right address because they want those checks to be mailed to the right place.

So we have good information and in many cases we have photographs, and as you know, in pursuing felons you do not necessarily have a recent photograph. They may have changed appearance. So there are all sorts of good reasons this amendment is supported by the chief of police, the FOP—all law enforcement agencies have come out in favor of this amendment.

I am hopeful that the Senate today will adopt this and move forward to help police be able to better find fugitives. Remember, these are dangerous felons who are hiding out, not taking jobs, by collecting Government benefits and therefore not signing up for employment where they might otherwise be caught. So we think this is sort of a logical exemption to the privacy provisions of the Welfare Act. And I hope that the Senate will support the amendment this morning.

I yield the floor.

Mr. BINGAMAN addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from New Mexico.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. President, notwithstanding the previous order, I ask unanimous consent to speak for 30 seconds on the amendment that we will be voting on.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

AMENDMENT NO. 2465

Mr. BROWN. Mr. President, the first vote we will have at 9:30 or shortly thereafter will be on my amendment. What it does is require that the States, when they receive the money from the block grant, handle it the same way they do their own funds. There are six States in our Nation that now have that money from a block grant come to their Governor alone. That Governor is then vested with not only the power to appropriate it, but to act as the executive and, incidentally, approve the person who is the auditor.

So it is a safety measure, very much in line with our concept of constitutional government and the division of powers. And I hope all Members will feel comfortable in supporting it.

Mr. President, I yield back my time and note the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. SANTORUM. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

Mr. PACKWOOD. I object.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will continue with the call of the roll.

The legislative clerk continued with the call of the roll.

Mr. PACKWOOD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. PACKWOOD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the majority leader be able to offer a modification to his amendment after the votes.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Mr. President, there is no objection on this side.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. SANTORUM addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Pennsylvania.

Mr. SANTORUM. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senators ABRAHAM and BAUCUS be added as cosponsors to my amendment.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

GOLDEN GAVEL AWARD

Mr. DOLE. Mr. President, as all Senators know, the Senate is a place of tradition, and one tradition we have is honoring those colleagues who preside over the Senate for more than 100 hours a session. Compared to Cal Ripken's 2,131 games, 100 hours may not seem like a long time, but presiding over the Senate can be very tough duty.

There are periods, of course, when absolutely nothing is happening, but there are also periods when rulings from the Chair may change the course of legislation or of history itself.

Many Senators have presided over the Senate, but I am told that no Republican Senator has ever presided for over 100 hours in a shorter period of time than the current occupant of the Chair, Senator MIKE DEWINE, of Ohio.

It is a pleasure to announce that he is the first recipient of the Golden Gavel Award in the 104th Congress. And when Senator DEWINE departs from the chair today, I will invite him back to the cloakroom where we have a cake in his honor. I know all Senators join me in congratulating the presiding officer on this occasion.

[Applause, Senators rising.]

FAMILY SELF-SUFFICIENCY ACT

The Senate continued with the consideration of the bill.

Mr. DOLE. Mr. President, I am going to modify my amendment. But if I could briefly put in a quorum and indicate that on this side of the aisle the bill will be managed by a number of members on the Finance Committee—Senator GRASSLEY, Senator HATCH, Senator SANTORUM, Senator NICKLES, Senator CHAFEE, and the leader—throughout the remainder of the time on this particular bill. We have a lot of managers.

Could I suggest the absence of a quorum, unless somebody wanted to——

Mr. MOYNIHAN addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from New York.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. A number of Senators simply wish to lay down their amendments. This is understood. And there will be no debate, but simply if you would recognize them as they rise, we would appreciate it, sir.

Mr. SIMON addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Illinois.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. I believe the pending amendment is offered by this Senator under a time agreement of 1½ hours, equally divided.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Amendment No. 2466. There is a 90-minute time limit.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Thank you.

Mr. DOLE. Mr. President, I wonder whether, rather than waste time in a quorum call, I could have consent to modify an amendment? If I could just extend that consent to follow disposition of the Moynihan amendment?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. KERRY addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Massachusetts.

Mr. KERRY. Would it be possible to proceed for 5 minutes or so on a subject outside of that?

Mr. DOLE. It is all right with this Senator.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Five minutes, and then we can get to this matter then.

CONGRESS MOVING TOWARD A ''TRAIN WRECK''

Mr. KERRY. Mr. President, it is clear that Congress is moving inexorably toward what the press is consistently referring to as a ''train wreck.'' And all of us understand as we look at the budget process that there is an inevitable confrontation that is going to take place. That train wreck is already beginning to promote a concern in the financial marketplace. It is upsetting people's perceptions about what Congress is capable of doing or willing to do.

And I would like to say at this time, Mr. President, I would like to express my hope that bipartisanship and common sense will still be virtues here in Washington and that we can take the steps necessary to avoid any train wreck.

It seems to me that all of us ought to be pretty sensitive to what is about to happen. Despite the fact that a huge portion of the public has said that they did not like the way we do business.

Mr. President, a portion of the public has already said to us they do not like the way we do business here. And a lot of us have come to understand that. Despite the fact that we talk about change, we rarely accomplish it. And despite the fact that we claim we want bipartisanship and avoid politics as usual, Congress and the President are moving in a kind of mindless Alice in Wonderland atmosphere toward an inevitable confrontation.

And that confrontation is going to leave Americans questioning the quality of the leadership of this country and questioning the degree to which people here are in touch with the real concerns of the American people.

I find this a profoundly disturbing and almost incomprehensible equation. It is contrary to all of the things that people are asking us to do. And yet some people around here seem more content to believe that it is better to have a sort of ripeness to the political confrontation before we sit down and discuss what we are going to do.

Mr. President, I think that the American people have made it very clear that they want us to behave like adults and they want an assurance that critical services are going to continue to be provided to the people who pay our bills, who pay our salaries, and who pay for those services. In addition to that, there are very fundamental, basic needs of the country that should not be made poker chips in a political gamesmanship one-upmanship process.

Most people have made it very, very clear that their concerns are whether they are going to have a job, whether we are going to do something about raising their income, whether kids are going to get to school and whether the schools are going to be safe, and whether they will be safe in their communities. These are the real concerns of the American people. And every single one of us knows that there are going to be some appropriations bills on the floor that are going to be passed in a unison of ideological fervor. Those bills are absolutely preordained to be vetoed. They are absolutely preordained to have the vetoes upheld. And we are absolutely preordained to come here to confront the moment of reality. But that moment of reality is being put off into the future in a way that makes the American people the pawns in the process.

And I guarantee my colleagues—and they know it because I hear them saying it in the back halls—this will not serve America's interests. This will not serve our interests. It will be bad for this institution. And those of us who I think are concerned about trying to find a bipartisan, moderate, commonsense solution would like to suggest that rather than waiting for the train wreck, let us do what sensible people are supposed to do. Let us sit down now. Let us begin the process now of a bipartisan effort to avoid this confrontation and to find out if we can behave like the adults the American people sent us here to behave like. It is not very complicated.

I would ask that the President of the United States engage with the leadership, with those leaders of the key committees now, and that we even invite the American people to participate. Hold a meeting in the East Room. Let C–SPAN be part of the discussion of the priorities of this country. Let them see why there are differences of opinion. Let America share together with us an opportunity to prove that we are not going to conduct business as usual, that we are prepared to truly think differently.

I ask for 1 additional minute, Mr. President.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator is recognized for 1 additional minute.

Mr. KERRY. Mr. President, rather than go through the process of the inevitable confrontation with a continuing resolution, with a then delayed moment of confrontation with another continuing resolution, it is incumbent on all of us to have a responsible process in the interest of this institution and the American people.

I hope that the President of the United States will reach out to the leadership, and I hope that the majority leader will not be stuck in a position where he suggests that compromise is impossible.

Compromise is the nature of the legislative process. Inevitably, everyone knows there will be some kind of compromise. There has to be. The political equation of the veto, the political equation of the executive versus the legislative branch dictates that that will happen. What the American people do not want to see is a repeat of the Washington Monument and other symbolic closings that ultimately wind up with more than symbolic closings. It is not necessary.

So I implore our colleagues, let us not make the American people the pawns in a political charade. Let us get away from business as usual. Let us begin the process of a real dialog now that proves to the American people we are prepared to have an important, open, significant debate about the priorities of this country, and we can conduct our business in a mature and sensible fashion.

I yield the floor, and I thank the distinguished managers.

THE FAMILY SELF-SUFFICIENCY ACT

The Senate continued with the consideration of the bill.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Who yields time?

Mr. MOYNIHAN addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from New York.

AMENDMENT NO. 2466

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Mr. President, I yield myself such time as I may require for an opening statement.

Mr. President, I rise in an all but empty Chamber to offer an amendment which is in the nature of a substitute for the bill reported from the Committee on Finance and later amended by the distinguished Republican leader.

On May 26, the committee considered the chairman's mark and the bill that I offered, the Family Support Act of 1995. It failed by a vote of 12 to 8 in our committee on party lines, with one exception, and it was not a happy moment, much less a promising moment. It was, indeed, a foreboding one.

Had it not been for the 1994 congressional elections, the wave of what George Will called a cymbal-clash change of the electorate, this measure now before the Senate is pretty much the measure we would have been considering. It brings the Family Support Act of 1988 up to the higher standards, higher expectations that we assumed would come with time and which we also assumed in what might seem the innocence of the last decade would be as bipartisan an effort as was the original.

The Family Support Act passed the Senate on June 16, 1988, by a vote of 93 to 3. We went to conference. The conference committee agreed. It came back, and on September 29 it passed out of this Senate 96 to 1, and then the following day the conference report was agreed to in the House by a vote of 347 to 53, near to an overwhelming vote. And on October 13, it was signed by President Reagan in a ceremony in the Rose Garden. Then Governor William J. Clinton of Arkansas, the Chairman of the Governors' Association was on hand, as was Governor Mike Castle, then Republican Governor of Delaware. The two of them had helped this bipartisan effort in the Governors' Association.

President Reagan said:

> I'm pleased to sign into law today a major reform of our Nation's welfare system, the Family Support Act. This bill creates a new emphasis on the importance of work for individuals in the welfare system.

It basically redefined the Aid to Families with Dependent Children legislation, which dates back to 1935. What had been a widow's pension, meant to phase out as survivor's insurance matured in Social Security, had become a wholly different program for a wholly different population, and within a certain measure of delay, when the time came, we redefined the program, redefined its objectives. We did so, Mr. President, with a measure of realism, even of modesty, in the face of extraordinary change in our social structure, our social system, if you will. This change came suddenly and without warning and to this day it can be quantified but scarcely explained. I refer to the subject that has been spoken about with candor and, I think, understanding, with an openness on the floor in this debate already, which is the rise of out-of-wedlock births, from about 6 percent nationwide in 1960 to about 33 percent today.

I have commented several times that this is something we did not know how to talk about, were not sure we ought to talk about, but which Presidents now openly discuss. President Bush was the first President to raise this issue in a State of the Union Message. President Clinton has done the same. President Clinton has suggested projections that we have made in our office which could take us surely to 40 percent, a number without meaning until this moment in history. We could not have imagined it.

We created the JOBS Program, one of those acronyms, Jobs Opportunities and Basic Skills. We set quotas, percentages that States had to meet as they moved along with the funds available, and we began to see results.

We never promised a very great deal. We made very clear that the persons we were concerned about were the persons most in need, and they are not difficult to define, Mr. President.

About 42 percent of persons who enter the welfare system are there for 24 months or less. They typically are women with children whose marriages have dissolved, and it takes them a period to put their life back, their affairs back in order, and they do. A fairly considerable amount of research has indicated they do not need anything but time and a certain amount of income support, which is what the Social Security system is all about.

On the other hand, a very large proportion of our children enter this system and stay in it for more than 5 years, stay in it for much of their childhood. Seventy-six percent of persons on the AFDC rolls at any given time will be on more than 5 years. They are the ones who are most in need. They are the ones who are most difficult to help. Those are the ones, when something succeeds, you have saved a life. We should concentrate on that.

We were off to a slow start. We had a recession. We had a rise in the number of out-of-wedlock births. What is worrisome is that the cohort of women age 15–24, the age group disproportionately responsible for out-of-wedlock births, is expected to rise over the next 10 years. We will have more illegitimacy, and consequently more of a need for welfare assistance. That phrase ''demography is destiny''—demography is destiny for the welfare system.

In the face of these massive, disturbing, changes in the structure of the family, we enacted the Family Support Act of 1988. For the first time, we said that the single mothers on the welfare rolls must be in education, training, or work to receive their benefits, to the extent State resources permit. We gave States great flexibility to experiment. And we began to get good news from around the country as these programs took effect. The word came out that you can innovate, you ought to try.

How many Senators have we heard talking about Riverside, CA? We had the director of that jobs program in to testify before us this spring in the Finance Committee, with enthusiasm, full of energy. He had a blue button that says ''Life works when you work.'' That sort of energy in the executive establishment is to be praised. All across the country, we began to hear of this program and that program taking hold. But still, the welfare caseload grew.

As I said yesterday, our assessment in the Congressional Budget Office is that about half the growth was due to the increase in out-of-wedlock births. About a quarter of the decline of the economy is the increase in unemployment. There is a measure in which the economy affects welfare dependency. But primarily, welfare dependency derives from single-parent families. It is affected by the rise in the business cycle—but marginally. We are dealing with something very different, very new, just learning our way. And yet, while we simply do not know how to change the behavior which is driving illegitimacy, we are learning how to get welfare recipients off the rolls and into jobs. What we have learned we have learned under the Family Support Act.

That is why it has come as a source of dismay to many students of the subject, scholars such as Lawrence Mead, of New York University, who certainly wishes himself to be understood as conservative in these matters. He said recently of the legislation before us, what we voted on yesterday and what we will vote on:

> The main effect of block grants would be to disestablish the jobs program which has been the major force pushing States with large caseloads to reform.

Dr. Meade has commented that even New York is beginning to get the message. Well, that is a large event. You cannot break the mindset of a half century instantly. There is a sort of law of retarded response, that large bureaucracies established to provide benefits on a permanent basis to permanently dependent persons, widows react slowly to change, and it will take a generation to get it understood that this is no longer the reality.

I knew Frances Perkins rather well. She was very much in evidence here in Washington in the early sixties. We began to notice this welfare problem, and I would talk with her about it. When it began, she would describe the typical recipient of the Aid to Families with Dependent Children. The typical recipient was a West Virginia miner's widow. There was no expectation that she would go to work in the mines. In time, the survivors insurance would take care of that. In time the survivors insurance did. Only about 71 percent of the persons receiving Social Security benefits are retired persons. The rest are spouses, children of deceased workers, and persons of that order.

We knew we were changing and we knew the change would be difficult, but we built into our legislation very careful evaluation to find what works. We particularly looked to the Manpower Demonstration Research Corporation based in New York, which had provided the basic data on which we enacted the legislation, and they have now reported. They are not easily impressed. They quantify, they measure, and they are very realistic. This is what they recently wrote about an assessment of the program Nationwide:

> This report represents early evidence that well-implemented, highly mandatory jobs programs that use job search followed by a range of short-term education, training, and other services to promote rapid job entry can produce dramatic reductions in welfare receipt and substantial increases in employment and earnings.

May I say, Mr. President, the MDRC is not in the habit of referring to dramatic reductions. But they have done it. Indeed, we see our caseloads beginning to decline over the last year. They have dropped by a quarter of a million, 240,000 or almost 5 percent. Most of the decline has come in the 44 smaller States that have about half the caseload. Forty-four States have half of the AFDC cases; six have the other half.

I have spoken to you, Mr. President, about the degree to which so many of our cities are effectively overwhelmed by this social disorder, as it now is. In the city of Chicago, in a given year, 46 percent of all children will be on welfare. In Detroit, 67 percent will be. In Philadelphia, 57 percent. In New York, 39 percent. These are numbers that overwhelm a political and a social system. They will stay overwhelmed. It will be a generation before we are out of this.

But if we now abandon efforts which are beginning to show results, we will regret it. We will regret it if we remember having done it. I have, several times, referred to a remark made on the Charlie Rose show by the new director of the National Urban League, Mr. Hugh Price, who said that what we are proposing is something equal to the measures of the deinstitutionalization of mental patients in the 1960's.

I happen to have been much involved in that. The program began in the 1950's in New York State, where the first tranquilizers were developed. I was on hand, Mr. President, when on October 31, 1963, President John F. Kennedy had his last public bill signing ceremony. He signed the Community Mental Health Construction Act of 1963. He gave me a pen, and I have had it framed. We were going to build 2,000 community mental health centers between then and 1980. We were going to empty out our mental institutions and treat people in their communities. Well, we emptied out our mental institutions, but we did not build the centers. We built about 400 and then forgot what we were doing. Then the problem of the homeless appeared, and people said, ''Where did these homeless persons come from?''

In my city of New York they said, well, it is obviously the problem of lack of affordable housing. It was not a lack of affordable housing. It is schizophrenia, found in a basic incidence of large populations. We did something terribly wrong and we cannot even recover the memory.

If in 10 years' time we find children sleeping on grates, picked up in the morning frozen, and we ask, why are they scavenging, being awful to themselves, awful to one another? Would anyone remember how it began? It would have begun on the House floor this spring and the Senate Chamber this autumn.

You will have half a million children in New York City with altogether inadequate provision, if any. It will almost be forgotten. Such is the amnesiac quality of so much of our politics, that there was a time when the Federal Government said it had a responsibility.

These children are all our children and we are all responsible for them. If you had more intelligent federalism it would sort so many things out. We have so many things we are doing at the Federal level in which we have no business.

It was remarked yesterday that when the Food Stamp Program began, States were free to set their own levels and they set them at wildly different levels, and many were quite inadequate. President Nixon came along and said, no, children are children, they are all American children. We will have a national standard.

President Nixon proposed a guaranteed income. The distinguished Presiding Officer was presiding the other day when just by coincidence a Brazilian

Senator happened to be in Washington and came to watch us, observe us. I went out to introduce myself and asked him to come and join us on the floor. Senator Eduardo Suplicy, who gave us a copy of a bill that has passed the Brazilian Senate which provided a guaranteed minimum income—all families with children up to age 14.

Brazil is doing it, moving in the direction we were. We are moving away. We are moving away amidst all manner of myth and misinformation.

First of all there is the myth that there is, in fact, an individual entitlement to welfare benefits. There is not, sir. States are entitled to a Federal matching share of any outlays they make on their own State programs.

The Federal share for various States ranges from 50 percent to about 78 percent. A State may have any program it wishes; it may have no program and provide $1 per year per child or $1,000 per year per child.

The number of actual Federal requirements are relatively few. The Federal statute says you can have only $1,000 in assets. All these children are paupers.

The bureaucracy has been too presciptive in detailing how States may implement their programs, and has often taken much too long to approve various State experiments. But the fact remains that under current law States have a good deal of flexibility, and through the waiver process they can do almost anything they please. There exists now flexibility for innovation, as there exists a Federal commitment to provide a share of provision to impoverished dependent children. If we abandon that, we abandon those children.

The legislation offered in the Finance Committee—I see my distinguished friend from Illinois was there—and now here as an amendment in the nature of the substitute, would build on the Family Support Act of 1988.

We would increase the funding for the Jobs Program from $1.2 billion in this coming fiscal year to $2.5 billion. The Federal matching rate for JOBS and child care would go from 60 to 70 percent. The participation rates would increase from 20 percent this year in stages to 50 percent in the year 2001.

These are increases we anticipated would be made as we got the hang of this effort, got to learn more about it. We learned, for example, that immediate job search is the most important thing; that a focus solely on educational training delays the reality of getting a job.

We are even learning to break one of the worst habits we ever acquired on this subject, which is disparaging entry-level jobs. My Lord, how I have spent 30 years listening to ''advocates'' talk about dead end jobs. Now the cliche is ''flipping hamburgers.''

The present chief executive officer of McDonald's, Ed Rensi, began flipping hamburgers. As I recall, he entered his entry wage at 83 cents an hour. Everybody starts. It is getting started that matters most.

This was our program, Mr. President. We had great hopes for it. It was bipartisan—96 to 1. It has taken hold.

If we look around, a great majority of the States have been coming in, proposing innovative measures of this kind, such as increasing income—disregards, moving people into the work force.

We have a transition from Medicaid provision for a year after leaving the AFDC rolls. We have child care provisions. We thought this out. We have done it. We have done it well. That we should abandon it now would be a great loss to our children. The United States will end up looking to the rest of the world as a place that cannot handle its affairs. We will wonder what we did. We have an opportunity to avoid that. We will vote in a very short while now.

Three years ago we would routinely have upgraded, updated, brought up to the expected higher standards the Family Support Act. If we are unwilling to do so today, at least in 10 years' time, when the horrors we shall have visited upon the children of the United States begin to be unmistakable, there will be those who can remember this day in this Chamber and say, ''I saw that coming and I voted to prevent it.''

Mr. President, I yield the floor. I see the distinguished Senator from Iowa is managing and would like to speak.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Iowa.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I yield myself such time as I might consume. But I would like to have the Chair notify me when I have used 20 minutes because if I have colleagues who want to speak, I want to make sure that they have an opportunity to do so.

Mr. President, we have heard a defense of the 1988 act from the distinguished Senator from New York. I believe, as one who voted for the 1988 act, that it was pursued from beginning to end with the best of intentions. The goals were to move people from welfare to work, from dependence to independence, to strengthen the family and even to save the taxpayers money.

I have to look back on those efforts as work being sincerely done, but as I look at the evolution of that act, the use of it and what it set out to accomplish and has accomplished, I believe I failed when I voted for that bill. I do not want to say that anyone else failed, but I look back at our efforts and see 3.1 million more people on AFDC now than we had then as one measure of failure. I see a lot more tax dollars being spent as another measure of failure.

Now we are being asked by the other side, by the amendment of the distinguished Senator from New York, to build on the 1988 act. Albeit, I am sure, they are suggesting changes in the amendment before us that reflect what they see as failures of that 1988 act. But the difference between the leadership proposal under the distinguished leadership of Senator DOLE and what the loyal opposition offers is the difference between night and day.

We have seen the Federal Government failing in welfare reform, not just since the 1988 act but, we would have to say, over the last several decades. In contrast, we have seen States succeed where we have failed, States like Missouri and Iowa and Wisconsin, Michigan, Massachusetts, New Jersey, and others. That is why we propose to get the Federal Government out of the business of welfare and turn it over to the States with the resources to accomplish the goal of ending welfare as we know it.

The major difference between what my distinguished friend from New York suggests and what Senator DOLE and the Finance Committee on this side suggests is whether or not we are going to maintain what is called the Federal entitlement. We propose to end the Federal entitlement. The Moynihan proposal maintains it.

Republicans propose to save the taxpayers $70 billion. Under the Moynihan proposal, the savings is only $2.1 billion. That is $2.1 billion in savings with the proposal on that side of the aisle; $70 billion in savings on the program from this side of the aisle.

Now, we do not propose our bill just to save money. We do not propose the ending of the entitlement just to save money. In fact, even if there was not an issue of balancing the budget, the failure of the Federal Government, after decades in the welfare business, is why it should be reformed on its own merits, and that is the way we proceed.

The litmus test of whether or not there is going to be change in Washington, the litmus test of whether it is no longer business as usual, is this issue of the Federal entitlement. Our proposal ends the Federal entitlement. That side would preserve the Federal entitlement.

As I look back at the 1988 legislation, there are things that I see as wrong now that I did not see then. It loosened some of the tough eligibility requirements that were enacted in the 1981 Reagan welfare reforms. It expanded the eligibility to two-parent families. It provided for State waivers that would make it possible to reverse still more of those 1981 reforms.

I know some people would say we made those waivers available, that is why these States today are doing what they are doing. That is true. But, also, in the first instance, States were able to seek waivers of the 1981 reforms that were enacted.

We also permitted waivers to redefine who was unemployed by basing it on income earned rather than hours worked. We allowed the term ''strict work requirements'' to be undermined by creating an exemption for mothers having another child under 6. We promised a lot of education. We promised a lot of job training. We promised other attractive social services including child care and medical services to AFDC recipients who leave the welfare rolls. And the sole price for admission to those rolls was having that first baby.

Now, you can say to me, that any one of those things are very, very small. These are precisely the reasons, though, why AFDC has grown by 3.1 million people since 1988. Yes, these results demonstrate, as I look back at the 1988 legislation, that some of those changes were wrong. Though each of the changes might have been slight, they created incentives which, taken together, have caused the dramatic explosion in the AFDC rolls from 1989 to 1995.

Now, I anticipate some will say, ''Well, GRASSLEY, you forget that we had a recession in 1991 and 1992. That obviously had something to do with the explosion of people on AFDC.''

Before I respond to that, let me give the statistics on the growth of AFDC. There were 3 million in 1960. It rose rapidly through the 1960's and early 1970's. It rose rapidly, yes, even into the 1970's and then leveled off in 1972.

We had a very, very deep recession in 1974 and 1975, and the numbers dropped in the middle of that recession. That recession was deeper than what we had in 1991. The numbers stayed fairly level, though they did rise a little bit during the Carter administration, to 11.1 million in 1981, then they leveled off. They were 10.3 million in 1982, 11 million in 1989, and then we had that dramatic increase of another 3 million people that I believe is blamed on the 1988 law. We were promised that the numbers would go down as a result of the 1988 legislation. We thought that the act would steer AFDC parents to work and off the dole. Obviously, the legislation was praised by Democrats as well as Republicans as a final means of reducing welfare dependency.

We heard earlier that President Reagan praised the 1988 act when he signed it into law. But I still maintain, looking back over the history, that there was a period of time when President Reagan was against what was going on in the Congress. But we had a candidate for President in 1988 by the name of President Bush who, all of a sudden, at the time of the conference committee, came out and supported the legislation. I think that pulling of the rug out from the efforts to modify the legislation nixed what opportunity we had at that late moment to do more. And that legislation passed with only one dissenting vote. It was bipartisan, and I suppose for that reason nobody wants to expose the dramatic failures.

I can only speak for myself. But I do see the six or seven reasons that I gave of changes in the 1981 law, some expansion of eligibility and the redefinition of unemployed, and the redefinition of strict work requirements as opening up the opportunity for the dramatic growth we then saw. I do not see the growth, Mr. President, in any direct way related to a recession because we did not have that dramatic of an increase in the last recession that we had in 1974 and 1975.

So, we are at the point where we have to consider the new approach to welfare reform, an approach that establishes faith in State governments and local governments because they have done a lot to reduce welfare. Their plans are working. Yet, they had to come to the Federal Government on bended knees, hat in hand, even to get limited waivers to accomplish what they wanted to do. I will bet that in most instances they would have been more dramatic, more dynamic in what they would want to try in the way of reform if they had not had to get those waivers. I know my own State of Iowa had to wait 8 months for waivers.

Iowa has moved 2,000 people off the welfare rolls and reduced the monthly check from $360 to $340. My State has the highest percentage of anybody on AFDC at work, 34 percent. That has been a dramatic increase from under 18 percent when our program started, less than 2 years ago.

President Clinton ran for office in 1992. When he was running for office, he promised to end welfare as we know it. After 2 years of inaction, the American people rendered a very dramatic change in Congress, so dramatic that some historians say you have to go back to 1930 to see such a political change at the grassroots in America reflected in the membership of Congress. But for the first time since 1954, Republicans control both Houses of the Congress.

The American people said that they wanted change. The people had not seen the President and a Congress of the President's party so that there would be no gridlock delivered, as was promised in that 1992 election. They wanted change and they did not receive it. So they voted out the old and voted in the new.

I stated how in 1988 we passed welfare reform. Unfortunately, it failed our hopes and expectations. We have more people on welfare today than we did then.

The proposal that is before us from the other side of the aisle is basically a modification and continuation of the 1988 plan. The only positive thing to come out of the 1988 Family Support Act is that some States sought out waivers and came up with changes. As our political laboratories, our State legislatures, they suggested changes which could be made. They began to move people from welfare to work and save the taxpayers' money.

The example of the States then is what moved us on this side of the aisle to our block grant approach as a means of addressing the crisis in the current welfare system. We are ending the entitlement approach, by ending the attitude that the Federal Government knows the answers to all the welfare problems, that we can decide in Washington and we can pay for them as well.

Well, we learned that we do not have all the answers. We have learned that we have not solved all of the problems. And we are finally, after 30 years, facing up to the fact that we cannot afford all of these entitlements.

I am surprised when I hear that if we give authority back to the States, children will be left starving in the streets. That has not been said this morning, but the implication is there when we are told that 10 years from now if we vote for a block grant approach, we are going to look back and see that it is a mistake. That could be. And we have constitutional authority to reevaluate what we have done. But I think I have seen enough change and improvement in the programs at the State level to give me courage to move forward with ending the Federal entitlement and to ignore the warnings that I have received from my good friend.

Somehow I think some in this body have bought into the idea that we at the Federal level know what's best and that we can fix everything. I think it is a fairly arrogant approach to assume that only the Federal leaders as opposed to State leaders have compassion towards the needs of those less fortunate in our society.

In 40 years of Federal control we have seen an increase in dependency. We have seen an increase in the number of people on welfare. We have seen an increase in all of the social pathological problems that come from single-parent families.

We have heard these statistics over and over, but 70 percent of the juveniles in reformatories come from single-parent families, 60 percent of the rapists, 72 percent of the adolescent murderers. Kids that come from broken families are 40 percent more likely to fail a grade, 70 percent more likely to be expelled from school. Girls from broken families are more likely to have out-of-wedlock births and continue the problem.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair will advise the Senator he has used 20 minutes.

Mr. GRASSLEY. OK. I am going to take just a few more minutes and then yield the floor to my colleagues.

We have seen well-intended Federal programs destroy the nuclear family. And then we see amendments like we have before us today to continue that form of Federal control.

There is something I believe that we as Republicans and Democrats do agree on, and that is that the current system must be changed and changed dramatically. How dramatically?

Well, not very dramatically from the ideas we are getting from the other side of the aisle. When you want to end a Federal entitlement and let the States make the decisions, that is very dramatic.

We do not all agree that the welfare state is broken, but both Republicans and Democrats agree that the welfare system within the welfare state is broken, or we would not even have these ideas from the other side of the aisle.

The leadership bill meets the basic goals of welfare reform. That is to provide a system that meets the short-term needs of low-income Americans as they prepare for independence, to provide for much greater State flexibility, to reduce the incidence of out-of-wedlock births and strengthen the family, and finally to save the taxpayers some of their hard-earned money.

It is interesting to me that many Members will oppose the leadership bill and support the Moynihan bill because they say our proposal might hurt children. Yet I wish that these same Members would admit that the current system has hurt children.

The system I have described has not been good for our children. If we truly care about these children, we will reform very dramatically the current detrimental system.

Then you have to consider: If you are concerned about children, you also have to be concerned about children who are not on welfare. And if we are not concerned about doing something about this out-of-control Federal spending—though welfare is a small part of it—then we do not show the proper concern for each child born this day who inherits at the first breath $18,000 of responsibility for the $4.9 trillion debt we have. If we do not reverse the deficit crisis, our children, all children, will pay 80 percent of their lifetime earnings in taxes. Mr. President, that is wrong. We have to be concerned about the children who are not on welfare as well as children who are on welfare.

It is appropriate for us to be concerned about the children of low-income Americans but, frankly, I think it is about time that we are concerned about all the children of America. That means we have to reduce the deficit while we change the welfare system to free those who are trapped in it. If we take steps to move people from welfare to work, to give more flexibility to the States, to reduce illegitimacy and to strengthen the family, we will in the long run save the taxpayers money. This will be the natural result of positive changes to the current system.

I yield the floor.

Mr. ROCKEFELLER addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Who yields time?

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Mr. President, I understand the distinguished Senator from West Virginia would like to offer an amendment, and to do so with celerity. I yield 30 seconds for such purpose.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered. The Senator from New York.

AMENDMENT NO. 2466

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Mr. President, I yield myself 90 seconds, first to say in response to my friend from Iowa, my long associate on the Committee on Finance, he was this morning talking of the achievements of the State of Iowa in this area, and did so the other day, and he was talking about the achievements under the Family Support Act. There is yet a new proposal that came from Iowa, a request for a new set of disregards, and such like, received in April and approved in August for the Iowa Family Investment Program.

The Senator is right to be proud, but why not associate what Iowa has done with the legislation that encouraged it. I do not ask a response. I do not expect a response. But I would like to put that new Iowa Family Investment Program in the RECORD at this point, Mr. President. It is one page.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

IOWA FAMILY INVESTMENT PROGRAM

(Request: April 1993. Approved: August, 1993)

STATEWIDE

Disregard 20% of earnings as work expense deduction; in addition, disregard 50% of earned income after all other deductions applied; disregard all earnings in first four months of employment if individual reports employment in timely manner and had less than $1200 in earnings in 12 months before the employment began.

$2,000 asset limit for applicants, $5,000 for recipients; exempt equity value of automobile up to $3,000, adjusted annually by CPI; income deposited in IDA will not be counted as income and funds in IDA not counted toward asset limit.

Limit exemptions from requirement of Family Investment Agreement to individuals: 1) with a child under 6 months; 2) already employed 30 hours per week or more; or 3) disabled.

Plan specifies that families will be given individualized time limits based on their circumstances. At the end of the specified period, all benefits terminated. Extensions available for good cause.

For noncompliance, family will receive ''Limited Benefit Plan,'' full benefits for three months of benefits, followed by three months of benefits for children only, followed by full family ineligibility for six months.

TCC for 24 months.

Eliminate 100-hour rule and work history requirements.

Allow stepparents same earned income disregards as available to recipients, as described above. Stepparents also allowed to receive regular child care expense deduction.

Allow grandparents same earned income disregards as available to recipients, as described above.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Mr. President, again, in response to my friend, it is the fact that in the 1992 campaign, then candidate, now President Clinton proposed to end welfare as we know it.

In an address to Georgetown University opening his campaign in 1991, he proposed a 2-year limit and now we begin to see the consequences. I have nothing more to say than that except to concede, I hope graciously, the Senator is right. We are ending the Federal entitlement to States for the support of dependent children and it is ending what we have known as welfare.

Sir, my able colleague and friend from Louisiana would like to speak to the experience of Louisiana under the Family Support Act. I am happy to yield 5 minutes to the Senator from Louisiana.

Mr. BREAUX. I thank very much the ranking member for giving me some time.

I, too, was a little confused when the Senator from Iowa was talking about the situation in his State. I have heard many, many times in many forums the success of Iowa in being innovative, in creating new programs and ideas of how to solve the problems of welfare reform in their particular State. And those accomplishments really were accomplished under the Family Support Act that was passed in this Congress in 1988.

That bill, which passed this body by a vote of 96 to 1, allowed States to be creative, allowed States to put in new ideas and new programs. Iowa took advantage of that and I think made some great progress. I think they should be proud of it. But it also is a result of actions that this Senate, this body took when we enacted the Family Support Act of 1988, the principal author of which was the ranking member of the Senate Finance Committee, the senior Senator from the State of New York.

Is it perfect? Of course not. Is anything we do ever perfect? Of course not. But it has allowed for great progress in permitting States to be innovative in creating programs that best fit the needs of their particular State.

In keeping with that, I wanted to share the experience of my State of Louisiana. The headline in the Monroe News Star World of August 14 of this year: ''Project Independence Trims Welfare Rolls Across State.'' This is good news. This was done under the existing program, under the Family Support Act of 1988. There is good news in the land, in many States that have done substantially positive things in getting people off welfare. I read from the article. It says:

''In Louisiana, welfare reform is nothing new. Since October of 1990, the number of Louisiana residents receiving Aid to Families with Dependent Children has dropped 20 percent,'' said Howard Prejeau, Assistant Secretary for the Office of Family Support.

''Since 1990, it has dropped 20 percent.'' The article further continues:

''That decrease,'' he said, ''is due in large part to Project Independence, a program that helps AFDC recipients find jobs and increase their education.'' Project Independence was created under the Family Support Act of 1988.

As of June 1995, 11,260 participants received jobs with 8,332 making enough money to get off welfare completely, according to a report released by the Department of Social Services.

A program in my State provides child care and transportation, absolutely essential ingredients if we are going to have real reform for those looking for work. Also it helps build up self-esteem by teaching the value of working and showing them their own self-worth.

Project Independence also has programs to help participants receive their GED's or high school diplomas, receive associate and 4-year degrees or job-skills training and build résumés through community service work.

A report issued by the Public Welfare Association in 1994, Louisiana ranked last in AFDC caseload growth in the country for 1989 through 1993.

Mr. President, it is not a coincidence that this achievement and this accomplishment for my State of Louisiana was produced as a direct product of the Family Support Act of 1988 offered by the distinguished Senator from New York, Senator MOYNIHAN. We should recognize and congratulate success where it has occurred. And under this program there have been outstanding examples of real success. We should not ignore it.

I yield the floor.

Mr. GRASSLEY addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Iowa.

Mr. GRASSLEY. I would yield 5 minutes to the Senator from Oklahoma.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Oklahoma.

Mr. INHOFE. I thank the Senator from Iowa for yielding the time.

Mr. President, I think it is appropriate during this debate to be aware of something that is going on around the Nation today that there are those individuals trying to hold on to the past with white knuckles and using taxpayers' money to do that.

I was shocked to find out yesterday that in my hometown of Tulsa, OK, we had a traveling troupe from Texas. These are the regional directors of the various agencies: Mr. Steve Weatherford from Housing and Urban Development, he is the regional director; Pat Montoya, Health and Human Services; and Jim Cantu, of Labor, all converging upon one city, to scare the people of Tulsa, OK, into thinking that if we go along with the changes that we are advocating in the welfare system, the changes in Government as we know it, the changes that are consistent with the revolution that took place on November 8, 1994, that somehow people are going to be starving.

I am just going to read a couple of the quotes here. And it happens that our mayor in Tulsa is a very strong supporter of President Clinton, so I am sure she joined in. But Steve Weatherford of HUD said, ''We are talking about major cuts to our social fabric. * * * We are talking about hundreds of thousands of children and poor people who will be affected in Oklahoma.''

We have Pat Montoya with Health and Human Services, ''Tulsa would lose more than $5 billion in Federal funding between 1995 and the year 2002 if the GOP program is adopted.''

Jim Cantu of Labor said that GOP budget cuts would ''take food out of the mouths of children and punish 15-year-old mothers.''

And on and on and on.

You know, I have to join with my fellow Senator from Oklahoma, DON NICKLES, as well as Congressman STEVE LARGENT whose district this city of Tulsa is, when we say that there is no better case that can be made of the bloated Government and the waste that has taken place today than to have these top officials with all their entourage trouping around going from city to city to scare people and into maintaining the status quo.

I think that the stories that we are hearing today in conjunction with the welfare bill are very similar to that.

I think the most profound thing that was said by the Senator from Iowa was that if you are really concerned and really having compassion, look at the children who will be born today, if we do not make these major changes, having to spend 82 percent—I think it has been calculated of their lifetime earnings—on supporting Government. So I hope that we can keep this in mind that there is an army of bureaucrats trouping around the country right now, trying to scare people into thinking that we cannot afford a major change.

Let us keep in mind that in November there was a change, that there is a mandate that came with that, and that is, let us end these age-old programs that have been proven failures and change the role of Government as we have come to know it since the 1960's.

Mr. GRASSLEY addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Iowa.

Mr. GRASSLEY. I would like to defer to the Senator from Maine on the same basis we just did a little while ago to the Senator from West Virginia.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Would my friend mind if we alternate at this point?

Mr. GRASSLEY. I will yield the floor to the Senator from New York.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. I am very happy to yield 5 minutes of our remaining time to my strong colleague on the Committee on Finance, the Senator from Illinois.

Ms. MOSELEY-BRAUN. Thank you very much, Mr. President.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Illinois.

Ms. MOSELEY-BRAUN. I want to thank the Senator from New York for his exemplary leadership in this area and for what I consider to be a brilliant statement earlier.

There is so much to say about this subject, one scarcely can say it all in 5 minutes. But I am going to just talk about an observation I had a few minutes ago listening to PAT MOYNIHAN on this subject.

The observation had to do with the whole notion of perspective, of how one perceives an issue often dictates the kind of conclusions that one reaches about it, whether the facts support that perception or not.

I was reminded of a fact that PAT MOYNIHAN has been an oracle, if you will, a visionary for a number of years about a number of these issues going to the social fabric in our country. He has found himself over time derided, criticized for his observations. Then, with the passage of time, people come back and say, oh, by the way, that PAT MOYNIHAN was right 20 years ago. He warned us about the increase in illegitimacy. He warned us about this development, or he warned us about another development.

And so, frankly, it has got to be a little frustrating to him to be that kind of prophet in his own time, pointing the way and trying to give people the facts, the basic information that should influence debates like this one, but I daresay unfortunately all too often do not influence debates like this one.

The fact of the matter is, this is more of a political debate than it is anything having to do with reality. The fact of the matter is, this debate is being shaped by hot buttons and wedge issues and frustration and, frankly, campaign dynamics more than anything going to the experience, the history, the reality or anything that can be projected for the future.

I heard a lot of conversation about this as a revolution we are going to go and do things a new way. We are going to get the Federal Government out of the business of providing for poor children and out of setting up the welfare system and the like.

The reality is, Mr. President, that there is an old expression that those who do not learn the lessons of history are doomed to repeat its mistakes. I think that is ancient wisdom that still applies.

The fact of the matter is that the Federal Government was not always in the business of providing for poor children.

Last night, when I made a statement about this issue, I talked about the friendless foundlings and homeless half-orphans, the experience of this country in dealing with the poverty, child poverty particularly, before the Federal Government ingratiated itself and got involved in providing a national safety net, a national base, if you will, below which we expect no American child to fall.

Well, we apparently did not learn that history or have chosen, because of our frustration and our aggravation with our inability to fix this problem, decided to go back to that, to go back to the model that says the Federal Government has no role and, more to the point, as a national community because it is not a Federal Government that sets out there. We are all as Americans in this democracy—really the Federal Government is an expression of all of us as a national community. And this legislation, as has been admitted and spoken to very candidly on the floor, says that as a national community we have no obligation to poor children in the various locations and locales around this country, that a child's situation and the level and degree of poverty or privation may well depend on an accident of that child's geography, and that that is OK by this body with the pending legislation.

Well, that may be the case. But I submit to you, Mr. President, we have, at a minimum, an obligation to do no harm. As we talk about our political revolution and anger about politicians making statements or whatever, and we go through all of that, it seems to me we have an obligation to do no harm.

In my mind, that means that we do not allow ourselves to construct a response to poverty that will leave the possibility wide open that PAT MOYNIHAN might once again be right, will leave the possibility that we could very well wind up with children being found frozen on the grates on the street corners, that children will no longer have a national safety net, that we will not, as a national community, have a sense of obligation and responsibility to poor children.

There are estimates that given the leadership proposal, should the leadership proposal pass, and this is a preliminary estimate, in my State of Illinois alone, it is projected that the number of children by the 21st century—which is not that far from now—the number of children that will be cut off will be 598,000 children, or 34 percent.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair advises the Senator 5 minutes have expired.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. I yield 1 additional minute.

Ms. MOSELEY-BRAUN. Mr. President, I will be brief. Nationally, the number of children who are likely to be affected and left with no safety net for their welfare whatsoever in this country will be 12 million children—12 million children, a third of the children.

We already know in this country, in America, right now we have the highest child poverty rate in the entire industrialized world. That, in and of itself, ought to make us mindful of our obligation to do better by the response to poverty that we construct in this legislative body than the hot button and the politics that is apparently driving the debate today. If anything, that perspective makes me very sad.

I want to congratulate Senator MOYNIHAN for continuing to raise the issues that these are a phenomenon that transcends anything the Federal Government standing alone can do or any bill standing alone will do. These are the issues that go to the core of fundamental issues having to do with the functioning of our economy, with the existence of poverty and with the breakdown of the family as a unit.

Those kinds of concerns are not being addressed by the leadership bill, and I hope that the Members will support Senator MOYNIHAN's amendment, at least with the prescription that as we move in this very sensitive and important area, we do no harm to the children.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair advises the Senator from New York he has 2 minutes and 15 seconds. The Senator from Iowa has 17 minutes and 6 seconds. Who yields time?

Mr. GRASSLEY. How much time does Senator MOYNIHAN have left?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from New York has 1 minute remaining. The Senator from Iowa has 15 minutes, 30 seconds remaining.

AMENDMENT NO. 2466

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I am going to use the same amount of time Senator MOYNIHAN has left, and then I will yield back my time.

I would like to respond to a couple statements that have been made, I think one by Senator MOYNIHAN, the other one by Senator BREAUX. They each made the point that since my State of Iowa has been doing so well in getting waivers, why should we not just continue building upon the 1988 act.

The point here, Mr. President, is first, that it takes such a very, very long time to get a waiver. Second, I believe state legislatures, in changing their welfare laws with the hopes of getting a waiver, are relatively less dynamic and venturesome than they would be if they had the sole authority to make a determination of what they wanted in welfare reform for their State.

Just to show you how complicated it is to get such a waiver approved, a State can sometimes be caught getting waivers from four different Federal Departments: The Department of Health and Human Services, the Department of Agriculture, the Department of Housing and Urban Development, and the Department of Labor.

All four of these Departments are, in one way or another, responsible for programs that affect low-income families served by our current welfare system. However, there is no coordination among these Departments in granting waivers to the States. In fact, each specific program has its own set of statutes and rules defining the parameters of possible waivers.

I could give you description after description of what my State of Iowa has gone through. In the first days of debate on this legislation, we heard speeches by the Senator from Oregon about the complicated process of waivers that Oregon had to go through, the multitudes of meetings, the multitudes of trips to Washington, DC, the changes that were required, and then they had to go back through the approval process again. We want to end the process by which the coequal States of our Union come to Washington hat in hand on bended knee to get these waivers.

The last point I will make is this. We have had the opportunity again today to hear from the Senator from Illinois about the plight of children. She does this very well.

There is no disputing anything she says, including the facts and figures that she has given of the rapid increase in the number of children in those circumstances.

But let me remind her—let me remind everybody—as we debate welfare reform, as we consider a change of this system, that all the problems she describes are under a failed system. All those statistics that have increased in number, such as the number of people in poverty—the system that is being defended today, is the cause of those increases.

It is about time that we try something new. I think we have seen the success of the States, and we ought to move to a new approach.

I ask my colleagues to vote against the Moynihan amendment.

I yield 2 minutes to the Senator from New York.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. And I yield 1 minute of the 2 minutes, generously provided by the Senator from Iowa, to the Senator from New Jersey.

Mr. BRADLEY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the pending measure be set aside for the purposes of sending amendments to the desk, not being counted against my time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. FRIST). Without objection, it is so ordered.

AMENDMENTS NOS. 2496, 2497, AND 2498, EN BLOC, TO AMENDMENT NO. 2280

Mr. BRADLEY. Mr. President, I send all three amendments to the desk, en bloc, and ask for their immediate consideration.

''(1) counties;

''(2) localities;

''(3) school boards; or

''(4) other units of local government.''.

AMENDMENT NO. 2498

(Purpose: To provide that existing civil rights laws shall not be preempted by this Act)

At the appropriate place at the end of Title I, add the following:

AMENDMENT NO. 2466

Mr. BRADLEY. Mr. President, I rise to congratulate Senator MOYNIHAN for putting together the only welfare alternative that is really based on what we know about welfare, what the problems are, what we can fix, and what we can't fix.

As a member of the Finance Committee, I was struck by the fact that we held several months of hearings, heard from academic experts, State administrators, Governors, people who work with young mothers in residential programs, and job placement specialists. We heard all their suggestions about what could be improved, and then we proceeded to ignore all their advice. We simply ignored it.

Instead we adopted a solution that serves the political purpose of claiming that we've eliminated welfare, but in reality, does nothing. It turns over the whole thing, with all its problems, to the States, in the hopes that they can figure it out.

Senator MOYNIHAN took the right approach. He looked at his own greatest accomplishment, the Family Support Act of 1988, and was willing to acknowledge that it had fallen short of our expectations in some very distinct ways:

First, the JOBS Program overall was not successful at moving people into work. It put too little emphasis on real work and discouraged real education, leaving people to waste their time in empty job search programs and structured study halls. Some programs actually delayed recipients getting jobs longer than if they hadn't been in the program. But several counties and States found ways to do much better, by striving to place people directly into real jobs and building the training around those jobs. This amendment shifts the focus of the JOBS Program to build on its strengths rather than its shortcomings.

Second, AFDC overall, and the JOBS Program in particular, don't give States enough flexibility to find their own solutions. That's not an argument for handing the States a fixed pot of money and washing our hands of the whole thing. Instead, it's an argument for giving the States flexibility within clear standards, requiring the States to structure the JOBS Program as they see fit but requiring results. This amendment does just that.

Third, we made a mistake in 1988 that we are now on the verge of making all over again, in much greater magnitude: We made big promises and failed to invest. Taking individuals from the middle of the turmoil of America's cities, from the turmoil of their own families and neighborhoods, individuals who are caring for children, and helping them to become economically self-sufficient is an enormous challenge. It means giving each person almost constant attention, helping them find a way to balance work and family, helping them master new skills, compensating for the failures of the elementary and secondary school system. It means sticking with people after they find their first job, helping them keep that job and move on to a better one. It cannot be done with slogans or wishes. It requires an investment.

Since 1988, we have spent only $1 billion a year on the JOBS Program, and much of that has gone unspent because States have not been willing or able to come up with their share. This amendment is the only alternative that makes realistic promises about getting people to work and puts the investment behind it.

The argument I have heard against this amendment is simply that it retains the entitlement. That's an evil work, but what does it really mean? It means that States will get an amount of money equal to what they need—when hardship increases because of the economy, States will have the resources they need. It means that individuals who need help will get it, as long as they make an effort to become self-sufficient. Nobody is entitled to anything if they don't follow the rules. And the States can set the rules with greater flexibility under this amendment.

Mr. President, I urge my colleagues to support Senator MOYNIHAN's alternative. It is the only welfare bill we will vote on that is based on reality and not slogans. It builds on the successful piece of legislation in 1988 by repairing its most glaring flaws. It will not end welfare as we know it, but it will reform welfare into a system that strengthens families, that connects parents to work, that brings fathers back into the family, and that promotes innovation.

Those may seem like modest expectations compared to the slogans that we hear on this floor throughout this debate. But if we can accomplish this much, we will have reason to be proud.

This amendment and this alternative deserves the Senate's support.

Mr. ROTH. Mr. President, we all owe a debt of gratitude to Senator MOYNIHAN for his tireless efforts to educate this body and indeed the American people about the causes of poverty in modern society. Spanning four decades, Senator MOYNIHAN has performed several roles in the effort to end poverty. Throughout his distinguished career, he has been a professor, a planner, an economist, a social scientist, an advocate, and an author, as well as a brilliant legislator and dedicated public servant.

But most of all, he has been right about the causes of poverty amidst the wealthiest nation on earth. He has given us, chapter and verse, the reasons why the number of children receiving AFDC has increased threefold since a small group in the Office of Economic Opportunity mapped out the War on Poverty 30 years ago.

Senator MOYNIHAN predicted the growing tragedy of the American welfare system. He was right because he knew then, as he maintains today that there are consequences to behavior.

But we are here today because knowing why something happens does not necessarily tell us how to modify the predictable results. In fact, we now have 30 years of experience which tells us that despite the best of intentions, the Federal Government cannot replace strong families. The needs of children and families cannot be reduced to mathematical diagrams. The wisdom of Solomon is rarely found in the Federal Register.

Under the present welfare system, we now have over 9 million children receiving AFDC benefits. If we do nothing, the Department of Health and Human Services projects there will be 12 million children on AFDC within 10 years. That is what the present system will bring. This fact alone should embolden us to act in a dramatic way to change the status quo.

Today, we have the choice between two different approaches to changing the welfare system. There are several important, fundamental differences between Senator MOYNIHAN's proposal and the Republican legislation. Perhaps the most important difference is the role of the Federal Government. It is time to release the grasp of Washington which for too long has choked off the initiative and creativity of the States in answering the challenges of the welfare system. If the States remain dependent on Washington, they will not take the bold steps we need and should encourage to the vexing problems of our welfare system. The States do not need another Washington-based approach. They do not need another revision based on a faulty premise. Our block grant approach will free the 50 sovereign States to serve their needy citizens in the most effective manner possible. It is time to leave the past behind and place our confidence in the states to meet the challenges of the future.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I yield back what time I have remaining.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Mr. President, I yield back such time as we may have remaining.

AMENDMENT NO. 2499 TO AMENDMENT NO. 2280

Mr. BOND. Mr. President, I will only take a moment. I want to offer an amendment. I will send it to the desk and ask it be set aside so it may be covered—may be discussed and acted upon next week.

Yesterday I told this Chamber about a situation in Sedalia, MO, where we are attempting to get people off of welfare into an employment situation. The program is working well except we found that when welfare recipients, AFDC recipients, went to the employer and tested positively for drugs and were refused a job, the State was prohibited under Federal regulations from cutting them off from their AFDC aid. So we have a situation where, if someone wants to stay on welfare and does not want to have to take a job, they could use drugs, be disqualified from taking a position because of drug tests, and could not be sanctioned by the State.

This measure very simply states that notwithstanding any other provision of law, a State shall not be prohibited by the Federal Government from sanctioning welfare recipients who test positive for use of controlled substances.

Mr. President, I send the amendment to the desk.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

The Senator from Missouri [Mr. BOND] proposes an amendment numbered 2499 to amendment No. 2280.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The amendment is as follows:

At the appropriate place in the bill, insert the following:

Mr. BOND. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent the amendment be set aside to be called up pursuant to agreement by the manager and ranking member.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Mr. President, the Senator from Ohio wishes to be recognized.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Ohio.

(G) displaced homemakers.

Mr. GLENN. Mr. President, I rise today to offer this amendment because I am extremely concerned that the current provisions in this bill will neglect and ignore a very important segment of our population—displaced homemakers. Nationwide, there are over 17 million displaced homemakers with close to 700,000 in Ohio. The current Perkins Vocational programs for displaced homemakers and single parents has been extremely effective. Approximately 80 percent of women served in these programs are placed in employment and/or post-secondary education. I repeat, 80 percent. Now, if this is not considered a success story, I do not know what is.

This is a good example in which something that we created many years ago, works and works well. Recent statistics show that 85 percent of former program participants across the Nation rated the displaced homemakers programs excellent or very good. Over 75 percent said that these programs were better than other government-funded programs they had participated in.

You know why the success rate is so high? It's because people like Amber McDonald of Akron, OH take their training very seriously and are dead set on getting off welfare.

In a recent letter to me, Amber wrote:

I'd like to state that I am on public assistance at this time in my life and have one child. I don't take pride in the fact I receive welfare. I am grateful to the State of Ohio for their help. It has allowed me to survive and keep my child. It's a long hard road to getting off assistance. One I believe I'm on now. I am attending displaced homemaker classes and these classes have helped me make decisions—good solid decisions. Not the ''please-the-system-decisions I've made in the past. The Displaced Homemaker classes educated me about where I could go, what I would need to succeed and how to go about it. We need this program and others like it. A lot of us want off welfare. We are as tired of being on the system as the system is of having us.

Before 1984, when States were not required to fund displaced homemakers' training activities, States unfortunately spent less than 1 percent of their funding on specialized services for displaced homemakers. This is unfortunate because programs for single parents and displaced homemakers have been effective in both preventing families from entering the welfare system and helping families move from the welfare system. And displaced homemakers remain an at-risk population. According to the 1980 census, more than half of the displaced homemakers live in or near poverty.

My amendment will not, I repeat, will not result in a set aside. This amendment will only make it permissible for States to fund for specialized vocational training programs. States will have the flexibility in determining the funding amount and the types of programs to institute. I just want to make sure that States are encouraged to continue these programs that are working.

I have been hearing from many people from Ohio who have benefited from these services. These women are now gainfully employed; they are off welfare. And they are providing for their families. Are these not the outcomes we want?

For example, Rebecca Richards from Fairfield, OH, wrote how her and her child's life changed since she participated in a displaced homemaker program. She said ''As a result of the programs available, I was able to become a productive person in society.'' and she concluded by saying ''With the program, I found a friend who counseled me, listened to complaints and successes, gave me useful information and training, and helped me meet with other single parents to form a network of friends.'' Let us face it, the traditional vocational training programs will not provide this type of training.

Mr. President, I urge my colleagues to support this amendment which is central to the welfare reform debate. Another Ohioan—Diane Cook—wrote me saying that ''Everyone makes mistakes but they all should be allowed a second chance. Give us that second chance.''

The bottom line is to get people off welfare and to keep them off welfare. What better way to accomplish this objective than encouraging the States to tailor training programs which will affect over 17 million women. Mr. President, let us give them that second chance. I yield the floor.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent the amendment be set aside pending consideration of the next amendment.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Several Senators addressed the Chair.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Senate finds that—

(1) Many of the Nation's urban centers are places with high levels of poverty, high rates of welfare dependency, high crime rates, poor schools, and joblessness;

(2) Federal tax incentives and regulatory reforms can encourage economic growth, job creation and small business formation in many urban centers;

(3) Encouraging private sector investment in America's economically distressed urban and rural areas is essential to breaking the cycle of poverty and the related ills of crime, drug abuse, illiteracy, welfare dependency, and unemployment;

(4) The empowerment zones enacted in 1993 should be enhanced by providing incentives to increase entrepreneurial growth, capital formation, job creation, educational opportunities and homeownership in the designated communities and zones;

(b) SENSE OF THE SENATE.—Therefore, it is the Sense of the Senate that the Congress should adopt enterprise zone legislation in the 104th Congress, and that such enterprise zone legislation provide the following incentives and provisions:

(1) Federal tax incentives that expand access to capital, increase the formation and expansion of small businesses, and promote commercial revitalization;

(2) Regulatory reforms that allow localities to petition Federal agencies, subject to the relevant agencies' approval, for waivers or modifications of regulations to improve job creation, small business formation and expansion, community development, or economic revitalization objectives of the enterprise zones;

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the amendments numbered 2514 and 2515 be set aside.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, we are waiting for a few minutes for Senator CRAIG to get here to offer the next amendment that will be considered this afternoon. So, until he arrives, I would like to have permission to speak as if in morning business to introduce a bill that Senator LEVIN and I are introducing.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

(The remarks of Mr. GRASSLEY pertaining to the introduction of S. 1224 are located in today's RECORD under ''Statements on Introduced Bills and Joint Resolutions.'')

FAMILY SELF-SUFFICIENCY ACT

The Senate continued with the consideration of the bill.

Mr. BROWN addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Colorado.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. President, what is the pending business before the Senate?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The pending business is the Boxer amendment No. 2482.

AMENDMENT NO. 2508

Mr. BROWN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous-consent that the pending amendment be set aside and that the portion of the unanimous-consent agreement which laid aside consideration of the Brown amendment until next Monday be waived and that I be allowed to bring up the Brown amendment at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. President, I therefore call up amendment No. 2508, the Brown amendment.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. President, this is a very straightforward amendment. When it was initially offered, it was read.

Let me simply reiterate for the benefit of Members who may not have been here at the time, what it does is place a limit of 15 percent on the Federal funds that may be used for administrative expenditures under the temporary assistance block grant. This is under title I.

Mr. President, what this suggests is that at least 85 percent of the money that is given in a block grant go to actual assistance and only 15 percent, or a maximum of 15 percent go for bureaucracy or administrative costs.

History shows that the vast majority of our States can and do live within this limitation already. Frankly, my purpose in offering it is to make it clear that this money is not simply to be consumed in administrative costs but to go to programs and to go to the people where it will do some good.

One may reasonably ask, is 15 percent reasonable?

I might say that three-fourths of the States already operate within that for comparable programs. But I also might mention that the other parts of the welfare bill have limitations on administrative costs and that this is perhaps more generous than most of those.

Let me be specific. In the child care block grant the cap is 5 percent whereas this is 15 percent. Job training coordination for statewide work force education is a 1-percent cap—that is 5 percent of the 20 percent. The statewide work force employment program versus the education program is a 5-percent cap. The food stamp block grant option is a 6-percent cap. So by suggesting a 15-percent cap for administrative costs we are not trying to be overly tight with the States but we do think some upper limit with regard to administrative costs is appropriate, that is, essential.

How many times have we heard from our States and counties where we have said most of the money that was sent to them, or a large portion of the money that was sent to them, to deal with a problem is consumed at the State level for administrative costs, money that does not go to help people, money that may not go to directly dealing with the people at hand.

The 50-percent maximum limit is reasonable. It is one that States can live with. And, frankly, Mr. President, what it says is this money is meant to help people and goes to effect a program, not to simply be consumed by new bureaucracies at a State level.

With the broad new discretion given the States, this sort of reasonable upper limit for bureaucracy, I think, is appropriate and needed. The saddest commentary of all would be if delineating the money to the States, doing away with the Federal bureaucracy, ended up producing a whole new huge bureaucracy on the State level. So a reasonable limit is needed, appropriate.

I urge its adoption, Mr. President.

Mr. President, on this amendment I ask for the yeas and nays.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there a sufficient second?

There is a sufficient second.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. President, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. GRASSLEY addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Iowa.

Mr. GRASSLEY. I would rise in support of the amendment by the Senator from Colorado. I think in this whole process of moving from categorical programs administered from Washington to more flexible programs, you can also call block grants to the States. I think we have an appropriate responsibility to the Federal taxpayers to make sure that money is not eaten up in excess administrative costs.

I think the Brown amendment is a step in the right direction. I do not think very many States would exceed that anyway, and probably very few States exceed that presently. But we are moving into a program of what we think is of considerable length. And I have always said that to meet the Federal responsibilities on block grants it is legitimate to put limits on administrative expenses, to have some national goals that ought to be met, and to have a targeted population described by the Federal taxpayers.

It seems to me that this solves one of those major, legitimate issues that we ought to deal with here, albeit at the same time we are going to give the maximum discretion to the States on the administering of the welfare program. So I compliment the Senator from Colorado for his amendment.

I yield the floor.

Mr. BIDEN. Mr. President, the Brown amendment to the welfare bill sounds good on the surface, and I suspect it will pass by a large margin. But, I will vote against it, and I want to explain why.

The fact is, this amendment would be prejudicial to my State of Delaware. It would require all States to treat their Federal welfare block grant funds as if they were State revenues, thus requiring the moneys to be appropriated by the State legislature.

However, Delaware is one of only six States where the General Assembly has decided that Federal moneys can bypass the State legislature and be directly appropriated to a State agency by the governor. In other words, State legislators in Delaware have decided themselves to forego the right to appropriate Federal funds.

I simply do not believe that this bill is the time or the place to change my State's budget law and longstanding appropriations process. If the Delaware General Assembly wants to appropriate the Federal funds that Delaware receives, the General Assembly is fully within its rights to change Delaware's law. But, I cannot support imposing that on my State—especially in a bill that is intended, according to its sponsors, to give States more rights and flexibility.

Mr. President, I thank the Chair, and I yield the floor.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The bill clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that further proceedings under the quorum call be dispensed with.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Mr. President, this appears to me to be another amendment that will make the block grant unworkable. And I entirely support that.

I believe the yeas and nays have been requested?

Mr. GRASSLEY. Yes.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The question is on agreeing to amendment No. 2508 offered by the Senator from Colorado.

The yeas and nays have been ordered.

The clerk will call the roll.

The bill clerk called the roll.

Mr. LOTT. I announce that the Senator from Colorado [Mr. CAMPBELL], the Senator from Mississippi [Mr.

COCHRAN], the Senator from Florida [Mr. MACK], the Senator from Arizona [Mr. MCCAIN], the Senator from Alaska [Mr. MURKOWSKI], and the Senator from Alabama [Mr. SHELBY] are necessarily absent.

I also announce that the Senator from Tennessee [Mr. THOMPSON] is absent due to illness.

Mr. FORD. I announce that the Senator from Arkansas [Mr. PRYOR] is necessarily absent.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. GRAMS). Are there any other Senators in the Chamber desiring to vote?

The result was announced—yeas 87, nays 5, as follows:

So, the amendment (No. 2508) was agreed to.

Mr. HATCH. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. I move to lay that motion on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was agreed to.

Mr. HATCH. Mr. President, pursuant to the previous agreement, I ask unanimous consent that the pending amendment be briefly set aside so that I and Senator HELMS, in that order, may send amendments to the desk and ask for their immediate consideration in accordance with the unanimous consent agreement already agreed to.

Mrs. BOXER. Reserving the right to object, I assume after those two are laid down we will go to my amendment. I need only 1 minute to explain it.

Mr. HATCH. As soon as we do this procedural matter and we conclude this, we will move right to the Senator from California. I include that in the unanimous consent agreement.

Mr. EXON. Reserving the right to object, may I please have an understanding of what the procedure is?

The Senator from Nebraska also has an amendment to offer that I have been waiting to offer for some time. I am not in any particular rush. Are we setting up an order?

If the unanimous consent request is granted, as I understand it, there would be some motion taken up offered by the Senators from North Carolina and Utah, and following that we will go to the Senator from California; is that correct?

Mr. HATCH. That is correct. We would be happy to have the Senator put his in, but we are not making arguments at this time.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Mr. President, it is my understanding that the Senator from Nebraska would like to speak, and we had anticipated after the vote on the Boxer amendment other Senators would speak. I see the Senator from Idaho may wish to speak.

Mr. HATCH. My understanding is that the Boxer amendment will require a vote so we want to move forward as fast as we can.

Mr. EXON. With that understanding, I have no objection, and after the vote on the Boxer amendment I will proceed at that time.

Mr. HATCH. I have been informed immediately following the Boxer vote that Senator CRAIG has reserved some time; will the Senator from Nebraska wait until after Senator CRAIG?

Mr. EXON. Sure. With the understanding I be recognized sometime prior to 5 p.m.

Mr. HATCH. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the pending amendment be briefly set aside.

AMENDMENT NO. 2516 TO AMENDMENT NO. 2280

(Purpose: To establish a block grant program for the provision of child care services)

Mr. HATCH. I send an amendment to the desk and ask for its immediate consideration.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report.

The assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

The Senator from Utah [Mr. HATCH], for himself and Mr. KOHL, proposes an amendment numbered 2516 to amendment No. 2280.

Mr. HATCH. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that reading of the amendment be dispensed with.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

(The text of the amendment is printed in today's RECORD under ''Amendments Submitted.'')

Mr. HATCH. Mr. President, I am pleased to be joined in this amendment by the Senator from Wisconsin, Senator KOHL. I invite all my colleagues to review this amendment and join us as cosponsors.

This is not a partisan proposal. It is intended to assist States in making child care services a key component of their title I temporary assistance programs.

We will be discussing this amendment in more detail later, but let me simply say today that I believe this amendment addresses a broadly recognized need for child care by families who are on welfare and struggling to get off.

Obviously, for a single parent, child care is necessary in order for that parent to work. A mother or father cannot leave a young child at home alone.

Mr. President, I believe in the work requirements incorporated in the Dole substitute. I happen to believe that work—and the sense of personal accomplishment that comes from it—is one of the single most important things we can provide to welfare recipients. But, we cannot do it without child care.

My amendment simply provides a child care block grant into the title I temporary assistance block grant. It is not complicated. It carries no new administrative requirements.

Mr. President, I will have more to say about this next week. I invite my colleagues to join Senator KOHL and me in sponsoring this important amendment.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the pending amendment be briefly set aside.

AMENDMENTS NOS. 2517, 2518, AND 2519, EN BLOC, TO AMENDMENT NO. 2280

Mr. HATCH. I send three amendments to the desk on behalf of Senator DEWINE.

''(iii) METHOD OF RECONCILIATION.—If at the end of each fiscal year, the Secretary of Health and Human Services finds that a State which received amounts from the Rainy Day Fund in such fiscal year did not meet the maintenance of effort requirement under paragraph (5)(B) for such fiscal year, the Secretary shall reduce the State family assistance grant for such State for the succeeding fiscal year by such amounts.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The amendment is as follows:

Beginning on page 313, strike line 13 and all that follows through line 5 on page 314, and insert the following new subsection:

(l) APPLICATION OF SUBCHAPTER.—The Child Care and Development Block Grant Act of 1990 (42 U.S.C. 9858 et seq.) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

"SEC. 658T. APPLICATION TO OTHER PROGRAMS.

Such sums shall be administered through a uniform State plan. To the maximum extent practicable, amounts provided to a State under such programs shall be transferred to the lead agency and integrated into the program established under this subchapter by the State.''.

Mr. HELMS. I ask unanimous consent the pending amendment be set aside.

AMENDMENT NO. 2523 TO AMENDMENT NO. 2280

(Purpose: To require single, able-bodied individuals receiving food stamps to work at least 40 hours every 4 weeks)

Mr. HELMS. Mr. President, I send an amendment to the desk and ask it be stated.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report.

The assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

The Senator from North Carolina [Mr. HELMS] for himself, Mr. FAIRCLOTH, Mr. SHELBY, and Mr. GRAMS, proposes an amendment numbered 2523 to amendment No. 2280.

Mr. HELMS. I ask unanimous consent that reading of the amendment be dispensed with.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The amendment is as follows:

Beginning on page 195, strike line 22 and all that follows through page 198, line 14, and insert the following:

SEC. 319. WORK REQUIREMENT.

Section 6 of the Food Stamp Act of 1977 (7 U.S.C. 2015) (as amended by section 318) is further amended by inserting after subsection (m) the following:

''(n) WORK REQUIREMENT.—

''(1) IN GENERAL.—Subject to paragraph (3), no individual shall be eligible to participate in the food stamp program as a member of any household if the individual did not work at least 40 hours during the preceding 4-week period.

Mrs. BOXER. I ask unanimous consent the pending amendment be set aside.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, the amendment is set aside.

AMENDMENT NO. 2482

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The question is on agreeing to the amendment of Senator BOXER, amendment No. 2482.

Mrs. BOXER. Mr. President, I understand I have 60 seconds. I will use 30 seconds to explain my amendment.

What we are saying here is if you are a deadbeat dad or a deadbeat mom and have fallen behind on your child support more than 2 months, you must not be eligible for means-tested Federal benefits.

I have modified that amendment with the help of Senator SANTORUM. We exclude emergency medical care and nutrition assistance for teenage parents, but basically if you do not sign a repayment schedule committing yourself to make up for those delinquent payments, you will not get benefits such as housing assistance or SSI or food stamps.

We feel it is very important to send a message to deadbeat parents. I ask Senators to give us an aye vote.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The amendment is so modified.

The amendment (No. 2482), as modified, is as follows:

On page 712, between lines 9 and 10, insert the following:

SEC. 972. DENIAL OF MEANS-TESTED FEDERAL BENEFITS TO NONCUSTODIAL PARENTS WHO ARE DELINQUENT IN PAYING CHILD SUPPORT.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a non-custodial parent who is more than 2 months delinquent in paying child support shall not be eligible to receive any means-tested Federal benefits.

(b) EXCEPTION.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Subsection (a) shall not apply to an unemployed non-custodial parent who is more than 2 months delinquent in paying child support if such parent—

(A) enters into a schedule of repayment for past due child support with the entity that issued the underlying child support order; and

(B) meets all of the terms of repayment specified in the schedule of repayment as forced by the appropriate disbursing entity.

(2) 2-YEAR EXCLUSION.—(A) A non-custodial parent who becomes delinquent in child support a second time or any subsequent time shall not be eligible to receive any means-tested Federal benefits for a 2-year period beginning on the date that such parent failed to meet such terms.

(B) At the end of that two-year period, paragraph (A) shall once again apply to that individual.

(c) MEANS-TESTED FEDERAL BENEFITS.—For purposes of this section, the term ''means-tested Federal benefits'' means benefits under any program of assistance, funded in whole or in part, by the Federal Government, for which eligibility for benefits is based on need.

Mrs. BOXER. I ask for the yeas and nays.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there a sufficient second?

There is a sufficient second.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The assistant legislative clerk called the roll.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Are there any other Senators in the Chamber desiring to vote?

So the amendment (No. 2482) was agreed to.

Mr. HATCH. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. I move to lay that motion on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was agreed to.

AMENDMENT NO. 2524 TO AMENDMENT NO. 2280

(Purpose: To provide for a good cause exception for hospital-based programs providing for voluntary acknowledgment of paternity)

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, I send an amendment to the desk for myself and Senator SHELBY.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, the clerk will report.

The assistant legislative clerk read as follows.

The Senator from Idaho [Mr. CRAIG], for himself and Mr. SHELBY, proposes an amendment numbered 2524 to amendment No. 2280.

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that reading of the amendment be dispensed with.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The amendment is as follows:

On page 643, line 16, insert '', subject to such good cause and other exceptions as the State shall establish and taking into account the best interests of the child'' before the end period.

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, it is my understanding that this amendment has received recognition from both sides and is acceptable.

The amendment would simply allow the States to establish good cause and other exceptions and thus will not override State laws defining paternity. Moreover, it requires all hospital bed programs providing for voluntary acknowledgment of paternity to take into account the best interests of the child. It provides consistency between Federal AFDC law and the laws regarding in-hospital paternity establishment.

Mr. HATCH. Mr. President, we think the amendment is an excellent amendment, and we are prepared to accept it on this side. I understand the other side is prepared to accept it. I turn to the distinguished Senator from New York.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Mr. President, we surely agree this a commendable amendment. We thank the Senator from Idaho for offering it. It would be agreed to on this side if the question is asked.

Mr. HATCH. I urge adoption of the amendment.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. If there is no further debate, the question is on agreeing to amendment No. 2524.

So the amendment (No. 2524) was agreed to.

Mr. HATCH. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. I move to lay that motion on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was agreed to.

Mr. EXON. Mr. President, first, an inquiry of the Chair.

As I understand it, the present measure before the Senate is the amendment numbered 2280 by Senator DOLE. Is that correct?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. That is the first-degree amendment pending. There have been second-degree amendments offered that have been set aside.

Mr. EXON. That is what I wished to clarify. The Senator from Nebraska is ready to offer an amendment to that amendment.

AMENDMENT NO. 2525 TO AMENDMENT NO. 2280

(Purpose: To prohibit the payment of certain Federal benefits to any person not lawfully present within the United States, and for other purposes)

Mr. EXON. I send the amendment to the desk at this time and ask for its immediate consideration.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, the clerk will report.

The assistant legislative clerk read as follows.

The Senator from Nebraska [Mr. EXON] proposes an amendment numbered 2525 to amendment No. 2280.

Mr. EXON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that reading of the amendment be dispensed with.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The amendment is as follows:

On page 302, between lines 5 and 6, insert the following:

SEC. 506. PROHIBITION ON PAYMENT OF FEDERAL BENEFITS TO CERTAIN PERSONS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law and except as provided in subsection (b), Federal benefits shall not be paid or provided to any person who is not a person lawfully present within the United States.

(c) DEFINITIONS.—For purposes of this section:

(e) VERIFICATION OF ELIGIBILITY.—

Such regulations shall, to the extent feasible, require that information requested and exchanged be similar in form and manner to information requested and exchanged under section 1137 of the Social Security Act.

(2) STATE COMPLIANCE.—Not later than 24 months after the date the regulations described in subsection (1) are adopted, a State that administers a program that provides a Federal benefit described in such subsection shall have in effect a verification system that complies with the regulations.

(3) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—There are authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary to carry out the purpose of this section.

(f) SEVERABILITY.—If any provision of this title or the application of such provision to any person or circumstance is held to be unconstitutional, the remainder of this title and the application of the provisions of such to any person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby.

Mr. EXON. Mr. President, I rise today to offer an amendment to the pending welfare reform bill to address the issue of payment of Federal benefits to illegal aliens. I have talked with the managers of the bill, and I have agreed to offer it now, to briefly debate the matter, and we will schedule a vote and possibly limited debate sometime next week as we move through the whole series of amendments we have pending.

Mr. President, I introduced a similar measure, S. 918, earlier in this Congress. As many Senators know, I have long supported blocking Federal benefits to illegal aliens as a matter of both sound immigration policy and as a matter of sound fiscal policy. I have introduced this measure as either a stand-alone bill or as an amendment in every Congress since 1989.

In 1993, when we debated the comprehensive crime bill, the Senate accepted my amendment to restrict benefits to illegal aliens by a vote of 85 to 2. Unfortunately, Mr. President, the provision was dropped in conference with the House of Representatives. Simply stated, my amendment says that Federal benefits shall not be paid or provided to those not lawfully present within the United States. My amendment is well crafted to only deny illegals the benefit of Federal support and specifically defines who is a person lawfully present within the United States.

My amendment also provides for a number of exemptions. Federal funds could be provided to illegal aliens for emergency medical services, disaster relief, school lunches, child nutrition and immunization. Sick people would not be turned away at the hospital emergency rooms, nor would the public health be threatened by a communicable disease.

We must draw the line and say that illegal aliens should not be receiving scarce resources except for true emergencies and public health concerns.

Also, States would not be obligated to provide benefits to those not lawfully present in our country. Following the publishing of the rules by the Attorney General, the States would have 2 years to comply with the verification requirements, and necessary funds would be authorized.

It should be noted that the long-awaited report of the U.S. Commission on Immigration Reform, headed by former Representative Barbara Jordan, has generally recommended that illegal aliens not receive publicly funded services or assistance.

Mr. President, it is true that many Federal programs specifically exclude by statute illegal aliens in their criteria for eligibility, but in many cases the benefits continue to flow to these illegal aliens due to the expansive and misguided agency regulations and court interpretation.

Many Federal programs allow benefits to go to aliens permanently residing in the United States under color of law. However, this category is not defined by statute, and the categories of aliens it covers vary from program to program because various court decisions have defined it differently. I am sure that my fellow colleagues are well aware of the published growing concern with our country's haphazard immigration policy and porous border. I believe this debate over welfare reform provides us with a golden opportunity to create a new and more coherent policy regarding immigrants and to stop, once and for all, the payment of benefits to illegal aliens.

The Senate appears ready to give the States more flexibility and responsibility to oversee Federal programs. I think it is only fair that in exchange for the increased flexibility and discretion, the Federal Government should ask the States to stand with us in verifying immigrant status and help identify illegal aliens.

With the assistance of the States in the verification process, few illegals will receive benefits. And both Federal and State budgets will reflect those savings. It is the simple fact that a deported alien will not be available to collect welfare benefits that are desperately needed by many of our citizens.

Mr. President, in my opinion, the Federal Government and the States have been working at cross-purposes in enforcing our immigration laws. The States have decried the inability of the Federal Government to police our borders. Yet when Congress proposes dropping the payment of benefits to illegal aliens, the States complain that they will be saddled with the full cost of providing these services.

It is only reasonable to require States to verify the status of applicants provided we help give them the resources to do the job. By allowing States to deny benefits to these not lawfully present and providing funds for States to set up verification systems, my amendment is actually a fully funded mandate.

I believe we must do more regarding immigration reform itself. I feel strongly that deportation proceedings should be expedited, and there needs to be greater enforcement when holders of temporary visas intentionally overstay their visit. I also believe that there needs to be a stricter enforcement of sponsor affidavits and the deeming provision to ensure that immigrants will not be a burden to taxpayers. Efforts to provide better border patrols and to attack asylum abuse are also needed. The widespread abuse of identification cards by illegal aliens is a major problem. The production of false resident alien cards, drivers' licenses, and Social Security cards is a multimillion dollar national crime which only aids illegal aliens receiving Government benefits. It must be stopped.

The word is out, if you want to receive welfare benefits more generous than any, come to America. Do not even bother to enter legally. By allowing the payment of benefits to illegal aliens, we have become a magnet. In the past, immigrants came to America to work hard and prosper under freedom, but today too many are coming to receive the free ride.

Finally, and in closing, Mr. President, I must address briefly the overall context in which this issue is being discussed. Right now we are debating the welfare bill which will have great impact on those in our country who are in need. While I believe that our welfare system needs a major overhaul, I am concerned that those who are truly in need will bear an undue share of the burden. In these times of massive budget reductions, I must remind all that our Government is still there. It still has the responsibility to help its needy citizens. By providing Federal funds to those that are in our country illegally, we are misusing scarce resources. We simply cannot justify nor can we afford giving Federal benefits to people who are in our country illegally.

Mr. President, I thank the Chair. And I will make an understanding with the managers of the bill when we will take up this matter again at the beginning of next week.

I thank the Chair. I yield the floor.

Mr. SHELBY addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. INHOFE). The Senator from Alabama.

Mr. SHELBY. I ask unanimous consent that the pending amendment be set aside so that I may send two amendments to the desk.

I ask for their immediate consideration.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Without objection, it is so ordered.

The clerk will report the amendments.

The assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

The Senator from Alabama [Mr. SHELBY] proposes amendments, en bloc, numbered 2526 and 2527 to amendment No. 2280.

Mr. SHELBY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the reading of the amendments be dispensed with.

Mr. DODD. Mr. President, I am pleased to offer this amendment to the Workforce Development Act, which is contained in this larger welfare reform measure, for myself and Mr. PELL.

This amendment is very similar to one I offered in the Labor Committee when we considered the Workforce Development bill. While I certainly believe there is much that can be improved upon in the Workforce Development bill, this amendment is quite modest and accepts the basic premise of the bill of moving Federal job training programs to the States.

However, even in a block grant environment, I believe that we should preserve a small amount of money for the Federal Government to respond quickly to concentrated economic dislocations—the kind no one State can predict or pay for.

Highly concentrated economic dislocations can be caused by plant closings, base realignments, or natural disasters. These major economic dislocations often cross State lines and effect thousands of workers. Moreover, many mass dislocations, such as base closures, are in fact precipitated by Federal actions and therefore clearly merit a Federal response.

The House Workforce Development bill includes a provision on mass layoffs and natural disasters, and my amendment draws heavily from that language. I actually cut down on the scope of national activities found in the House bill.

NEED WILL NOT GO AWAY

Mr. President, we need to understand that the need for such assistance will not diminish in the coming years. Indeed, in some areas of the country it could increase.

Defense-related layoffs in the private sector alone are continuing, with up to an additional 25 to 30 percent reduction expected within the next 2 to 3 years.

Mr. President, this amendment is not about the ups and downs of the normal business cycle. This amendment is about the out-of-the-ordinary event involving hundreds or thousands of workers in a dramatic and sudden way.

It is vitally important that we be prepared for such hopefully rare occurrences. Natural disasters, like the recent flooding in the Midwest, cannot be predicted, and yet have grown more and more devastating over the years. When these catastrophes occur, we cannot just turn our backs on Americans in need. We need to have the resources available to provide emergency funds in order to get these people back on their feet.

EXAMPLES

So that my colleagues know what I am talking about, here are a few examples of the kinds of activities that have been funded through such a program in the past:

Recently, the State of Connecticut was awarded a $4.3 million grant to provide work force development services for more than 1,400 workers laid off by Allied Signal as a result of Defense downsizing.

The State of Washington received $14.6 million to assist workers laid off by Boeing.

More than $4 million in retraining dollars have been made available for 9,500 GTE employees expected to be dislocated from their jobs in 22 States, including Missouri, Washington, and Illinois.

More than $100 million have been spent over the last 4 years in response to natural disasters. For example, for the 1993 Mid-west floods, funding was provided to Missouri, Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, and Kansas.

MODEST AMENDMENT

My amendment would create a modest, 2 percent set-aside for these activities: rapid response grants for mass dislocations and employment services for those affected by natural disasters. This 2 percent set-aside of the Workforce Development Program's $6.1 billion total authorization would come to roughly $120 million. That would represent a sizeable cut to what is currently spent on these activities. And even after my set-aside, over 90 percent of this bill's funds would still go directly to the States.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Senate finds that the purposes of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995 are:

(1) ''to strengthen the partnership between the Federal Government and State, local and tribal governments'';

(2) ''to end the imposition, in the absence of full consideration by Congress, of Federal mandates on State, local and tribal governments without adequate Federal funding, in a manner that may displace other essential State, local and tribal governmental priorities'';

(3) ''to assist Congress in its consideration of proposed legislation establishing or revising Federal programs containing Federal mandates affecting State, local and tribal governments, and the private sector by—

(A) providing for the development of information about the nature and size of mandates in proposed legislation; and

(B) establishing a mechanism to bring such information to the attention of the Senate and the House of Representatives before the Senate and the House of Representatives vote on proposed legislation'';

(4) ''to promote informed and deliberate decisions by Congress on the appropriateness of Federal mandates in any particular instance''; and

(5) ''to require that Congress consider whether to provide funding to assist State, local and tribal governments in complying with Federal mandates''.

(b) SENSE OF THE SENATE.—It is the sense of the Senate that prior to the Senate acting on the conference report on either H.R. 4 or any other legislation including welfare reform provisions, the Congressional Budget Office shall prepare an analysis of the conference report to include:

(1) estimates, over each of the next seven fiscal years, by state and in total, of—

(A) the costs to states of meeting all work requirements in the conference report, including those for single-parent families, two-parent families, and those who have received cash assistance for 2 years;

(B) the resources available to the states to meet these work requirements, defined as federal appropriations authorized in the conference report for this purpose in addition to what states are projected to spend under current welfare law;

(C) the amount of any additional revenue needed by the states to meet the work requirements in the conference report, beyond resources available as defined under subparagraph (b)(1)(B);

(2) an estimate, based on the analysis in paragraph (b)(1), of how many states would opt to pay any penalty provided for by the conference report rather than raise the additional revenue needed to meet the work requirements in the conference report; and

(3) estimates, over each of the next 7 fiscal years, of the costs to States of any other requirements imposed on them by such legislation.

Mr. COATS. Mr. President, I rise to offer on behalf of myself and Senator ASHCROFT, the charity tax credit amendment. This amendment is designed to expand the ability of private and faith based charities to serve the poor by making it easier for taxpayers to make donations to these organizations. It is an important, urgently needed reform, but it also symbolizes a broader point.

The Congress is currently focused on the essential task of clearing away the ruins of the Great Society. Centralized, bureaucratic anti-poverty programs have failed—and that failure has had a human cost. It is measured in broken homes and violent streets. Our current system has undermined families and fostered dependence.

This is undeniable. But while our Great Society illusions have ended, the suffering of many of our people has not. Indifference to that fact is not an option. We cannot retreat into the cocoon of our affluence. We cannot accept the survival of the fittest. No society can live without hope—hope that its suffering and anguish are not endless.

I think we have seen the shape of that hope it is not found in the ivory towers of academia. It is not found in the marble temples of official Washington. I found it five blocks from here, in a place so distant from Congress it is almost another world.

The Reverend John Woods came to a desolate Washington neighborhood in 1990 to take over the Gospel Mission, a shelter and drug treatment center for homeless men. The day he arrived, he found crack cocaine being processed in the back yard. A few days later, the local gang fired shots into his office to scare him away. Instead of leaving, he hung a sign on the door extending this invitation: ''If you haven't got a friend in the world you can find one here. Come in.''

The Gospel Mission is a place that offers unconditional love, but accepts no excuses. Men in rehabilitation are given random drug tests. If they violate the rules, they are told to leave the program. But the success of the mission comes down to something simple: It does more than provide a meal and treat an addiction, it offers spiritual challenge and renewal.

Listen to one addict who came to Reverend Woods after failing in several governmental rehabilitation programs:

Those programs generally take addictions from you, but don't place anything within you. I needed a spiritual lifting. People like Reverend Woods are like God walking into your life. Not only am I drug-free, but more than that, I can be a person again.

Reverend Woods's success is particularly clear compared to government approaches. The Gospel Mission has a 12-month rehabilitation rate of 66 percent, while a once heralded government program just 3 blocks away rehabilitates less than 10 percent of those it serves—while spending 20 times as much as Reverend Woods.

This is just one example. It is important, not because it is rare, but because it is common. It takes place in every community, in places distant from the center of government. But it is the only compassion that consistently works—a war on poverty that marches from victory to victory. It makes every new deal, new frontier and new covenant look small in comparison.

Several months ago, I asked a question: How can we get resources into the hands of these private and religious institutions where individuals are actually being helped? And, How can we do this without either undermining their work with restrictions, or offending the first amendment? I introduced S. 1120, the Comprehensive Charity Reform Act, a major portion of which we have incorporated in today's amendment. Our amendment has two central features.

First, it provides a $500 charity tax credit ($1,000 for married taxpayers filing jointly) which will provide more generous tax benefits to taxpayers who decide to donate a portion of their tax liability to charities that focus on fighting or preventing poverty.

Second, it requires that individuals volunteer their time, as well as donate their money, to qualify for the credit.

The purpose of this legislation is twofold: First, we want to take a small portion of welfare spending in America and give it through the Tax Code to private and religious institutions that effectively provide individuals with hope, dignity, help and independence. Without eliminating a public safety net, we want to focus some attention and resources where it can make all the difference.

Second, we want to promote an ethic of giving in America. When individuals make these contributions to effective charities, it is a form of involvement beyond writing a check to the Federal Government. It encourages a new definition of citizenship, one in which men and women examine and support the programs in their own communities that serve the poor. This amendment adopts Senator ASHCROFT's proposal that requires individuals to volunteer their time, as well as donate their money, to local poverty relief programs.

I hope that my colleagues take a careful look at this new approach to compassion. It is important for us not only to spread authority and resources within the levels of Government, but to spread them beyond Government altogether—to institutions that can not only feed the body but touch the soul. It is an issue I look forward to debating more fully next week.

Mr. HATCH. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the amendment be set aside.

AMENDMENT NO. 2545 TO AMENDMENT NO. 2280

(Purpose: To require each family receiving assistance under the State program funded under part A of title IV of the Social Security Act to enter into a personal responsibility contract or a limited benefit plan)

Mr. HARKIN. Mr. President, I have an amendment which I send to the desk and ask for its consideration.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report the amendment.

The assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

The Senator from Iowa [Mr. HARKIN] proposes an amendment numbered 2545 to amendment No. 2280.

Mr. HARKIN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the reading of the amendment be dispensed with.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The amendment is as follows:

On page 39, strike lines 4 through 10, and insert the following:

''(a) STATE REQUIRED TO ENTER INTO A PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY CONTRACT WITH EACH FAMILY RECEIVING ASSISTANCE.—

''(1) IN GENERAL.—Each State to which a grant is made under section 403 shall require each family receiving assistance under the State program funded under this part to enter into—

''(A) a personal responsibility contract (as developed by the State) with the State; or

''(B) a limited benefit plan.

''(2) PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY CONTRACT.—For purposes of this subsection, the term 'personal responsibility contract' means a binding contract between the State and each family receiving assistance under the State program funded under this part that—

''(A) outlines the steps each family and the State will take to get the family off of welfare and to become self-sufficient;

''(B) specifies a negotiated time-limited period of eligibility for receipt of assistance that is consistent with unique family circumstances and is based on a reasonable plan to facilitate the transition of the family to self-sufficiency;

''(C) provides that the family will automatically enter into a limited benefit plan if the family is out of compliance with the personal responsibility contract; and

''(D) provides that the contract shall be invalid if the State agency fails to comply with the contract.

''(3) LIMITED BENEFIT PLAN.—For purposes of this subsection, the term 'limited benefit plan' means a plan which provides for a reduced level of assistance and later termination of assistance to a family that has entered into the plan in accordance with a schedule to be determined by the State.

''(4) ASSESSMENT.—The State agency shall provide, through a case manager, an initial and thorough assessment of the skills, prior work experience, and employability of each parent for use in developing and negotiating a personal responsibility contract.

''(5) DISPUTE RESOLUTION.—The State agency described in section 402(a)(6) shall establish a dispute resolution procedure for disputes related to participation in the personal responsibility contract that provides the opportunity for a hearing.''

Mr. HARKIN. Mr. President, when an individual is hired for a job, they are handed a job description. A job description outlines their responsibilities. On day one, they know what is expected of them in order to earn a paycheck.

However, when an individual goes into the welfare office to sign up for benefits, they fill out an application and then the Government sends them a check. There is no job description. Nothing is expected on day one. The individual simply goes home and collects a paycheck.

I believe that is wrong, and I believe it saps an individual's self-esteem and makes the family dependent.

Mr. President, we must fundamentally change the way we think about welfare, not just to reform welfare, but we have to change the way we think about it. We should be guided by common sense and build a system based on a foundation of responsibility. If you want a check, you must work for it. You must follow a job description. We must stop looking at welfare as a Government giveaway program. Instead, it should be a contract demanding mutual responsibility between the Government and the individual receiving benefits. The contract should outline the steps a recipient will take to become self-sufficient and also a date certain by which they will be off welfare.

Responsibility should start on day one with benefits conditioned on compliance with the terms of the contract. Essentially, the contract should outline the responsibilities for an individual in the same manner that a job description describes a worker's duties. It would build greater accountability in the welfare system and it would send the clear message that welfare, as usual, is history. Mr. President, a binding contract of this nature not only makes common sense, it works.

As I have noted previously, the State of Iowa has a relatively new welfare reform program. The centerpiece of the Iowa Family Investment Program is just such a contract which charts an individual's course off welfare and a date when welfare benefits will end. Failure to follow the contract means the elimination of welfare benefits.

Over the past 18 months, I have held numerous meetings with welfare recipients, case managers and others to discuss welfare. I often hear that the Iowa contract really does make a difference. Dennette Kellogg of Dubuque can receive benefits for several years before the new program began. She served honorably in the U.S. Marines and then married and started a family. But she was an unfortunate victim of domestic abuse and left California for her hometown with one child and pregnant with a second child. She ended up on welfare and wanted out but felt she had few options and felt she was trapped.

She recently told me:

''The family investment contract gave me a sense of self-worth, something the old system lacks. . .and now I had a reason to look forward to the future instead of feeling being trapped.''

She has escaped. She is now working as a housing specialist and is no longer on welfare. But for her, she had a contract which outlined what she was expected to do. The contract also outlined what the State of Iowa was going to do. So both sides knew what was expected.

In addition to making it clear what is expected of individuals on welfare, a contract of mutual responsibility also makes it possible not only for families to simply move off welfare but to stay off permanently.

Self-sufficiency is the only way to end the cycle of dependency and poverty that is claiming more and more victims each year. A well-designed and enforced contract is a way to make families self-sufficient, not Government dependent. It is the way to stop treating the symptoms of the disease and to go after the cause.

The proposal that we have before us, the amendment offered by Senator DOLE, at least recognizes the important principle of a contract. However, it does not define the personal responsibility contract in any way. It could be anything or it could be nothing.

My amendment, which I just sent to the desk, would add clarity to make sure that it works as envisioned and does not become just another failed promise for welfare recipients and the taxpayers.

Without further definition, I am concerned that the provision in the Dole-Packwood bill will not provide us with the desired result in terms of a contract.

My amendment is simple. It just says that a State would provide an assessment to determine the strengths and the barriers to employment. That information then would be used to draw up a binding contract that outlines the steps a family would take to move off welfare and a date certain when welfare benefits would end.

Failure to follow the terms of the contract would result in serious consequences—the elimination of cash welfare benefits. The experience we have had in Iowa has shown us that individuality is critical. Families have different needs, and a cookie cutter that stamps out one plan for everyone will fail. You cannot force families into a preshaped mold. But instead, we need to form the mold around the family. The last thing we need is a one size fits all contract. My amendment would clarify that individual family characteristics must be paramount in negotiating the terms of the contract.

Accountability, responsibility, and common sense must guide us as we reform the welfare system. Strengthening the personal responsibility contract will send a clear message that the rules have changed and that responsibility is required from day one on welfare—just as a worker knows the rules on the first day of a new job.

We have a responsibility for the taxpayers' money. The taxpayers of Iowa want to make sure that their money is well spent, whether it is in Oklahoma, Nevada, California, or Pennsylvania. A contract such as I have outlined here will ensure greater accountability in the welfare system.

Mr. President, I have an editorial from the Omaha World Herald entitled ''Welfare Contract a Worthwhile Idea.'' I ask unanimous consent that it be printed in the RECORD at the end of my statement.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

(See exhibit 1.)

Mr. HARKIN. I thought I might take a few minutes to buttress my remarks for the need for a well-defined contract by once again bringing to my colleagues an illustration of what has happened in Iowa since we changed our welfare system.

I always point with pride to the fact that in Iowa, we now have the distinction of having a higher percentage of people on welfare who work than any State in the Nation.

Mr. President, before we started our welfare reform program, about 18 percent of the people on welfare worked. It is now up to about 35 percent, which is just about double. So what we have is more people on welfare who are also working. Again, that is one of the objectives of welfare reform.

What has happened to our caseload? We knew at the beginning that, in changing the rules, the initial thing that would happen is that we would have more people on welfare. Everyone knew that. Sure enough, after we enacted the bill, we went from 36,000 to almost 40,000 in the space of just about a year. But look at what has happened since then. Our caseload has come down, and we now have fewer people by about 2,000 caseload 2 years after we started our program. The first year it went up, and then it came down dramatically. So in 2 years we have done two things. We have more people on welfare working—we doubled it—and we have cut the total caseload of people on welfare in Iowa.

With all the talk about what all of the States are doing, I point out that Iowa, to this date, as far as I know, is the only State that has actually cut people off of welfare. We did it with the contract. People have a contract. They sign it and they have to live up to it. If they do not, they are cut off. The chart shows that we have less of a caseload than we did when we started.

How much are we spending on welfare in Iowa? Has the cost gone up or down? Here is total what we spend in Iowa. The yellow, blue, and green lines are 1992, 1993 and 1994. The amount we totally spent on welfare basically stayed about the same in the State of Iowa. We enacted a welfare reform program in October 1993, and almost 2 years later you can see what happened. Our total spending on welfare has dropped, and dropped dramatically, since we have had our welfare reform program.

So, again, people say, No. 1, we want more people to work. Well, in Iowa we have doubled it. Second, we want fewer people on welfare. Well, we have fewer people on welfare, as I have shown. Third, we want to spend less money. Well, here it is, we are spending less money on welfare.

The average grant—now, we had the total, and this is the total amount of money the State of Iowa is spending on welfare. It has come down dramatically. What happened to the average person on welfare? It was about $373 average per family, and we are now down to $336. That is about a 10, 11, 12 percent drop in what we are spending per caseload in the State of Iowa. So, by any yardstick of measuring, the Iowa experiment has worked and has worked well.

Some people might say that in Iowa you do not have high unemployment and all that kind of stuff. Mr. President, when we enacted welfare reform, the Department of Health and Human Services insisted—and I admit I fought this for some time—that we have a control group, a certain group of individuals in Iowa who would not come under the new reform program. They would stay under the old system. So, 2 years later, we were able to compare the control group to the new group. What we have found is that under the old group, they are still down to about 18 percent of those who are working, not 36 percent. The average caseload cost is still high. And so we have that control group to show that it is not just because of the Iowa circumstance, it is because of how we reformed the system.

That brings me back to my amendment. The central feature of the Iowa welfare reform program is a contract. When the person comes in to get welfare, an assessment is done. Who are you? What are you? What is your background? Do you have disabilities? How many children do you have? Tests are given; assessments are made by a case manager. Based upon that, an individual contract is drawn up. That person signs that contract. It is a binding contract. That contract spells out, from day one, what that individual must do to continue to receive benefits. It also spells out what the State will do in terms of child care and that type of thing. As I stated, if the welfare recipient does not live up to the terms of the contract, after 3 months benefits are ended. And that has happened in the State of Iowa. That is why I feel so strongly about having a contract as a part of whatever welfare reform program passes here.

As I stated, the Dole proposal does mention a contract, but it does not say what it is. All my amendment seeks to do is to further define and outline what the personal responsibility contract is, and to make sure that it is a contract that is molded around the family. Under the proposal that we have before us, the Dole-Packwood proposal, it just states a contract. Well, the State can set up one contract for everybody. Again, that just will not work.

We need a contract for each individual family that is on welfare. It needs to be molded around that family. So that is why I feel that the provision for a personal responsibility contract needs to be strengthened. It is in the bill and that is what my amendment seeks to do.

With that, Mr. President, I will inquire of the managers of the bill. I would like to ask for the yeas and nays on my amendment. I do not know if they are in the mode of accepting amendments or not. I have not checked.

I yield the floor.

WELFARE CONTRACT A WORTHWHILE IDEA

The idea that welfare should involve a form of social contract continues to deserve attention.

Sen. Tom Harkin, D-Iowa, has introduced a bill in the Senate that reflects ideas from a welfare reform plan enacted by Governor Branstad and the Iowa Legislature. One idea is that welfare isn't an automatic entitlement. A recipient must sign a contract with state government. The contract spells out the services the government will provide, and it contains specific steps to be taken by the recipient to become self-reliant.

A similar provision has been included in the welfare reform program under consideration in Nebraska. Jerry Oligmueller of the State Department of Social Services said that recipients would sign a ''self-sufficiency contract'' charting a two-year course to self-sufficiency.

Emphasis on personal responsibility, he said, is part of the state's effort to recognize and encourage a change in attitudes about welfare.

The idea of changing society's thinking about welfare is all to the good. In the case of people who have no physical or mental ailments, welfare should not be an open-ended arrangement. It's not fair for the government to take money from tax-paying citizens to provide for the permanent support of an able-bodied person. State and federal officials who are trying to re-establish welfare as a temporary, rehabilitative program are doing the right thing.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Mr. President, if the Senator from Iowa would be good enough, it would seem to me that we could put the amendment over until Monday. We will begin voting Monday at 5 o'clock. We can arrange for him to have a vote after 5 o'clock if that is possible. I see the majority leader on the floor.

Mr. HARKIN. If I might inquire, Mr. President, if the Senator would yield, would now be the appropriate time to ask for the yeas and nays?

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Yes.

Mr. HARKIN. Mr. President, I ask for the yeas and nays.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there a sufficient second?

There is a sufficient second.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. The Republican manager would have to agree to any sequence on the Senator's vote. If he could be patient, that will be done.

Mr. DOLE. I think under the agreement they did want to vote on the Dodd amendment first.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. I said the sequence depends on the Republican manager.

Mr. DOLE. I say to my colleagues, hopefully in the next minute or so we will be able to get a consent agreement that is now being cleared by the Democratic leader. If it is clear, there will be no further votes.

AMENDMENT NO. 2546 TO AMENDMENT NO. 2280

(Purpose: To maintain the welfare partnership between the States and the Federal Government)

Mr. CHAFEE. Mr. President, I send to the desk an amendment, and ask for its immediate consideration.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The pending amendment is set aside.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

The Senator from Rhode Island [Mr. CHAFEE] proposes an amendment numbered 2546 to amendment No. 2280.

Mr. CHAFEE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the reading of the amendment be dispensed with.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The amendment is as follows:

On page 23, beginning on line 7, strike all through page 24, line 18, and insert the following:

''(5) WELFARE PARTNERSHIP.—

''(A) IN GENERAL.—The amount of the grant otherwise determined under paragraph (1) for fiscal year 1997, 1998, 1999, or 2000 shall be reduced by the amount by which State expenditures under the State program funded under this part for the preceding fiscal year is less than 75 percent of historic State expenditures.

''(B) HISTORIC STATE EXPENDITURES.—For purposes of this paragraph—

''(i) IN GENERAL.—The term 'historic State expenditures' means expenditures by a State under parts A and F of title IV for fiscal year 1994, as in effect during such fiscal year.

''(ii) HOLD HARMLESS.—In no event shall the historic State expenditures applicable to any fiscal year exceed the amount which bears the same ratio to the amount determined under clause (i) as—

''(I) the grant amount otherwise determined under paragraph (1) for the preceding fiscal year (without regard to section 407), bears to

''(II) the total amount of Federal payments to the State under section 403 for fiscal year 1994 (as in effect during such fiscal year).

''(C) DETERMINATION OF STATE EXPENDITURES FOR PRECEDING FISCAL YEAR.—

''(i) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of this paragraph, the expenditures of a State under the State program funded under this part for a preceding fiscal year shall be equal to the sum of the State's expenditures under the program in the preceding fiscal year for—

''(I) cash assistance;

''(II) child care assistance;

''(III) education, job training, and work; and

''(IV) administrative costs.

''(ii) TRANSFERS FROM OTHER STATE AND LOCAL PROGRAMS.—In determining State expenditures under clause (i), such expenditures shall not include funding supplanted by transfers from other State and local programs.

''(D) EXCLUSION OF FEDERAL AMOUNTS.—For purposes of this paragraph, State expenditures shall not include any expenditures from amounts made available by the Federal Government.

Mr. CHAFEE. Mr. President, just a brief explanation.

Under the rules that we are operating, as I understand it, we are required to file any amendments that we have reserved spots for by 5 o'clock this evening. As such, this is that type of amendment.

I do not seek its immediate consideration now. I will call it up in some sequence next week, whenever is a proper time. Basically, this amendment is the maintenance-of-effort amendment that requires 75 percent maintenance of effort based on 1964 State expenditures, and the maintenance of effort shall continue for 5 years. The State expenditures shall only be for those existing categories that State expenditures are now made for, to qualify for matching funds under the AFDC and the other payments. In other words, the Federal contribution.

The point I am making here is that the State maintenance-of-efforts funds cannot be used, for example, for Medicaid, which they are not currently committed to be used for.

Mr. President, I ask that the amendment be set aside and we take it up in whatever sequence is deemed proper next week.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

UNANIMOUS-CONSENT AGREEMENT

Mr. DOLE. Mr. President, I understand this consent agreement has been cleared by my colleagues on the other side. I will propound it. I ask unanimous consent when the Senate completes its business today, it stand in recess until 10 a.m. Monday, September 11, 1995, and immediately resume consideration of the welfare bill, H.R. 4.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. DOLE. I further ask at 10 o'clock a.m. Senator KASSEBAUM be recognized to offer an amendment concerning block grants, and following the conclusion of debate the amendment be laid aside and the vote occur on or in relation to the amendment second in the voting sequence to be outlined before for Monday, September 11.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. DOLE. I further ask that following the debate on the above-mentioned amendment, Senator HELMS be recognized to offer an amendment regarding work for food stamps, and following conclusion of the debate the amendment be laid aside and the vote occur on or in relation to the amendment third in the voting sequence on Monday.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. DOLE. I further ask following debate, Senator DODD be recognized to offer an amendment regarding child care, and that debate be limited to 4 hours to be equally divided in the usual form and the vote occur on or in relation to that amendment at 5 p.m. on September 11.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. DOLE. That would be the first vote.

We need to work out additional time, I think, on the Feinstein amendments. We can do that on Monday.

I also ask there be 4 minutes for debate to be equally divided in the usual form between the second and third rollcall votes ordered on Monday.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. DOLE. And that the first vote be for 15 minutes and the other two or any other subsequent votes be limited to 10 minutes.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. DOLE. I say to my colleagues I think we are making progress. We have had five votes today. We have been able to dispose of other amendments. Members are offering their amendments to be considered and they still have until 5:00 p.m. to do so.

In light of this agreement, in lining up the three rollcall votes beginning at 5 p.m. on Monday, there will be no further votes today.

Members are reminded if you intend to offer an amendment to this bill, those amendments must be offered by 5 p.m. this evening.

AMENDMENT NO. 2280, AS FURTHER MODIFIED

Mr. DOLE. At this time, I have consent to modify my amendment. I send that modification to the desk.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the amendment is so modified.

''(2) EXCEPTION.—Notwithstanding paragraph (1), a State may not reduce or terminate assistance under the State program based on a refusal of an adult to work if such adult is a single custodial parent caring for a child age 5 or under and has a demonstrated inability (as determined by the State) to obtain needed child care, for one or more of the following reasons:

''(A) Unavailability of appropriate child care within a reasonable distance of the individual's home or work site.

(b) RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATIONS.—The purpose of this section is to allow religious organizations to contract, or to accept certificates, vouchers, or other forms of disbursement under any program described in subsection (a)(2), on the same basis as any other provider without impairing the religious character of such organizations, and without diminishing the religious freedom of beneficiaries of assistance funded under such program.

(c) NONDISCRIMINATION AGAINST RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATIONS.—Religious organizations are eligible, on the same basis as any other private organization, as contractors to provide assistance, or to accept certificates, vouchers, or other forms of disbursement, under any program described in subsection (a)(2). Neither the Federal Government nor a State receiving funds under such programs shall discriminate against an organization which is or applies to be a contractor to provide assistance, or which accepts certificates, vouchers, or other forms of disbursement, on the basis that the organization has a religious character.

(d) RELIGIOUS CHARACTER AND FREEDOM.—

(1) RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATIONS.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any religious organization with a contract described in subsection (a)(1)(A), or which accepts certificates, vouchers, or other forms of disbursement under subsection (a)(1)(B), shall retain its independence from Federal, State, and local governments, including such organization's control over the definition, development, practice, and expression of its religious beliefs.

(2) ADDITIONAL SAFEGUARDS.—Neither the Federal Government nor a State shall require a religious organization to—

(A) alter its form of internal governance;

(B) form a separate, nonprofit corporation to receive and administer the assistance funded under a program described in subsection (a)(2) solely on the basis that it is a religious organization; or in order to be eligible to contract to provide assistance, or to accept certificates, vouchers, or other forms of disbursement, funded under a program described in subsection (a)(2).

(C) remove religious art, icons, scripture, or other symbols;

(e) RIGHTS OF BENEFICIARIES OF ASSISTANCE.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—If an individual described in paragraph (2) has an objection to the religious character of the organization or institution from which the individual receives, or would receive, assistance funded under any program described in subsection (a)(2), the State in which the individual resides shall provide such individual (if otherwise eligible for such assistance) with assistance from an alternative provider the value of which is not less than the value of the assistance which the individual would have received from such organization.

(2) INDIVIDUAL DESCRIBED.—An individual described in this paragraph is an individual who receives, applies for, or requests to apply for, assistance under a program described in subsection (a)(2).

(f) NONDISCRIMINATION IN EMPLOYMENT.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in paragraph (2), nothing in this section shall be construed to modify or affect the provisions of any other Federal or State law or regulation that relates to discrimination in employment on the basis of religion.

(2) EXCEPTION.—A religious organization with a contract described in subsection (a)(1)(A), or which accepts certificates, vouchers, or other forms of disbursement under subsection (a)(1)(B), may require that an employee rendering service pursuant to such contract, or pursuant to the organization's acceptance of certificates, vouchers, or other forms of disbursement adhere to—

(A) the religious tenets and teachings of such organization; and

(B) any rules of the organization regarding the use of drugs or alcohol.

(g) NONDISCRIMINATION AGAINST BENEFICIARIES.—Except as otherwise provided in law, a religious organization shall not discriminate against an individual in regard to rendering assistance funded under any program described in subsection (a)(2) on the basis of religion, a religious belief, or refusal to actively participate in a religious practice.

(h) FISCAL ACCOUNTABILITY.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in paragraph (2), any religious organization contracting to provide assistance funded under any program described in subsection (a)(2) shall be subject to the same regulations as other contractors to account in accord with generally accepted auditing principles for the use of such funds provided under section programs.

(2) LIMITED AUDIT.—If such organization segregates Federal funds provided under such programs into separate accounts, then only the financial assistance provided with such funds shall be subject to audit.

(i) COMPLIANCE.—A religious organization which has its rights under this section violated may enforce its claim exclusively by asserting a civil action for such relief as may be appropriate, including injunctive relief or damages, in an appropriate State court against the entity or agency that allegedly commits such violation.

SEC. 103. LIMITATIONS ON USE OF FUNDS FOR CERTAIN PURPOSES.

No funds provided directly to institutions or organizations to provide services and administer programs described in section 102(a)(2) and programs established or modified under this Act shall be expended for sectarian worship or instruction. This section shall not apply to financial assistance provided to or on behalf of beneficiaries of assistance in the form of certificates, vouchers, or other forms of disbursement, if such beneficiary may chose where such assistance shall be redeemed.

Such formulas shall be based on each State's proportional share of the total amount appropriated under section 403(a)(2)(A) for fiscal year 2000.''.

Mr. DOLE. I will briefly explain the first modification which provides no additional cash assistance for children born of families receiving assistance. States may provide vouchers in lieu of cash assistance, and they may be used to pay for particular goods and services suitable for the care of the child involved.

The second one provides a bonus to States reducing out-of-wedlock births.

Third is a maintenance of effort. We are still trying to reconcile that with the distinguished Senator from Rhode Island. He just offered an amendment. We have a little different amendment. We are very close to an agreement. Maybe we can agree on something by Monday.

The fourth would be a work family provision relating to child care. States cannot sanction a single custodial parent for failure to work if the parent shows a demonstrated need for child care and the States define what constitutes demonstrated need.

No. 5, services provided by charitable, religious, or private organizations, limitation on the use of funds for certain purposes—just a modification of the current provision, and a modification of the supplemental growth fund.

And finally, a performance bonus fund that provides additional money for States that exceed performance goals.

These are modifications to the amendment. There will still be other amendments.

I ask unanimous consent to have this printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the modifications ordered to be printed in the RECORD, are as follows:

MODIFICATIONS TO LEADERSHIP WELFARE BILL

TITLE I—TEMPORARY ASSISTANCE TO NEEDY FAMILIES BLOCK GRANT

1. Provides No Additional Cash Assistance for Children Born to Families Receiving Assistance (''Family Cap''). States may not provide additional cash assistance for children born to families receiving assistance. States may provide vouchers in lieu of cash assistance. Vouchers may be used only to pay for particular goods and services that are suitable for the care of the child involved.

2. Out-of-Wedlock Birth Ratio. Provides a bonus to States that reduce out-of wedlock births.

3. Maintenance of Effort. For the first three years, States must spend 75 percent of what the State spent on AFDC benefits including JOBS and child care, for the preceding fiscal year. This is a modification to current provisions.

4. Work Penalty Provisions Relating to Child Care. States can not sanction a single custodial parent for failure to work if the parent shows a demonstrated need for child care. The States define what constitutes demonstrated need.

5. Services Provided by Charitable, Religious or Private Organizations and Limitations on Use of Funds for Certain Purposes. Modifications to current provisions.

6. Modification to Supplemental Growth Fund. Qualifies States with extraordinary population increases for the supplemental growth fund.

7. Performance Bonus Fund. Provides additional money for States that exceed performance goals.

Mr. DOLE. There may be other amendments. Senator HATCH is here, Senator CHAFEE is here, both members of the Finance Committee, the distinguished Senator from New York, ranking member on the committee is here. If there are some amendments that can be taken, I assume we would be open for business for a while. Otherwise, as I indicated, there are no further votes today. There may be additional debate, and Members are reminded of the 5 o'clock deadline.

In my view, I do not see why we cannot complete action on this bill by Wednesday or perhaps early Thursday because we would like to do the State, Justice Department appropriations bill on Thursday and Friday.

We have done seven appropriations bills. That gives us No. 8. That would leave five to do before the end of this month. The only one available to us next week will be State, Justice, Commerce appropriations bill. The others come out the following week.

I do not think it will be necessary because I think we have had good cooperation—we would rather not file cloture. We like to have a good debate and let everybody have a chance to debate their amendments up or down and then have a vote on final passage.

Of course, if there should be some effort to frustrate the process, then it would be my suggestion we wrap all this up and put it in reconciliation. Welfare reform is very important, and if we are frustrated here, we will try to do it in another way.

So far, we have had good cooperation on both sides. Members have been offering amendments. We have had good debates. I think we are making progress.

Mr. KENNEDY. Would the Senator yield for a brief question?

Mr. DOLE. I yield.

Mr. KENNEDY. The changes included in the amendment are those child care provisions which will give the State, even, an option, open to the States, that will exclude the parent from the sanctions if the child is less than 1 year old? As I understand it, that was going to be the intention of the Senator. I am just asking now whether that was—if the Senator will just be kind enough to repeat the provisions dealing with day care?

We had inquired of the majority leader a week or so ago, or just before the break, about the child care provisions and the Senator had indicated that there would be some modifications. I had understood, in the modification that was sent to the desk, it did provide for the State's flexibility to exclude from the punitive provisions of the legislation if the child was less than 1 year old.

But that was one provision. I am just inquiring of the leader if that is the only change that was made with regard to child care? I think later on in the afternoon, Senator DODD and myself, and I think others, are going to be introducing an amendment on the child care which the majority leader referenced, which we will dispose of early next week. I just want to try to understand exactly what modification has been included by the leader relating to the child care, which I consider to be, perhaps, the most important provisions, along with the work requirements, in the bill.

Mr. DOLE. I might say in response, this is an amendment suggested by the Senator from Maine, Senator SNOWE. The State would not sanction if they are of preschool age, which I think is a step in the direction the Senator would want us to go.

Mr. KENNEDY. I see. So, as I understand it, then——

Mr. DOLE. I will be happy to furnish the Senator with a copy of the legislative language, too.

Mr. KENNEDY. Fine. I will not, then, take up the time. As I understand the amendment of the Senator from Maine, it will, therefore, increase the age of the child? I think it is up to 5 years of age, which effectively will—5 years of age——

Mr. DOLE. Five?

Mr. KENNEDY. Exclude 60 percent of those who are currently on welfare today, since 60 percent of those who are on welfare have children under that age.

The purpose of the legislation, as I understood it, was to try to get people to work and also to provide for their children with day care. We will have a chance later to debate this, but as I understand the changes in the child care provision, they effectively will say those welfare mothers can stay home and continue to take care of the children. Then, after that child gets to 6, they will be subject to the other provisions of the legislation.

I hope we will have a chance to debate that because it seems to me to be both undermining the thrust of the legislation, in terms of moving people from welfare to work, because they will be excluded and we do not have additional kinds of child care provisions that will permit them to move to work, which I know is the objective of the majority leader.

So I thank the Senator for his explanation, but this is the kind of issue I hope we will have an opportunity to debate before we get to closure.

Mr. DOLE. I thank the Senator from Massachusetts for his statement, as I understood his statement on the participation rates. But we do not sanction a single custodial parent for failure to work if the parent shows a demonstrated need for child care. And that would be determined by the States, what constitutes a demonstrated need.

We will have that debate on Monday. Senator SNOWE will be here, and I am certain she will be happy to go into it in more detail.

Mr. CHAFEE. Mr. President, I have just a procedural question. We are open for business for filing the amendments until 5, and to have an amendment count you have to send it to the desk. That is what offering an amendment is.

So, as I understand it—so, therefore, presumably, the establishment has to stay in business until 5?

Mr. DOLE. Oh, yes. We will be around until 5. The Senator from Utah suggests maybe we can go into recess until a quarter of 5. But we are not going to try to shut off anybody because there may be Members now in the process of drafting amendments. So I hope we could continue to maybe accept amendments, maybe have some debate. There may be other amendments to be offered.

In fact, if some have been offered where we could do the debate this afternoon and take up the votes on Monday, we will be happy to do that, too.

Mr. CHAFEE. Mr. President, if this is complete, I have an amendment on behalf of Mr. COHEN. I will send it to the desk.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. There is a Moynihan-Dole amendment we can accept right now.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Rhode Island.

AMENDMENT NO. 2502, AS MODIFIED

Mr. CHAFEE. Mr. President, on behalf of Senator COHEN, I send to the desk a modification to a prior amendment.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The amendment will be modified.

The amendment (No. 2502), as modified, is as follows:

On page 79, line 18, insert after ''subsection (a)(2)'' the following: ''so long as the programs are implemented consistent with the Establishment Clause of the United States Constitution''.

On page 80, line 13, after ''governance'' replace '','' with '';'' and delete lines 14–16.

Mr. CHAFEE. Now, Mr. President, on behalf of Senator COHEN I send an amendment to the desk dealing with supplemental security income benefits, so-called SSI, and ask for its immediate consideration.

AMENDMENT NO. 2548 TO AMENDMENT NO. 2280

(Purpose: To direct the Commissioner of Social Security to develop a prototype of a counterfeit-resistant social security card, and to provide for a study and report on the development of such card)

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Mr. President, I send an amendment to the desk for myself and Senator DOLE. It is an amendment for the development of a prototype counterfeit resistant Social Security card. I ask for its immediate consideration.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, we will set aside the pending amendment.

The clerk will report the amendment.

The assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

The Senator from New York [Mr. MOYNIHAN], for himself and Mr. DOLE, proposes an amendment numbered 2548 to Amendment No. 2280.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that reading of the amendment be dispensed with.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The amendment is as follows:

On page 87, between lines 5 and 6, insert the following:

SEC. 105A. DEVELOPING OF PROTOTYPE OF COUNTERFEIT-RESISTANT SOCIAL SECURITY CARD REQUIRED.

(a) DEVELOPMENT.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—The Commissioner of Social Security (hereafter in this section referred to as the ''Commissioner'') shall in accordance with the provisions of this section develop a prototype of a counterfeit-resistant social security card. Such prototype card shall—

(A) be made of a durable, tamper-resistant material such as plastic or polyester,

(B) employ technologies that provide security features, such as magnetic stripes, holograms, and integrated circuits, and

(C) be developed so as to provide individuals with reliable proof of citizenship or legal resident alien status.

(2) ASSISTANCE BY ATTORNEY GENERAL.—The Attorney General of the United States shall provide such information and assistance as the Commissioner deems necessary to achieve the purposes of this section.

(b) STUDY AND REPORT.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—The Commissioner shall conduct a study and issue a report to Congress which examines different methods of improving the social security card application process.

(2) ELEMENTS OF STUDY.—The study shall include an evaluation of the cost and work load implications of issuing a counterfeit-resistant social security card for all individuals over a 3, 5, and 10 year period. The study shall also evaluate the feasibility and cost implications of imposing a user fee for replacement cards and cards issued to individuals who apply for such a card prior to the scheduled 3, 5, and 10 year phase-in options.

(3) DISTRIBUTION OF REPORT.—Copies of the report described in this subsection along with a facsimile of the prototype card as described in subsection (a) shall be submitted to the Committees on Ways and Means and Judiciary of the House of Representatives and the Committees on Finance and Judiciary of the Senate within 1 year of the date of the enactment of this Act.

(c) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—There are authorized to be appropriated and are appropriated from the Federal Old-Age and Survivors Insurance Trust Fund such sums as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this section.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Mr. President, it was 18 years ago that I first proposed we produce a new tamper-resistant Social Security card to reduce fraud and enhance public confidence in our Social Security system. This has been an ongoing battle, and I think there should be a new sense of urgency about this issue in light of the current welfare debate.

The amendment I offer today is very simple. It would require two things. First, it would require the Commissioner of the Social Security Administration to develop a prototype of a counter-proof Social Security card. The prototype card would be designed with the security features necessary so that it could be used reliably to confirm U.S. citizenship or legal resident alien status.

Second, it would require the Commissioner to study and report to Congress on ways to improve the Social Security card application process so as to reduce the process' vulnerability to fraud. An evaluation of cost and workload implications of issuing a counterfeit-resistant Social Security card is also required.

The Congressional Budget Office has informed me that this amendment would result in an insignificant increase—less than $500,000—in administrative expenses for the Social Security Administration.

When the Social Security amendments were before us in 1983, we approved a provision to require the production of a new tamper-resistant Social Security card. The law, section 345 of Public Law 98–21, stated:

The social security card shall be made of banknote paper, and (to the maximum extent practicable) shall be a card which cannot be counterfeited.

What a disappointment when late in 1983, the Social Security Administration began to issue the new card, and it became clear that the agency simply had not understood what Congress intended. The new card looks much like the old, a pasteboard card really much like the first ones produced by Social Security in 1936. It has the same design framing the name and nearly the same colors. It feels the same. An expert examining a card with a magnifying glass can certainly detect whether or not one of the new ones is genuine, but therein lies the problem. We should have a distinguished, durable card that can hold vital information and can be authenticated easily.

There is a history here. The Social Security Administration, from its earlier years, has resisted any use of the Social Security card for identification purposes. In fact, the card actually said it could not be so used.

In 1977, when I first proposed that we produce a new card, the Social Security Administration objected and the proposal was not adopted. I tried again and again, and succeeded only on the fifth try.

Or so I thought. Until the card was introduced.

A new Social Security card—one very difficult to counterfeit and easily verified as genuine—could be manufactured at a low cost. The major expense, if we were to approve new cards, would be the cost of the interview process and that is why the amendment requires a study to include the cost and workload implications of a new card. Let us explore our options—we must try to improve the system.

A Social Security card could be designed along the lines of today's high technology credit cards. The card could be highly tamper-resistant, and its authenticity could be readily discerned by the untrained eye. It must be seen as a special document; one which would be visually and tactilely more difficult to counterfeit than the current paper card.

The magnetic stripe would contain the Social Security number, encoded with an algorithm known only to the Social Security Administration. A so-called watermark stripe could be placed over it, making it nearly impossible to counterfeit without technology that currently costs $10 million. The decoding algorithm could be integrated with the Social Security Administration computers.

The new cards will not eliminate all fraudulent use of Social Security cards. But it will close down the shopfront operations that flood America with false Social Security cards.

That is what the Congress intended in the 1983 legislation.

Let us try again. We have seen that it can be done. It is what the Clinton administration intended last year when they introduced the health security card. As many of you remember, it has a magnetic stripe to hold whatever information may be necessary.

A key reform in our ongoing welfare debate is the restriction of benefits to U.S. citizens. I think it is safe to say that when this restriction is enforced there will be a revitalized black market for documentation of U.S. citizenship. It would be wise to head off this foreseeable problem. A high technology Social Security card would also facilitate the disbursement of benefits to our citizens. A simpler, more effective way of providing citizenship would strengthen public confidence in our immigration system and improve the efficiency of our welfare system.

I offer the present amendment, which as I said earlier, would require only the development of a prototype counterfeit-resistant card and a study on ways to reduce the vulnerability of the card application process to fraud. The Attorney General would assist the Commissioner of Social Security with determining what is needed here.

I ask for the support of my colleagues on this important matter once again—this time for a simple prototype card and a study.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. If there be no further debate, the question is on agreeing to the amendment.

The amendment (No. 2548) was agreed to.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. KENNEDY. Mr. President, at long last, the Senate turns its attention to an issue at the heart of the availability of any real welfare proposal and close to the heart of all working families, and that is access to safe, affordable child care in the next period of time. I see in the Chamber my friend and colleague, the Senator from Connecticut, who will offer the amendment for himself and for myself.

Mr. President, somehow amidst all the tough talk and political posturing about welfare reform, talk of block grants and State flexibility, funding formulas and family caps, this debate seems to have lost sight of the clear and simple fact that a single parent with a preschool-aged child cannot hold down a job if there is no one to care for that child.

I think over the long course of the hearings that have been held on the question of welfare reform in the time that I have been in the Senate, it is very clear what the elements of a successful welfare reform bill must be. There has to be, obviously, a job at the end of the line for an individual, hopefully in the private sector, public sector if necessary. There has to be some training for that individual. There also has to be some care for the child of that parent. And when we realize that two-thirds of those recipients today of welfare have small children, we understand the importance of providing the child care. And there also has to be an element of health care for that child and for that family.

Those are essentially the elements. And what is an intolerable situation is to present welfare reform legislation and pretend that it is really, truly a reform program without addressing the enormously important issue of who is going to care for the children that will be affected by this debate.

Of those that are on welfare, about 10 million of them are children, 4 to 5 million are adults. So when we talk about the welfare issue and welfare reform, we are really talking about children and families in this country. Many of those children are the sons and daughters of working families. Children are always the most vulnerable individuals. They are not here to speak for themselves. As responsible policymakers, we must consider the impact of any legislative effort on the most vulnerable in our society.

So throughout this debate we intend to ask over and over again the key questions that should guide this entire debate: Who will care for the children? As families enter the job search, who will care for the children? As families enter workfare programs, who will care for the children? As a single parent is mandated to take a job, who will care for the children?

I would like to just take a few moments before my friend and colleague from Connecticut introduces legislation that will address this issue, and I think in an important way remedy this glaring defect in the majority leader's proposal, to consider where we are with the proposal that is before the Senate this afternoon.

First of all, if we look at the current situation under the existing legislation, legislation that passed in 1988 with virtually unanimous support in the Senate, which recognized the importance of child care programs, there is $1 billion to take care of 643,000 children.

Under the bill that is before the Senate at the present time, that particular funding, the $1.1 billion, which is the total of three different child care programs, is effectively eliminated, crossed out as separately designated child care funding.

There is an additional child care program in current law that is provided under discretionary spending for the child care programs which also amounts to $1 billion—some $935 million spent in the year 1995 to take care of 750,000 children. This is $935 million for 750,000 versus $1.1 billion for 643,000 children. These are the sons and daughters of low-income working families and need care for a short period of time, and that is why there is some disparity.

The majority leader's proposal not only eliminates the $1 billion which will currently provide for the 643,000 children—eliminates that—but also takes a third of the $1 billion which was appropriated for child care and allows 30 percent of it to be transferred for other purposes.

We have to ask ourselves, who is going to care for all of these children? Who is going to care for the children who are being taken care of under the existing discretionary program if these funds are diverted away? Who will care for the children who would have been cared for through the mandatory programs that would otherwise be expended in 1996 but have been effectively?

We have to ask ourselves, what is going to be the response?

When this issue was raised just before the break, the leader indicated what his response was going to be.

In the exchange on the floor of the Senate, the majority leader said:

> Let me just respond this way to the Senator from Massachusetts. I said just a few moments ago—I do not think the Senator was on the floor—that was an area of concern raised by the White House, the same general area. As I said, it is a concern raised by a number of my colleagues on this side of the aisle.
> We had our first meeting on Friday. And Senator KASSEBAUM, the chairman of the committee, who did a lot of work in this area, was present.
> It is certainly true that Senator KASSEBAUM has been very dedicated to child care. It was Senator DODD who was the leader of the development of the discretionary program, with strong support of the Senator from Utah, Mr. HATCH, and it was Senator KASSEBAUM who ensured that this valuable program was reauthorized.

It continues on:

> So I can say to the Senator in all candor, it is something we are looking at. We know there is a problem, and we are looking at it because under the present provision of S. 1120 it would be block granted to the States. But there is a great deal of concern expressed. I can only say that we are going to sit down, I think, again either tonight or tomorrow morning to try to address that on this side.

Now, what happened? First of all, we have what I call under the existing Dole proposal effectively the home alone program. We are telling parents that they are going to have to leave their children home alone. We are saying if the parent of this family does not go out and take a job, they are going to lose any kind of support benefits and we are going to leave the child alone at home.

That was the issue brought before the majority leader just before the August recess and he responded that he was going to address that particular proposal. So what happened? In the proposal sent to the Senate just before the break, he included a provision providing the discretion to the States the option to exempt a parent with a child less than 1 year old—but completely at the discretion of the States. If the State did not choose to do it, infants could find themselves home alone again.

The new bill did not provide additional child care for families with young children. The bill did not provide additional funding to help and assist those families in achieving self sufficiency, allowing them to go to work with good quality day care. All it did was say that those families would be exempt. You will not be denied the benefits of the program if you do not participate in the work program. And effectively what you are saying is happy birthday to the child when they turn 1, because that parent is going to be required to go on out and leave that child at home alone when they are 13 months old.

I call that ''Home Alone II.'' You left the children home alone in the initial proposal. And now we are saying we are leaving it up to the States to exempt 10 percent of families from having to leave their children home alone. But what about getting those parents into the work force, which is part of the desire of this particular legislation? We are not providing child care. All we are saying is that if you have young children, you can stay home and do not have to work.

Mr. President, this chart gives a real reflection of what the needs are and what the realities are under the day care proposal. We are taking the $1 billion that was spent on child care for welfare families and under the Dole proposal it is eliminated. But we will have to spend $4.8 billion in the year 2000 alone to provide for day care for welfare recipients mandated to work under the Home Alone bill. That means that if the Dole bill is implemented and all the people required to work actually go to work, you will need $4.8 billion to provide the day care for them in that one single year—one single year.

This assumes that only half of the parents that are going to work will need help finding and affording child care. It says that the others will be able to get child care on their own, which is an extraordinary assumption. I mean, it defies what is happening in all of our States. I am interested in listening to Senators who have had a different experience in their State, finding scores of people receiving welfare that are able to get child care and pay for it. But that is one of the assumptions.

Even with that assumption, HHS says that the Dole bill will cost $4.8 billion for child care in the year 2000. Cumulatively, under the Dole proposal, it will be $11.2 billion from 1996 to the year 2000. And States will only be provided $16.8 billion flat funding over that period of time. If you are going to need all of this for day care, where is the money going to be on job search? Where is the money going to be in providing for the health care needs of the children? Where is the money going to be for job training and education? Where is it going to be? It is just not going to be there. That is why this is so fraudulent. That is why this legislation is so basically and fundamentally flawed when you think about the needs of the poor children of this country.

Mr. President, I will join with my colleague and friend from Connecticut in an amendment to address this particular problem by restoring the existing $1 billion and making up the rest to make sure this legislation addresses the issue of child care for the children of this country, as well as the requirements in terms of job needs.

So, Mr. President, I welcome the opportunity, as we come into the weekend, to join with our leader here in the Senate, Senator DODD, who has provided leadership in this child care area. It has been a bipartisan effort, in our committee and on the floor, with Senator HATCH and Senator KASSEBAUM and others, very much involved in this effort.

Let me just say, finally, we heard just a few moments ago, additional changes proposed by the majority leader. As I understand, this includes an amendment to raise the age of children whose families are exempt from 1 to 5 years of age. This effectively will mean that sixty percent of those who are on welfare will be excluded from welfare reform because that many have children under 5.

So that raises some serious issues and questions about what we are doing here if we go about excluding people from the requirements rather than assisting them. As a way of trying to respond to this particular need, I think this raises some serious questions about what this legislation is all about.

Mr. SANTORUM. Will the Senator yield?

Mr. KENNEDY. I will in a second. I prefer that we provide the kind of support that is included in the Dodd amendment because if we do that, what we are going to do to get people to work—by providing the training for them, the day care, and help them to find a job. That is the objective, to care for children and to promote work. That is the desirable end.

But certainly, if we are not going to have the kind of support and help and the funding for the day care, as a matter of policy, it is a lot better to have the parent at home taking care of very small children than requiring them to make a choice between leaving a child who is 2, 3, 4, or 5 home alone and complying with the requirements of this legislation.

So this is a very important discussion and debate. I hope that we will have the chance on Monday, to get into greater detail both on the changes that have been made. But just at the opening of this, because I see my friend and colleague from Connecticut on the floor who wants to make a presentation, I think it is important that we understand exactly where we are with regard to the child care proposals.

I will be glad to yield briefly for a question from the Senator, and then I want to yield the floor so that the Senator from Connecticut can——

Mr. SANTORUM. I just wanted to respond to the comments of the Senator from Massachusetts about the Snowe amendment. I think there is a mischaracterization. Maybe it is not a mischaracterization. I know the amendment has not been presented. You received a summary. But what the Snowe amendment does is say that the parents with children under 5 who can demonstrate to the State—the States will determine what the demonstration requirements would be—that their child care is either unaffordable to them or unavailable to them, whatever, would not be sanctioned for not working.

That does not mean that anyone who has a child under 5 would be exempt from the work requirement. That is not the case. In fact, they would be required to work unless they can prove that there is no child care available. So what happens, since the Snowe amendment does not change the participation standard, which is that 50 percent have to be in the work program, what the Snowe amendment really attempts to do by keeping the denominator the same is to encourage States to provide more child care so they can increase work participation by families with children under 5. So it is, in a sense, a roundabout way of getting States to come up with more child care dollars so we can, in fact, give opportunities for women, in most cases women, who have children under 5.

Mr. KENNEDY. Mr. President, I appreciate that, and I will make a brief comment. That is the very basis of the difference among the Dole, Senator Santorum, and other proposals. You are not providing child care for that mother that wants to be able to go out and work. What you are saying is that mothers will have to work unless they are able to demonstrate that for some means they cannot quite get that child care, that they do not have the resources to do it.

I say to the Senator from Pennsylvania, travel around your own State or my State or any of the other States and talk to those mothers and ask them. We already know what is happening out there. We already have that kind of information, and we just know of the availability of child care.

I hope it is not quite as punitive as described by the Senator to say because we know what the shortage is and what the cost is in terms of quality child care. I do not know how many working families that are trying to go out and work and provide for their families, let alone those that are caught in the misfortunes of life and have a life of dependency, are able to go on out there and get the child care and afford to pay it, have someone tell them, ''Well, maybe your situation is not desperate enough and you are able to stay home. You are able to stay home. We are not going to do anything for you to get child care so you can get off welfare, we are just going to say you can still get your check.''

I do not think that is really what this bill should be about.

I look forward to the opportunity later this afternoon and Monday to get into greater detail on this.

Mr. DODD addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Connecticut is recognized.

At the end of title VI, add the following new section:

SEC. . WORK PROGRAM RELATED CHILD CARE.

(a) ESTABLISHMENT.—The Secretary of Health and Human Services shall, upon the application of a State under subsection (c), provide a grant to such State for the provision of child care services to individuals.

(b) FUNDING.—For the purpose of providing child care services for eligible children through the awarding of grants to States under this section for a fiscal year, the Secretary of Health and Human Services shall pay, from funds in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, an amount equal to the sum of—

(1) the outlays for child care services under sections 402(g)(1)(A)(i), 402(g)(1)(A)(ii), and 402(i) of the Social Security Act (as such sections existed on the day before the date of enactment of this Act) for fiscal year 1994; and

(2)(A) for fiscal year 1996, $246,000,000;

(B) for fiscal year 1997, $311,000,000;

(C) for fiscal year 1998, $570,000,000;

(D) for fiscal year 1999, $1,122,000,000; and

(E) for fiscal year 2000, $3,776,000,000.

(c) APPLICATION.—To be eligible to receive a grant under this section, a State shall prepare and submit to the Secretary of Health and Human Services an application at such time, in such manner, and containing such information as the Secretary may require.

(d) AMOUNT OF GRANT.—From the amounts available under subsection (b) for a fiscal year, the Secretary of Health and Human Services shall allot to each State (with an application approved under subsection (c)) an amount which bears the same relationship to such amounts as the total number of eligible children in the State bears to the total number of eligible children in all States (with applications approved under subsection (c)).

(e) USE OF FUNDS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Amounts received by a State under a grant awarded under this section shall be used to carry out programs and activities to provide child care services to eligible children residing within such State.

(2) ELIGIBLE CHILDREN.—For purposes of this section, the term ''eligible child'' means an individual—

(A) who is less than 13 years of age; and

(B) who resides with a parent or parents who are working pursuant to a work requirement contained in section 404 of the Social Security Act (as amended by section 101), are attending a job training or educational program, or are at risk of falling into welfare.

(3) GUARANTEE.—Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, or of part A of title IV of the Social Security Act—

(A) no parent of a preschool age child shall be penalized or sanctioned for failure to participate in a job training, educational, or work program if child care assistance in an appropriate child care program is not provided for the child of such parent; and

(B) no parent of an elementary school age child shall be penalized or sanctioned for failure to participate in a job training, educational, or work program before or after normal school hours if assistance in an appropriate before or after school program is not provided for the child of such parent.

(f) GENERL PROVISIONS.—

(1) OTHER REQUIREMENTS.—The requirements, standards, and criteria under the Child Care and Development Block Grant Act of 1990 (42 U.S.C. 9858 et seq.) except for the provisions of section 658G of such Act, shall apply to the funds appropriated under this section to the extent that such requirements, standards, and criteria do not directly conflict with the provisions of this section.

(2) MAINTENANCE OF EFFORT.—A State, in utilizing the proceeds of a grant received under this section, shall maintain the expenditures of the State for child care activities at a level that is equal to not less than the level of such expenditures maintained by the State under the provisions of law referred to in subsection (b) for fiscal year 1994.

(g) SENSE OF THE SENATE REGARDING FINANCING.—

(1) FINDINGS.—The Senate finds that—

(A) child care is essential to the success of real welfare reform and this Act dramatically reduces the funds designated for child care while at the same time increasing the need for such care; and

(B) obsolete corporate subsidies and tax expenditures consume a larger and growing portion of the funds in the Treasury.

(2) SENSE OF THE SENATE.—It is the sense of the Senate that the new investment in child care, above the amounts appropriated under the provisions of law referred to in subsection (b)(1) for fiscal year 1994, provided under this section should be offset by corresponding reductions in corporate welfare.

Mr. DODD. Mr. President, this is the child care amendment. As I understand it, we will take some time this afternoon, and on Monday we will resume the debate and have a vote on this amendment, I think, at 5 p.m. I stand corrected if that is not correct. My colleague from Pennsylvania is indicating that that is the situation procedurally. We will have people over the weekend take a look at the amendment, decide either to support it or offer ideas to change it. But I think it is a critically important amendment. It is one of the two or three, I think, most significant amendments we will have during the consideration of this bill, because it is such an important linchpin to the whole debate on welfare. It determines whether or not the so-called welfare reform proposal can actually work.

Let me, first of all, thank my colleague from Massachusetts for his support in putting this amendment together, and for his support not just today and recently, but over the years.

As he has pointed out, Mr. President, going back some 5, 6, 7 years ago, we were able to fashion a child care proposal, the very first, I might add, ever adopted by a Congress with the exception of the period in about 1942 or 1943 when, in the middle of World War II, the Congress appropriated $50 million for a national child care program for the obvious reasons.

We had young men in uniform who were fighting in the European and Pacific theaters. War production was critical. Women went to work in war production facilities and, obviously, taking care of their children was something that needed to be done.

In fact, I invite my colleagues to look at a fascinating exhibit at the Library of Congress. There are marvelous photographs and stories about these child care facilities and how sophisticated they were with doctors and nurses, wonderful feeding programs and the like. In fact, one of them still is in operation in Santa Monica, CA, the only one I know of that is still operating from that period of time.

Obviously, that was a time of national emergency. Once World War II was over, young men came back from the war, women left war production, men went to work in our companies and factories across the country, and these child care facilities, many of them, closed their doors.

It is intriguing to note, because it was, obviously, a recognized need that we could not very well ask people to go to work in war production without a parent being home and to leave children home alone.

I have gone back and examined that legislation. There was no criteria established in that bill based on the age of the children or exemptions from work and war production. It was designed to take care of kids, and it was a wonderful educational process as well, where those children actually had a good education experience while being in that child care setting.

At any rate, we are again engaged in a debate. This time another emergency, not of the magnitude of World War II, but an emergency. We have far too many people who are living on public assistance of one kind or another. We are trying to break that cycle. We are trying to make it possible for people to go back to work or to go to work for the first time ever, and we are faced not with a dissimilar fact situation.

In World War II, the men in those families were fighting a war. Today, in many cases, there are not any men at all in these households, just women raising children alone. And yet we want them to go to work, not in war production today, but we want them to get into the work force, because we think it is not only good for them, it is good for the country. But the issue regarding the children is the same, it is the common denominator. In 1942 and 1943, we reached the collective conclusion those kids should not be left home alone. We needed women in war production; take care of the kids.

Today we are saying collectively, I think, we ought to get people to work in this country. We are tired of watching two and three generations and four generations live on public assistance. We want to get them to work, and yet we know we have a staggering number of children who need care.

What this amendment is designed to do is to come up with a means by which we make the work requirements in this particular bill be effective. So that is what we have crafted with this amendment. We take $5 billion as part of the block grant—it is already in the bill—and dedicate that to child care. We then recognize, as a result of HHS's numbers, that you cannot possibly meet the criteria outlined in the Dole legislation that requires that a certain percentage of people on welfare get to work, if you do not have a child care component. So 44 States would not be in compliance according to CBO. We come up with $6 billion to come out of a corporate welfare approach that is designated by a sense-of-the-Senate resolution.

Some will argue you do not need $6 billion, you can do with a sum less than that. I, frankly, will be listening and more than happy to entertain some discussion of that. Health and Human Services says roughly $6 billion. CBO says less than that, depending on what numbers you use as the base.

The point is, what presently exists in the bill does not meet the criteria at all. You need to have more resources. I will get into why that is the case in a moment.

As I pointed out yesterday during our debate, and when the distinguished majority leader, Senator DOLE, pulled his welfare reform bill 3 weeks ago, that, in my view, the bill pretended to be serious about work but ignored how children would fit into that equation.

At that point, I described the legislation as ''child care—less.'' There has been a lot of talk, obviously, in the past several weeks about a modified proposal. But as far as I can tell, not much has changed in the legislation.

The Republican proposal is still, as Senator KENNEDY has pointed out, a home alone bill. The Republican proposal amounts, in my view, to nothing more than a bitter taste for thousands of families across the country. You cannot throw a dab of budgetary so-called gravy on it and call it tasty or a success. It is just window dressing, Mr. President, and Americans simply, I think, will not take it.

The Republican proposal still imposes significant new work requirements without acknowledging that child care is essential if people are going to go to work. Funds previously designated for child care and child care only disappear.

I point out, on one of the charts that we have here, that in 1994, we designated $1 billion for child care assistance in our welfare reform programs. That was only done a year or so ago. The Dole bill, as presently crafted, as Senator KENNEDY pointed out a moment ago, takes that money previously earmarked for child care, lumps it into general welfare, a pool. One can argue that the States may decide to use those resources.

Let us assume, if you want to, that they may. But there is no requirement. They may decide to do something else with it. If you say we are going to insist that that $1 billion be left in the bill for child care, the fact is, that with the changes in the Dole bill we are going to increase the need for child care slots by 165 percent. So the $1 billion is going to be totally inadequate in order to meet this increased demand that we have. So it is not even going to come close to the demands that we will have on us. The bottom line here is that no money is guaranteed at all. Not a single penny is guaranteed here at all.

In fact, even under previous legislation, you had a requirement that States had to dedicate some of their own resources for child care. We even stripped that out of the bill. So there was no requirement there at all either. So we have taken out the Federal money, and the State requirement too. We have said that you have to go to work quickly, and we do not provide the resources to allow that to happen.

Let me quickly add that we are seeing add-ons or modifications now. We had the provision that was added that said if you had children under the age of 1, you would be exempted from the work requirement. Now, that has been raised to the age of 5. I appreciate the point of our colleague from Pennsylvania that that exemption only exists if child care is not available. The fact of the matter is, if you are on welfare and you do not have any dedicated resources, child care is de facto not going to be available.

A point I think that needs to be made here is that we need to remind ourselves what the essence of this bill is. That is, to try and get people to work. If we start exempting people because they have children under the age of 1 or 5—while I appreciate the motivations behind it—it is going to run counter to what we should be trying to do. Does that mean if you have three children above the age of 5 and one under, that you are exempt? Is that going to be an inducement to some families—at a time of trying to discourage more children, is it in fact going to be an inducement in some ways for people to have a child in order to avoid the work requirements? I would much rather see us stick with the criteria that you try and get people to work and then provide the child care for them. That, it seems to me, makes more sense and goes to the essence and heart of what we are trying to achieve, instead of trying to come up with an exemption for each age group here. I think we ought to be trying to assist these families to become self sufficient, independent, and to give them the resources to achieve those goals.

As we know right now, we have been told that as a result of no additional funds, we will have to find an $4.8 billion in the year 2000 just to meet the child care requirements. States would be required to spend totally, we are reminded, some $11 billion over the next 5 years.

Let me emphasize again that I think there is general consensus here that if there is one common theme in all of the various proposals that are being discussed regarding welfare reform it is that we want to get people to work. We are trying to figure out the best way to do that, the most efficient way to do it.

What those who agree with that proposition are suggesting is that if we are going to get people on public assistance to work, there are several things we have to do.

First, we have to see if they have the training and the education in order to meet the criteria of the job market, which is critically important. Second, we have to recognize the reality that almost everyone in the country understands; that is, it is difficult to get to work if you have young children and you have no place to leave them where they will be cared for and adequately protected.

That is an issue that everyone understands. You certainly do not have to be on welfare to understand that. As I said yesterday and the day before, every single family in this country whether two parents who work, or a single parent works, knows of the anxiety of child care.

Even if you have a good child care system today in place for your children, every week you wonder whether it will be there next week, and how much more it may cost. Will there be a problem for one reason or another?

Child care for working families with young children is an issue that everyone understands, regardless of their economic situation.

What I am suggesting here and what we successfully passed a few years ago, with the tremendous help of my colleague from Utah, Senator HATCH, in a very strong, bipartisan way, with the ultimate support of President Bush and the Bush administration, was the recognition that we need to have some support for child care, for families, as we try to move them into the workplace, and for the working poor.

What we are doing with this amendment is trying to come up with adequate resources that make it possible for the work requirements of this bill to become effective. If we are really going to get people from welfare to work, where two-thirds of these families have children that are very young, then you will have to deal with the child care issue.

That does not require any great leap of faith. It does not require a great understanding of the complexity of law. It merely states what everyone ought to be able to appreciate and understand. That is what we are trying to do with this amendment.

Now we are being told, as it stands right now, the Governors would have to come up with $4.8 billion in the year 2000. If we are going to just provide for the welfare recipients mandated under the home alone bill, if you are going to get to the year 2000, you will need a total amount of roughly $11 billion between now and then.

You can take out of the block grant $5 billion, but you have to come up with $6 billion more, roughly, to meet the criteria. Am I absolutely certain of the $6 billion? No, I am not. I am listening to a lot of people who spend a lot of time on these issues, and they tell me that is roughly the number. It could be somewhat less. But the point is, it is roughly in that ballpark if you are going to meet the work criteria.

Now, it is being suggested by the majority leader and others, rather than do that, why not just exempt these families that have very young children?

First, the proposal was under age 1. Now the proposal is up to 5 years.

My suggestion here is, rather than start exempting people with young children right and left, why not try to come up with the resources so we get back to the heart of the welfare proposals, and that is to make it possible for people to get to work? That seems to me to be a more logical step to take, rather than retreating from those obligations of work requirements.

So that is what we do with this amendment. We try to make it possible for that to happen. Otherwise, I do not know what these Governors are going to do. They do not have the resources, Mr. President. We are shifting the problem to them. We are saying, you come up with the resources or you face the penalties, because we have penalties in the bill. And if you do not get a certain percentage of your welfare recipients into the work force in the first year or two and then at a higher percentage a year or two after that, then there are penalties that we at the Federal Government levy on these States.

So what are the options? Either you do not get the child care, you do not get people to work, and then you have a penalty, which means you have to raise taxes to pay it; or you have to come up with $4.8 billion in 2000, or more over the next 5 years in one form of taxation or another.

Why not try to come up here with a means by which we make it possible for people to make that transition, so we get from the dependency on welfare to work by providing adequate child care for these children?

I have recommended here corporate welfare as an offset—I cannot identify choices specifically because then you end up with bill being transferred immediately to various committees. We have in the amendment—because the obvious question is how do you pay for it—a section. We asked people to look at corporate welfare. There is a lot in there. We talk about deductions and availability of certain things. There is a lot that exists. We have a tax proposal that is going to be submitted to us that calls for $250 billion in tax cuts, the bulk of which will go to upper-income families. If we would just modify that by $6 billion, I might add, or take a look at the literally billions of dollars that exist in corporate welfare and find $6 billion in order to achieve this desirable goal of getting people to work, it seems to me to be a modest request. I am confident that people who are committed to this will be able to find the resources over the next 5 years to do so.

This ought to be, in my view, an issue which people can gather around. We may disagree on other aspects of this bill, but I do not believe there ought to be the kind of partisan debate over child care, over coming up with the resources to make it possible for people to go to work and have their kids well taken care of. That is an issue everybody understands. As I said a moment ago, anybody who is at work today and has young children understands the problem, the worry, the concern, the anxiety that people have.

Frankly, with all due respect to those who have made the proposal of 1 year or 5 years, you have a child that is 5 years and 6 months, or 6 years old, 7 years old, you are not going to leave that child home alone and go to work. That is just unrealistic.

In fact, even when those children are in school, the great anxiety that parents have at 2 or 3 o'clock in the afternoon is hoping the child gets home safely. Look at the number of phone calls that get made at 3:30 and 4 o'clock when people are at work to find out whether or not that young child has made it home, and then worrying when they are home what happens to them. Who is watching them? What are they doing?

Again, I have to believe most of my colleagues understand these issues because they have certainly heard the general worry and concern outside of the welfare debate when it comes to the issue of care for children. It's obviously compared to the other things we do—my God, we come up with criteria for parking places. We take care of people's cars better. We have criteria for pets in this country to make sure they are not going to get harmed. All I am saying is what about our kids? In this day and age, we just increased the defense budget by $7 billion for next year, $7 billion more than the Pentagon wanted. That is $1 billion more than would take care of all the child care needs under the Dole bill for 5 years—for 5 years. One year of increased spending that was not asked for by the Pentagon.

In a just and fair society, with the tremendous and legitimate demand of the constituencies of this country that said we ought to get people off of welfare and to work, understanding the element of child care, we ought to be able to do that. And this ought to be a unanimous vote. There ought to be no great split here on that issue, and that is what I am offering with this amendment.

We can have, over the weekend, a talk about it. Staffs may meet. Maybe somebody will have some other ideas how we can fashion this to the satisfaction of everyone. I am not rigidly holding onto every dotted ''i'' and crossed ''t.'' If there are some other numbers people want to use, I am open to them. I am not looking for an acrimonious debate on this issue. I am just telling you flatout that a welfare reform bill that demands that people go to work and does not have a child care factor to it, an element to it to allow for that transition to occur, is just unworkable.

I promise that you can threaten families all you want, they are not going to abandon their children. They just will not do it. I do not care what income category, what part of the country you are talking about. These families are not going to walk out of the house and leave that child alone. We would condemn them if they did. You get arrested in parts of this country if you do it. We have had cases in Connecticut in recent times where people have gone to casinos and left children in parked cars. We arrest them. It is a headline story when it happens.

Does anyone think that we are going to have a law that requires that people go to work and leave their kids locked up in their houses, and that we are not going to have a sense of outrage about it? And we are then going to penalize those States because they have not met the criteria because people have refused to obey the law and leave their children alone? That is insanity. That does not make any sense at all.

So I do not know why people have so much difficulty with this concept. This ought to be a 20-minute debate, not a great source of controversy. If you do not understand the linkage between child care and welfare reform, then you do not have the vaguest notion about welfare and what needs to be done to make it work better.

So, Mr. President, I hope over the coming 2 or 3 days before we come back on Monday afternoon, that people will take a good look at this, come together, and see if we cannot either support this amendment or some modifications to it so it roughly will allow the Dole bill provisions to actually take effect and make it possible for these States to meet the criteria without raising taxes.

In the absence of doing it, you have the biggest unfunded mandate I have seen so far. It was S. 1, I think, the unfunded mandate bill, where we said you cannot put mandates on States without coming up with the resources so they do not have to raise their own taxes. Here we are going to have a mandate that you take your welfare recipients and put them to work or face penalties. That is an unfunded mandate if we do not help them provide the resources to meet those criteria that we are laying out in this legislation.

So, Mr. President, again, I thank my colleagues for listening here this afternoon. I know I have probably bored them over the years on this subject matter, going back 7 and 8 years ago when we started the child care debates. But I think most people recognize today—certainly the corporate community does. The business community has had tremendous sophistication in understanding its employees' needs. They understanding the value of productive workers and having good, adequate child care alleviates worries so those employees can pay full attention to their jobs. Every sector of our society seems to appreciate the relationship between people's worries about their children, the priorities that people place on their children and their children's needs and the simultaneous need to be a productive and successful worker.

As we now talk about getting people off public assistance and moving them into the work force for the benefit of everyone, most importantly that individual, the element of dealing with their young children is something that we have to take into consideration.

I think exempting the families, as appealing as that may be to some, confuses the issue rather than sticking to the point of trying to make it possible for people to get to work and help them stay there through an adequate and appropriate child care system or structure.

So with that, Mr. President I urge my colleagues to take a look at this. We will reengage the debate on Monday and hopefully come up with an adequate solution that will make it possible for all of us to begin to support the DOLE proposal on welfare reform.

I know, in speaking with others, that the administration is very interested in supporting a bill that will truly be a welfare reform bill. That is the strong desire of President Clinton. He wants to do it. He believes that can be done if an issue like this can be adequately addressed and several others. But this is certainly an important element in all of that.

With that, I thank my colleagues and I yield the floor.

SENATOR PACKWOOD'S RESIGNATION EFFECTIVE AS OF OCTOBER 1, 1995

Mr. DOLE. Mr. President, there have been a number of inquiries last night and today about when the resignation of Senator PACKWOOD would be effective. I think I can best answer that in the exchange of letters I have had with Senator PACKWOOD if my colleagues will permit me.

This is my letter to Senator PACKWOOD:

DEAR BOB: As I said on the Senate floor yesterday, it is my belief that you made the right and honorable decision to resign from the United States Senate.

Therefore, it is my recommendation that your resignation become effective no later than October 1, 1995. I would further recommend that you relinquish the Chairmanship of the Senate Committee on Finance effective today.

Mr. DOLE. Mr. President, I think that answers any questions anybody may have had.

FAMILY SELF-SUFFICIENCY ACT

The Senate continued with the consideration of the bill.

Mr. ASHCROFT. I thank the Senator from Connecticut. I am delighted to have this opportunity to make a few remarks and to offer two amendments to the Dole modified amendment for the welfare reform proposal.

Mr. President, the Dole modified amendment which is offered today is a substantial improvement, a very substantial and significant step toward the right kind of operation in terms of reforming welfare. I am pleased to see that the mechanism for delivering block grants—which was first recommended in the proposal I made on welfare reform called CIVIC, Senate bills 842, 843, 844 and 845, the proposal for delivering block grants directly from the Department of the Treasury to the States—is included and that will vastly reduce the Federal welfare bureaucracy, which I considered to be a bureaucratic tax upon the poor, and make resources available to the truly needy. It should limit Washington's interference in the States' welfare reform efforts.

As I have spoken many times on the floor, ending the micromanagement and intermeddling involvement of HHS to the extent possible, and giving States the opportunity to craft and shape welfare reform so that it meets the needs of the people in the States, is very important. We do need to replace the failed system of welfare which has been a Washington-run system, and the modified amendment proposed by Senator DOLE would help achieve this, in part, by adopting the proposal which is for direct block grants to the States that bypass much of the redtape of Washington.

Also, it is important that the Dole amendment includes an independent audit provision which will eliminate much of the Washington micromanagement and prevent funds from being consumed needlessly on bureaucratic oversight. Under this provision, States would supply to the Department of the Treasury audits conducted by independent auditors demonstrating their compliance and that block grant funds have been used properly in serving the needy populations.

I want to also say how pleased I am to see that the modified amendment includes a provision adapted from my welfare reform bill, which recognizes that Government programs alone will never solve all of our welfare needs. We have to allow States to involve a number of nongovernmental charitable organizations, including faith-based organizations, in serving the poor. Organizations like the Salvation Army and Boys and Girls Clubs are often more successful in serving people in need than are governmental institutions. We need to be able to tap these resources effectively. There is a character in the programs like the Boys and Girls Clubs and the Salvation Army that is important in meeting needs. It is a character associated with charity, which provides for a kind of compassion and caring that instills hope and aspiration in the lives of people.

The modified amendment includes very important provisions in this respect, which will ensure that such organizations that are selected to participate in meeting the needs of the poor are not forced to compromise their character. Furthermore, any person eligible for assistance who would be offended by going to one of these organizations to receive assistance would have an opportunity to receive alternative services from the state. There have been clear guidelines set to protect individual rights and to protect the rights of the organization.

While these are important provisions included in the modified Dole amendment, Mr. President, the modified amendment still I think needs adjustment and falls shorts of being a comprehensive welfare reform bill.

That is why I intend to send a pair of amendments to the desk which would broaden the bill to include block grants for two major welfare programs: Food stamps and supplemental security income, or the SSI program.

Block grants are essential for these programs because if you leave welfare partially open ended as entitlement programs, and partially block granted, there is a tendency on the part of jurisdictions to shift the welfare caseload from the areas which are block granted to the areas that are open ended and entitlements.

As a result, rather than controlling and managing welfare effectively, you just push from one area of the welfare population to another, move people from AFDC over to SSI. In some cases, that move would be far more expensive.

A single child on SSI gets $448 a month. There are AFDC programs which provide $200 or $300 a month, and a shift in that population would not be a reform at all in terms of cost containment, but a way of just dramatically increasing our welfare costs. As a matter of fact, it would make it very difficult for us to control costs.

In addition, when you have a program which has no limit on it, totally entitlement and totally federally funded, the incentives on the part of State and local instrumentalities to combat fraud and abuse are low. If we give the items in block grants to the States, the incentive to contain fraud and abuse, to detect it, to root it out of the system, is elevated.

Mr. President, fraud and abuse are rampant in the Food Stamp Program and SSI today because as the rolls grow, the money flows. There is no incentive to the welfare industry to reduce the problem. The only way we will be able to combat fraud and abuse is to give States the ability to design and enforce these programs and the incentive for them to limit the expenditures in these programs. I intend to send two amendments to the desk regarding SSI and food stamps.

Finally, Mr. President, I join today Senator COATS in introducing an amendment which also recognizes we must look beyond Government to solve the welfare problems. Specifically, we need to encourage people to get involved personally in helping the needy. Our amendment combines proposals which we have offered in the past to accomplish this goal. It would provide a nonrefundable tax credit to individuals who volunteer time as well as money to give to charitable organizations so that individuals who contributed at least 50 hours per year at nonprofit private or religious charitable organizations which serve the needy would be eligible for not just the tax deduction regarding a $500 contribution, but if they also have a $500 contribution, they would be eligible for a tax credit of up to $500.

Mr. President, let me emphasize that simply rearranging the deck chairs on the ''Welfare Titanic'' would be turning our backs on the most pressing issues facing our future. We must fundamentally reform the entirety of our welfare system.

We simply cannot tinker around the margins. We cannot afford to repeat the mistakes we made in the past. We must all admit that Government alone has failed miserably and will continue to fail.

We must, I believe, have these expanded block grants so we do not have a partial system of block grants which invites cost-shifting and does not provide incentives for fraud and abuse containment.

I believe we must invite a far broader band of our society to participate in meeting the needs of the needy, and for that reason we need to encourage involvement by a far broader group of individuals in society.

SEC. 506. APPLICATION OF TITLE TO CERTAIN BENEFICIARIES.

The provisions of, and amendments made by, this title shall not apply to any noncitizen who is lawfully present in the U.S. and receiving benefits under a program on the date of the enactment of this Act.

Mr. GRAHAM. Mr. President, I offered several amendments which I will explain in brief.

My first amendment would change the formula for distributing Federal welfare funds to the States.

I am offering this amendment with Senator DALE BUMPERS. I would ask for unanimous consent to add Senators BRYAN, MOSELEY-BRAUN, PRYOR, JOHNSTON, and REID as cosponsors.

In sum, our formula amendment would distribute funds under this bill on the basis of a State's number of children in poverty.

In the interest of time, I ask unanimous consent to have printed in the RECORD at this point a description of the Graham-Bumpers formula amendment. Thank you.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

GRAHAM-BUMPERS CHILDREN'S FAIR SHARE PROPOSAL

The Graham-Bumpers Children's Fair Share proposal allocates funding based on the number of poor children in each state.

The amendment would be needs based, adjusts for population and demographic changes, treats all poor children equitably does not permanently disadvantage states based on previous year's spending in a system that is being dismantled, and allows all states a more equitable chance at achieving the work requirements in S. 1120. The Graham-Bumpers Children's Fair Share measure would establish a fair, equitable and level playing field for poor children in America, regardless of where they live.

Disparities in funding would be narrowed in the short-run and eliminated over time—in sharp contrast to S. 1120.I11*Children's Fair Share Allocation Formula:* The Children's Fair Share formula would allocate funding based on a three-year average of the number of children in poverty. This information would come from the Bureau of the Census in its annual estimate through sampling data. With the latest data available, the Secretary would determine the state-by-state allocations and publish the data in the Federal Register on January 15 of every year.

Small State Minimum Allocation: For any State whose allocation was less than 0.6%, the minimum allocation would be set at the lesser of 0.6% of the total allocation or twice the actual FY 1994 expenditure level.

Allocation Increase Ceiling: For all states except those covered by the small state minimum allocation, the amount of the allocation would be restricted to increase not more than 50% over FY 1994 expenditure levels in the first year and to 50% increases for every subsequent year.

Final Adjustment to Minimize Adverse Impact: The savings from the ''allocation increase ceiling'' would exceed that for ''small state minimum allocation''. The net effect of these adjustments would be reallocated among the states who receive less than their FY 1994 actual expenditures.

Mr. GRAHAM. My second amendment addresses the issue of unfunded mandates. In the spirit of S. 1, the first bill of this session that will seek to limit unfunded mandates in the future, a bill which was passed with bipartisan support and signed into law by the President, I am offering an amendment to apply the principles of S. 1—the unfunded mandates bill—to the welfare reform bill.

My third amendment deals with the section of the Dole bill the calls for a ranking of States' compliance with the provisions of this bill. My thesis is that this ranking system would be inherently unfair, because of the disparate amounts that would flow to States under this bill. Therefore, if we're going to give the States a grade, my amendment would require the Secretary to take into account the number of poor children in each State.

My fourth amendment deals with the work-participation goals in the Dole bill. My amendment would allow those work goals to be modified, based on the amount of funding a State receives. My final amendment would allow legal aliens currently receiving benefits to continue to be eligible under this legislation.

Mr. SANTORUM addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. SMITH). The Senator from Pennsylvania is recognized.

Mr. SANTORUM. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the pending amendment be set aside.

Mr. DODD. Will my colleague yield for a second?

AMENDMENT NO. 2571 TO AMENDMENT 2280

''(B) HISTORIC STATE EXPENDITURES.—For purposes of this paragraph, the term 'historic State expenditures' means expenditures by a State under parts A and F of title IV for fiscal year 1994, as in effect during such fiscal year.

''(C) DETERMINATION OF STATE EXPENDITURES FOR PRECEDING FISCAL YEAR.—

''(i) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of this paragraph, the expenditures of a State under the State program funded under this part for a preceding fiscal year shall be equal to the sum of the State's expenditures under the program in the preceding fiscal year for—

Mr. SANTORUM. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that that amendment be set aside for later consideration.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

AMENDMENT NO. 2560

Mr. SANTORUM. Mr. President, seeing no other Senators present, I would like to respond to the comments of the Senator from Connecticut.

As I said, yesterday when I made comments on the issue of child care, I have sympathy for what he is talking about. I was a member of the Ways and Means Committee which last year worked on the Republican Task Force on Welfare and came up with a bill, H.R. 3,500, with the Senator from Massachusetts spoke to and came over and said we should adopt the Santorum bill over here from last session because indeed in the last session we introduced a bill that, as chairman of the task force, will provide more money for child care recognizing the need that if we are going to put people into work that we would in fact be required to come up with some more money for child care.

I say that under H.R. 3,500 we did not block grant the program. We did not give States the kind of flexibility that we do in this bill, and that Governors from across the country—as I said, yesterday, 80 percent of the people who are on welfare today are represented by Republican Governors. Those Governors have almost unanimously—I think there is one Governor so far that has not come out and endorsed this proposal—said that they are willing to take the allocation of resources provided in this bill and can in fact run programs that will put people to work and provide day care and the other support services that are necessary to get people into work.

So while we did provide money in that bill in the House, we did not provide the flexibility that the Governors wanted. They believe, as sort of the age-old tradeoff, as most Governors will tell you, if you are going to give us all these requirements give us the money to live with them. If you are going to give us responsibility, give us the flexibility and we will not need as much money.

That is pretty much the bottom line here. We believe we are actually able to provide more money overall if we give more flexibility to run the programs and not have the bureaucratic hoops to jump through here in Washington which cost a lot of money for the States to comply with. So that is one comment.

The other comment I would make is that in the programs that have in fact required work and in fact did put people into work. I cite the example of Riverside, CA, Grand Rapids, MI and Atlanta. In those programs where you had these work requirements you had substantial cost savings from the existing programs as a result of implementing this program.

You had I believe about a 15 percent reduction in food stamps, over 20 percent reduction in AFDC payments and over 25 percent reduction in AFDC caseload. So you got a lot of people off welfare who maybe should not have been on welfare in the first place and you had a reduction in the expenditures which that pool of resources could be used to provide the supplemental benefits that are necessary to put people to work. In fact, that is what was done in these experimental cities that I referenced.

So it is a matter of better targeting resources. It is not a matter that we have to keep putting up more and more money.

The final point I wanted to make on child care, and it is a sensitive one, is that I share the concern, and in fact I support the Snowe amendment which now is the modified Dole package which would provide for mothers who have children under 5 to be able to be exempted from the work requirement if they can demonstrate that they simply do not have child care available or the child care available is simply unaffordable under the circumstances that they are in.

I support that because I think we first have to make sure that before we create an entitlement for someone to get child care we have to make sure there are not any other sources of day care available. There are people on welfare who have parents and grandparents who can help provide day care for children, who have neighbors, who have other situations in which they can in fact find child care for their children without resorting to government entitlement. The government entitlement and the big concern I have with the Government entitlement is it becomes the first resort for day care, not the last, and that it becomes another program that just simply grows and grows and grows and we continue to break down the family, the need for parents and grandparents as we have done historically not just in this country, in every civilization known, to have parents and grandparents of the mother be able to be there and help provide for the extended family.

We can continue to say that is not as important, or the Government is going to take their place now, that the Government is going to be in there first to provide this day care. I think that is harmful. I do not think that should be the first resort. I think we should say that families should continue to work together and not look to the Government to provide day care for children. If you are going to have children, there should be a responsibility of not only the parents but the grandparents involved to be a participant in helping. And in fact that is what happens today in most cases in America.

If we create this entitlement, which is what has been talked about, I think we really potentially damage. Unintended as it may be, I think we damage the nucleus of the relationships of families in America, and the dependency which I think is so necessary between generations to hold families together.

The other point I would want to make on that is that if we provided an entitlement for mothers—and it is predominantly mothers—for mothers on welfare, we say if you go on welfare and then go to work under a work program, we will provide you day care, but if you do not go on welfare and you just are trying to make ends meet as a single mom, you are on your own, wow. What are we saying here? What are we saying to single mothers who are out there, as they are, in the millions today just trying to get kids to day care and get to work and not be late and get home on time and the rest, and we say if you get on welfare, we will make it easy for you; the Government will pay for it? What are we saying?

Mr. DODD. Will my colleague yield?

Mr. SANTORUM. I will be happy to yield.

Mr. DODD. It is an interesting point because presently we provide about 640,000 children in a program with assistance. What we need to talk about is not just people on welfare but people going to work at 125 percent or so of poverty. And there is a transition where people should start to contribute to their own child care needs.

I did not mention this in my remarks, but one of the dangers I think of what is going to happen here is that you have people working right now that are out there, they are getting help with their child care. If we are now going to say to the welfare recipient that you have got to go to work, and we are going to say, take what exists out there today, we may be taking care from some of the very people working right now, managing to stay at work because they are getting help with child care. They are going to be put into a second-class status because the person on welfare is going to utilize that dollar.

My colleague is correct. We have provided, not to any great extent, for some families to try and keep them off of welfare because even if you get off welfare, you have to stay off and staying off requires a bit of time so you can get up to a point where you can afford the rent. Setting aside health care and looking just at food, rent and so forth, average day care costs, private costs are $80, $100 a week, for the least expensive programs in many cases, and if you are pulling down something a bit above minimum wage that gets almost impossible.

So it is a good point, but it seems to me it does not necessarily argue against trying to get people off welfare and providing that transitional assistance. I think the Senator was making that point.

Mr. SANTORUM. I am not making the point that we should not provide child care for women who are on welfare who want to work. I am not saying we should not do that. The point I was making is I do not think we should create a guaranteed entitlement for it. There is a difference. The Senator mentioned in fact for working mothers today there is no entitlement to day care. There simply is not. We do, as the Senator mentioned, have some 600,000 people who are in need of day care assistance, that assistance, but it is a very tough program. You have to walk through the hoops to be able to qualify. You have to prove that there is no family or other kind of support necessary.

It is not easy to qualify. And even at that, even if you qualify, you are not guaranteed a slot.

Mr. DODD. Will my colleague yield on that point?

Mr. SANTORUM. Sure.

Mr. DODD. Just to make the case. We have no entitlement. This amendment is not an entitlement. There is no provision here saying that you are entitled to it. We have been told this is the rough amount of money—with the 165 percent increase under the Dole work provisions, this is the amount of money we have been told would be adequate to provide for child care. There is no entitlement here at all. In the past, I have argued for entitlement.

Mr. SANTORUM. The Senator has.

Mr. DODD. But not on this one. This is no entitlement.

Mr. SANTORUM. If you provide the amount of money that will be necessary to fully fund the program, in a sense you have not created an entitlement but you have created a slot for everyone.

Mr. DODD. Hopefully. But you do not have a right to go to court, as you do under an entitlement program, and say I have met the criteria; therefore, you must provide me.

Mr. SANTORUM. I think that is a distinction without a difference.

Mr. DODD. That is an entitlement program.

Mr. SANTORUM. OK. Then if we are going to provide sufficient money for everyone to get child care as a first resort and a last resort, while it may not be an entitlement, it has in effect the same consequence which is everyone will have a day care slot, and that is a Federal day care slot which I think is a dangerous precedent and a counterproductive one.

Again, I want to emphasize that I think through the Snowe amendment we are going to without a doubt encourage States—and I think a lot of States would do this without our encouragement—encourage States to move forward and to provide day care support for working single parents. And I will go through that rationale again. I think it is important.

Under the Dole provision, we are going to require eventually 50 percent of all people who participate in this program, the welfare program, 50 percent will have to be in the work program. There will be a substantial number, roughly a third is usually the number, a third considered to be incapacitated, disabled, whatever the term you want to use, who will never be in a work program because of either their own incapacity or disability of a child that would make that parent really ineligible to have to leave that child and go to work.

So you are setting aside a third that you pretty well know are not ever going to be in that program. So you have 50 percent of the whole thing and again a third of that is gone, so you have a pretty good chunk of the remaining caseload that are going to be required to work.

If you say that single parents are going to be required to work irrespective of the age of the child, so they are going to be in the denominator of the equation, but they are not required to work if they can demonstrate that child care is not available to them—and again the State will set the criteria—that means they are not going to be in the enumerator, and if you have a pool here of roughly 67 percent of the whole group, and you have to get 50 percent to work, you have a pretty slim margin to work with to exclude people because they cannot get day care.

So what you are going to do is to meet your 50 percent number the State really is going to be forced to go out and provide day care opportunities for younger mothers, and I think that is what we want to do. We want to make sure that as efficiently as possible we can direct the States to in effect go out and provide those dollars.

So we think we have gotten around the problem without getting into the—I will not use the term entitlement because it is not entitlement—without getting used to, I would say, the guaranteed slot that is being provided for in the Dodd amendment, however well-intentioned I think—I know the Senator from Connecticut has been a champion in trying to expand the number of day care guarantees for parents. However well-intentioned that is, I do not think that is the right direction we should be taking at this time.

Mr. DODD. If my colleague will yield for just one more point, I appreciate his concerns, and I was not aware of his efforts in the previous Congress in the other body with H.R. 3500, with the Senator's own welfare reform and child care proposals, but I will take a look at them. Maybe I will offer that as an amendment, the Santorum bill—

Mr. SANTORUM. Do not put me on the spot.

Mr. DODD. From the previous Congress. I just raise this because it is a good point. States under the Dole proposals I suspect—I am sure they are going to be wanting to do what they can in child care, but I suspect they are also going to weigh the cost of doing that, through whatever mechanism they have to do it, either by cutting spending in other areas or raising taxes, and the penalties imposed upon them if they do not meet the criteria of the legislation regarding a certain percentage of the welfare recipients going to work. They will decide which they would rather do, pay the penalty, which I presume would be lower—I do not know exactly, but I suspect it is lower than what it would be to come up with the resources to see to it that the welfare recipient makes the transition. That is one of my concerns here. So we will end up with States paying the penalties in some cases because it is cheaper to pay the penalties than it is to meet that criteria, or that race to the bottom approach where they will say: Look, we are going to lower this thing so that people will not stay around in this State and they will find some other State, Pennsylvania, New Hampshire, some other place to go to, so you will have a competition as to who will get this thing done and we have another national problem.

Mr. SANTORUM. I would say to the Senator again in the Dole bill as recently modified there is a provision that States have to do 75 percent maintenance of effort over 3 years. There really is no attempt to race to the bottom. I do not know how many States are going to be willing to sort of give back dollars as opposed to reallocating existing dollars.

We are not really asking to spend more money. We are telling them to reallocate dollars to child care, to implement the work program. And that is not costing them any Federal funds to do that. If they violate and suffer penalties, they will lose Federal dollars. And that is a pretty powerful incentive, I think. I will get those numbers as to what the penalties will be.

Mr. DODD. Yes.

Mr. SANTORUM. I think it is important to look. If, in fact, we see the penalties are not particularly stiff, I would look at dealing with that down the road.

I thank the Senator.

Mr. DODD. I thank the Senator.

Mr. JEFFORDS addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Vermont.

AMENDMENT NO. 2581 TO AMENDMENT NO. 2280

''(4) INDIAN, INDIAN TRIBE, AND TRIBAL ORGANIZATION.—

''(A) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in subparagraph (B), the terms 'Indian', 'Indian tribe', and 'tribal organization' have the meaning given such terms by section 4 of the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act (25 U.S.C. 450b).

''(viii) Aleutian and Pribilof Island Association,

''(ix) Chugachmuit,

''(xi) Kodiak Area Native Association, and

''(xii) Copper River Native Association.

Mr. STEVENS. I want to make a brief explanation of this amendment. I hope it will be adopted as a technical amendment. I have provided a copy to each side.

I think this is a necessary change in the provision that is in the Dole amendment dealing with Indians, Indian tribes and tribal organizations. It will provide in Alaska there be a specific regional framework for block granting welfare funds. We think that is necessary to meet the circumstances of our State. After all, it is one-fifth the size of the United States.

The administrative costs of just having the welfare assistance programs administered from Juneau are almost the same as administering the whole east coast of the United States from Washington, DC. It is something we are trying to get away from through block granting.

This amendment would apply only to Alaska and specify that there are 12 Alaska Native regional nonprofit corporations that are the only native organizations in Alaska which would be eligible to receive family subsistence block grants directly under the concepts of this bill. I think that this will limit the eligible organizations. There are some 170 different organizations that would be entitled otherwise if we would block grant directly to those organizations.

We prefer to do it on a regional basis to keep administrative costs to a minimum and it is my hope that having decided to do this, if it is approved by Congress, that within each region the regional nonprofits themselves will work with the villages so that these moneys can be administered with the very least administrative costs and will not be spending money on people flying planes or going to visit these individual areas from far distant places. Let the people of the area determine what the basic family assistance money should be used for.

It is consistent with the law. We are not changing the law at all. It merely changes the concept of the tribal organization that is specified in the previous subsection (a) of subsection 4, which is the Indian tribe and tribal organization section. I am hopeful that it will be accepted as a technical amendment.

I ask that the amendment be set aside temporarily until there is a report from the two sides.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

(The text of the amendment is printed in today's RECORD under ''Amendments Submitted.'')

Mr. SANTORUM. I ask unanimous consent that the amendment be set aside for later consideration.

Mr. LAUTENBERG. Mr. President, I rise in strong opposition to the Dole-Packwood welfare reform bill.

Mr. President, we live in the greatest nation on Earth. We are the wealthiest country in the world. But it is clear that some in our society do not share in this wealth. They are poor. They are jobless and in some cases homeless. And they must rely on public assistance to survive. In America, this is unacceptable. And we should be committed to improving their lives.

Mr. President, there is no question that the current welfare system needs reform. But the central goal for any welfare reform bill should be to move welfare recipients into productive work.

This will only happen if we provide welfare recipients with education and job training to prepare them for employment. It will only happen if we provide families with affordable child care. It will only happen if we can place them into jobs, preferably in the private sector or—as a last resort—in community service.

But the Dole-Packwood bill is not designed to help welfare recipients get on their feet and go to work. It is only designed to cut programs—pure and simple.

It is designed to take money from the poor so that Republicans can provide huge tax cuts for the rich. That is what is really going on here!

Unfortunately, Mr. President, the radical experiment proposed in this legislation will inflict problems on our society while producing defenseless victims. Those victims are not represented in the Senate offices. They are not here lobbying against this bill. They do not even know they are at risk.

The victims will be America's children. And there will be millions of them.

Mr. President, the AFDC Program provides a safety net for 9 million children. These young people are innocent. They did not ask to be born into poverty. And they do not deserve to be punished.

These children are African-American, Hispanic, Asian, and white. They live in urban areas and rural areas. But, most importantly, they are American children. And we as a Nation have a responsibility to provide them with a safety net.

The children we are talking about are desperately poor, Mr. President, They are not living high off the hog. These kids live in poverty.

Consider the following:

The median AFDC grant for a family of three is $366 per month. This is the same amount a Member of Congress makes in one day; $366 per month does not buy much these days. As a matter of fact, it gets a family of three to 38 percent of the Federal poverty level.

Mr. President, this is the median. Consider the conditions some children live under in certain States.

In Mississippi, the maximum a family of three can receive is $120 per month. This will get a family to 13 percent of the poverty level.

In Texas, the maximum a family of three can receive is $184 per month. This will get a family to 19 percent of the poverty level.

Mr. President, it is hard for many of us to appreciate what life is like for the 9 million children who live in poverty and who benefit from AFDC.

I grew up to a working class family in Paterson, NJ, in the heart of the Depression. Times were tough. And I learned all too well what it meant to struggle economically.

But as bad as things were for my own family, they still were not as bad as for millions of today's children.

These are children who are not always sure whether they will get their next meal. Not always sure that they will have a roof over their heads. Not always sure they will get the health care they need.

Mr. President, these children are vulnerable. They are living on the edge of homelessness and hunger. And they did not do anything to deserve this fate.

Mr. President, if we are serious about reforming a program that keeps these children afloat, we will not adopt a radical proposal like the Dole-Packwood bill. We will not put millions of American children at risk. And we will not simply give a blank check to States and throw up our hands.

Mr. President, this Republican bill is not a serious policy document. It is a budget document. It's a down payment on a Republican tax cut that targets huge benefits for millionaires and other wealthy Americans. A tax cut that, as passed by the House, would provide $20,000 to those who make $350,000 per year.

Mr. President, if the Republicans were serious about improving opportunities for those on welfare, they would be talking about increasing our commitment to education and job training. In fact, only last year, the House Republican welfare reform bill, authored in part by Senator SANTORUM, would have increased spending on education and training by $10 billion.

This year, by contrast, the House Republican welfare bill actually cuts $65 billion, including huge reductions in education and training.

So what has changed? The answer is simple. This year, the Republicans need the money for their tax cuts for the rich.

Mr. President, shifting our welfare system to 50 State bureaucracies may give Congress more money to provide tax cuts. But it is not going to solve the serious problems facing our welfare system, or the people it serves.

To really reform welfare, Mr. President, we first must emphasize a very basic American value: the value of work.

We should expect recipients to work. In fact, we should demand that they work, if they can.

Of course, Mr. President, that kind of emphasis on work is important. But it is not enough. We also have to help people get the skills they need to get a job in the private sector. I am not talking about handouts.

I am talking about teaching people to read. Teaching people how to run a cash register or a computer. Teaching people what it takes to be self-sufficient in today's economy.

We also have to provide child care.

Mr. President, how is a woman with several young children supposed to find a job if she can not find someone to take care of her kids? It is simply impossible. There is just no point in pretending otherwise.

Unfortunately, the Dole-Packwood bill does not even begin to address these kind of needs. It does not even try to promote work. It does not even try to give people job training. It does not even try to provide child care.

All it does is throw up its hands and ship the program to the States. That is it.

Mr. President, that is not real welfare reform. It is simply passing the buck to save a buck. And who's going to get the buck that's saved? The people the Republicans really care about: the rich.

Mr. President, if we are serious about welfare reform, I would suggest that we start with adopting provisions that were contained in the ''Work First'' alternative developed by Senators DASCHLE, BREAUX, and MIKULSKI. Unlike the Dole-Packwood bill, this proposal addresses the real problems facing our welfare system.

It emphasizes moving people into productive work by providing education, training, child care, and health care for those who leave the welfare rolls. And after 2 years, recipients would have to work, either in the private sector or in community service.

It provides flexibility for States to run welfare experiments, while preserving the Federal commitment to poor children.

It encourages families to stay together and discourages teen pregnancy.

It contains tough new measures to better collect child support.

Finally, it makes savings in the Food Stamp and SSI Programs by cracking down on waste, fraud, and abuse.

This is a much preferable approach to welfare reform, Mr. President. It emphasizes work and protects the safety net for children. It is the type of balance we need to truly reform our welfare system.

Therefore, I will work with my colleagues to try to improve this Dole-Packwood bill through amendments.

Mr. President, we have an enormous opportunity to improve the welfare system. President Clinton has made welfare reform a priority, and the American people are demanding action.

But to do the job right, we are going to have to work on a bipartisan basis. That means that my Republican colleagues will have to sit down with Senate Democrats and the administration and produce a balanced reform bill. A bill that protects children. And a bill that promotes work.

Mr. President, there is a precedent for such a bipartisan effort, and it can happen again. In 1988, the Senate passed the Family Support Act which provided funds for States to train AFDC recipients so that they could move permanently into the work force.

We passed that legislation by a vote of 96 to 1 when the Democrats controlled both Houses of Congress. It was signed by President Reagan. And you know who attended the bill signing ceremony at the White House? Then-Gov. Bill Clinton.

I would hope that we could repeat this kind of bipartisanship. But to do so, we are going to have to move well beyond budget-driven proposals that simply shift the welfare problem to the States, and that threaten millions of children in the process.

So I would strongly urge my colleagues to reject the Dole-Packwood bill. Let us reform our welfare system. But let us do it right.

TRIBAL BLOCK GRANTS AND WELFARE REFORM

Mr. MCCAIN. Mr. President, I rise in strong support of the Indian provisions contained in the Dole substitute to H.R. 4, the Work Opportunity Act of 1995. I commend the distinguished majority leader, Senator DOLE, and the chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, Senator PACKWOOD, for their efforts to overhaul our Nation's welfare system and for including provisions which responsibly address the unique needs and requirements of Indian country. Senators DOLE and PACKWOOD have taken great care to draft a welfare plan that effects real change in a system that is greatly in need of repair while ensuring that all citizens, including our Nation's Indian population, receive equitable access to necessary welfare assistance. It is important to point out that the Dole substitute bill honors in many practical ways the special relationship that the United States has with Indian tribal governments.

Clearly, our welfare system has failed to meet its goals. Dependency is the off-spring of the current welfare system. In order to foster independence, we must completely replace the welfare system that breeds this dependency.

Let me put it plain and simple—the great social programs of the past have failed American Indians as much or even more than they have failed the rest of America's citizens. These programs have failed Indians because they have largely ignored the existence of Indian tribal governments and the unique needs and of the Indian population. Recent attempts to fix this problem have been like placing a band-aid on a gaping wound. Under existing programs, Indians remain the worst-off and yet benefit the least. If we are to truly reform welfare then we cannot ignore Indians, who year-after-year rank the highest in poverty and unemployment.

I believe that the Dole substitute bill promises greater hope for Indians because it allows their own tribal governments to serve Indians now living in poverty. It empowers tribes themselves to assist in ending the welfare dependency often created by existing programs by placing resources necessary to fight local welfare problems into the hands of local tribal governments. Mr. President, I believe this bill demonstrates a real commitment to ending welfare as Indians have known it. As I have said on many occasions, our successes as a nation should be measured by the impact that we have made in the lives of our most vulnerable citizens—American Indians.

Early in the 104th Congress, the Senate Committee on Indian Affairs held several hearings on the potential impact to Indians of various welfare reform proposals such as block grants. During these hearings, tribal leaders spoke out in strong favor of direct Federal funding which would allow tribal governments flexibility in administering local welfare assistance programs and stated their hopes of receiving no less authority than the Congress chooses to give to State governments in this regard. The committee also received testimony from the Inspector General of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services who testified to how poorly Indians fare under block grants as currently administered by State governments. In response to the record adduced at these hearings, the Indian Affairs Committee developed provisions for direct, block grant funding to tribal governments which are now contained in the Dole substitute bill. These provisions reflect the efforts of many members on both the Indian Affairs and Finance Committees, and to them I express my gratitude.

Let me take several minutes to explain the Indian provisions related to temporary assistance for needy families contained in the leader's bill and the goals and purposes of those governments. In general terms, the bill authorizes Indian governments, like State governments, to receive direct Federal funding to design and administer local tribal welfare programs. Let me be clear—an Indian tribe retains the complete freedom to choose whether or not it will exercise this authority. If it does not, the State retains the authority and the funds it otherwise has under the Dole substitute bill.

Section 402(b) requires a State to certify, as it does with several other important Federal priorities, that it will provide equitable access to Indians not covered by a tribal plan. This provision expressly recognizes the Federal Government's trust responsibility to, and government-to-government relationship with Indian tribes.

Section 402(d) provides standard definitions of the terms ''Indian'', ''Indian tribe'', and ''tribal organization'' in order to clarify the respective limits of State and tribal government responsibilities under the bill.

Section 403(a) establishes the method by which tribal plans are funded, basing tribal grants on the amount attributable to Federal funds spent by a State in fiscal year 1994 on Indian families residing in the service area of an approved tribal plan. Under this Section, States are given advance notice before the tribal grant amounts are deducted from their quarterly payment. Once deducted, the State has no responsibility under the bill for those Indian families and service areas so identified in an approved tribal plan.

Section 403(e) provides that the secretary shall continue to provide direct funding, for fiscal years 1996 through 2000, to those Indian tribes or tribal organizations who conducted a job opportunities and basic skills training program in fiscal year 1995, in an amount equal to the amount received by such tribal JOBS programs in fiscal year 1995.

Section 404(b)(4) provides that a state may, at its option, count those Indian families receiving assistance under a tribal family assistance plan as part of the calculation of a State's monthly participation rates in accordance with paragraphs (1)(B) and (2)(B) of section 404.

Section 414 is the main Indian provision setting forth the basic authority for tribal direct funding and the express requirements of tribal family assistance plans. It requires the Secretary to make direct funding available to Indian tribes exercising this option in order to strengthen and enhance the control and flexibility of local governments over local programs, consistent with well-settled principles of Indian self-determination. In particular, section 414(a) describes how the goals of welfare reform pursued under this bill and the goals of Indian self-determination and self-governance authorized under separate authority are consistent. Section 414(b) establishes the methodology for funding an approved tribal family assistance plan, including the use of data submitted by State and tribal governments. This provision anticipates that the data involved is already collected or the added burden of data collection required will be de minimus. Section 414(c) provides that in order to be eligible to receive direct funding, an Indian tribe must submit a 3-year family assistance plan. Each approved plan must outline the tribe's approach to providing welfare-related services consistent with the purposes of this section. Each plan must specify whether the services provided by the tribe will be provided through agreements, contracts, or compacts with intertribal consortia, States, or other entities. This allows small tribes to join with other tribes in order to economize on administrative costs and pool their talents to address their common problems. Each plan must identify with specificity the population and service area or areas which the tribe will serve. This requirement is designed to ensure that there is no overlap in service administration and to provide a clear outline to affected State administrations of the boundaries of their responsibilities under the Act. Each plan must also provide guarantees that tribal administration of the plan will not result in families receiving duplicative assistance from other State or tribal programs funded under this part. Each plan must identify employment opportunities in or near the service area of the tribe and the manner in which the tribe will cooperate and participate in enhancing such opportunities for recipients of assistance under the plan consistent with any applicable State standards. And finally, each plan must apply fiscal accounting principles in accordance with chapter 75 of title 31, United States Code. This last requirement is consistent with other Federal authority governing the administration by tribes and tribal organizations of similar block grant programs under authority of the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act of 1975, as amended. Section 414(d) requires the establishment of minimum work participation requirements, time limits on receipt of welfare-related services, and individual penalties consistent with the purposes of this section and the economic conditions of a tribe's service area and the availability to a tribe of other employment-related resources. These restrictions must be developed with the full participation of the tribes and tribal organizations, and must be similar to comparable provisions in Section 404(d). The remaining provisions of Section 414 further ensure that funding accountability will be maintained by tribes and tribal organizations in administering funds under an approved tribal family assistance plan.

The funds provided to a tribe under section 414 are deducted from the State allocation, but only after advance notice to the State. Having lost the Federal support for temporary assistance to needy Indian families in a tribal plan's service area, the State no longer has any responsibility under the bill for those families. The Indian Affairs Committee has been informed by various State representatives that it is administratively more difficult and costly for States to provide services to Indians who reside in remote locations of their States. While these States acknowledge a responsibility to provide services, circumstances such as geographic isolation make it more difficult to do so. States are, therefore, well-served by these provisions, because if Indian families in a geographical area are identified in an approved and funded tribal plan, a State government no longer has the responsibility to serve those families unless the tribe and the State agree otherwise.

Some tribal representatives have pointed out that some tribes may choose not to exercise the option to administer a tribal plan, because the bill does not require a State to provide State funding to supplement the Federal funding provided to a tribe. As originally drafted, the Indian provisions expressly permitted States to agree to provide State funding or services to an Indian tribe with an approved plan in order to maintain equitable services. It is my understanding that this language was deleted because other provisions in the bill provide sufficient guarantees that States will ensure the delivery of equitable services. But under the bill's current provisions, a State is not prohibited from entering into an agreement with a tribe for the transfer of State funds or the provision of specific State services to a tribe for the benefit of Indians within that State. Indeed, a State government may choose to enter into an agreement with a tribal government to induce the tribe to take over administration of these programs, and one of the inducements could be a transfer of State funds to the tribe that would otherwise have been used by the State to serve those who would now be served under the tribal plan. If State administrators are sincere about making real progress on welfare reform, and I think they are, I expect they will act responsibly and sensitively with tribes that wish to join the State in administering programs that end welfare dependency.

Mr. President, it is important to point out that these Indian provisions are consistent with the purposes of the Dole substitute bill. They do not seek to circumvent these purposes nor give preferable treatment to Indian tribal governments. The tribal plans remain subject to minimum requirements and penalties similar to those applied to State governments. The Dole substitute also requires a tribe to comply with the fiscal accountability requirements of chapter 75 of title 31, United States Code and the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act of 1975, as amended. I would also submit that giving tribal governments the authority to administer a tribal welfare program is consistent with our goal of empowering local government control over local programs. It only stands to reason that, like States, Indian tribal governments are most familiar with the problems that plague their local communities.

Many of my colleagues in the Senate know that some Indian tribal governments may not have existing capacity or infrastructure to administer complex welfare programs. Consequently, the Dole substitute bill includes provisions authorizing tribes to enter into cooperative agreements with States or other tribal governments for the provision of welfare assistance. This will allow small tribes to join with other tribes in order to economize on administrative costs and pool their talents and resources to address their common problems. However, I believe it is very important to permit and encourage those Indian tribal governments that do possess such capacity to participate in these new welfare initiatives by addressing welfare issues at a local level.

It should go without saying that any State may enter into any agreement it chooses with a tribe for the transfer of State funds to that tribe for the purpose of administering a welfare program that benefits Indians within that State. In my view, it is in both a State and tribe's best interest to work out supplemental agreements for funding and services where necessary because to do otherwise could undermine the goals of the bill.

I know that many Members in this body are aware that Indian Country has historically been plagued by high unemployment and therefore its residents suffer from extremely high poverty rates. Therefore, I was pleased to learn that the Finance Committee Chairman drafted provisions that enable Indian tribes that are currently administering tribal JOBS programs to continue to do so. Section 403 of the Dole substitute provides that the Secretary shall provide direct funding in an amount equal to the amount received by the existing tribal JOBS programs in fiscal year 1995. By keeping the JOBS programs in Indian country intact, we will acknowledge the positive impact it has made in the lives of thousands of Indians. Indians residing in communities where a tribal JOBS program is in operation have experienced a new sense of hope by developing basic job skills that have helped them to secure stable job opportunities both on and off the reservation. The Dole substitute bill also contains provisions in titles VI and VIII which provide continuing resources for programs that have proven successful in Indian country, such as the Child Care and Development Block Program as well as new programs that are critical to ending the high Indian unemployment rates such as the proposed workforce development and training activities. These provisions, along with the JOBS component will greatly assist in helping Indian country contribute to the goals of welfare reform and the purposes of the act.

Mr. President, I believe it is important to point out that with passage of these provisions in the Dole substitute bill the Senate will discharge some of its continuing responsibilities under the U.S. Constitution—the very foundation of our treaty, trust, and legal relationship with the Nation's Indian tribes, and which vests the Congress with plenary power over Indian affairs. I was deeply troubled to learn that H.R. 4, as passed by the House, did not address the unique status of Indian tribal governments or the trust responsibility of the Federal Government to the Indian tribes. There was no House debate on the status of the welfare state on many Indian reservations nor the impact that the proposed changes to welfare programs would have on access to services already in existence in Indian country. Nor was there any mention made in the House welfare debate of the significant legal and trust responsibility that the Federal Government has to the Indian tribes. Therefore, it is extremely important that the Senate do so. to do otherwise would be to abrogate our responsibilities. I was pleased to learn that the distinguished chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee has acknowledged with some regret the failure of the House to address the Indian issues and has given his assurance to address this oversight during conference on the bill.

As the chairman of the Indian Affairs Committee, I feel it is my responsibility to take a moment to briefly expand my remarks to a discussion of the responsibilities of the Congress toward Indians under the U.S. Constitution. The Constitution provides that the Congress has plenary power to prescribe Federal Indian policy. These powers are provided for pursuant to the Commerce and the Treaty Power clauses. Sadly, over the last two centuries, the Congress has poorly exercised its power and responsibility—subjecting Indian tribal governments to inconsistent or contradictory policies—policies of termination and assimilation. These policies have served to weaken well established Indian systems of government and, in my view, have greatly contributed to the welfare state that exists today on most Indian reservations.

I know that time and time again, I have stood on this floor to recite grim statistics revealing that Indians are, and consistently remain—even in 1995—the poorest of the poor and always the last to benefit. Today, I will withhold from reciting that data because I believe that this bill begins to turn the tide in this Nation's treatment of Indians and their tribal governments. Similar to the unfunded mandates bill we enacted into law earlier their year, the Dole substitute bill under consideration will treat tribal governments like State governments by allowing them the flexibility and authority to directly administer their own programs free of Federal bureaucratic intrusion and control. Due in large part to the leadership of the late President Nixon, the Congress for more than two decades have responsibly exercised its plenary authority by replacing the distorted and dismal policy of termination of Indian tribal governments with empowering policies of tribal self-determination and self-governance—policies that respect and honor the government-to-government relationship between the Federal Government and the Indian tribes—policies that are consistent with the Federal trust responsibility and that set a new course of fairness in the Federal Government's dealings with Indian tribal governments.

Given the renewed commitment by Congress to deal fairly with the Indian tribes, I fully understood why many tribal leaders became concerned when the Congress earlier this year began moving toward a system of block grants to States. The concerns were that if the Congress did not revise the block grant model to reflect its responsibility to Indian tribal governments, the government-to-government relationship between the tribes and the United States would be soon eroded and the Federal trust responsibility held sacred in our Constitution and the decisions of our Supreme Court would be relegated to the States.

These tribal concerns are likewise valid in a practical sense. A Federal Inspector General's report issued in August 1994 found that Federal block grants to States, in some instances have not resulted in equitable services being provided to Indians. That report found that in 15 of the 24 States with the largest Indian populations, eligible Indian tribes did not receive funds even though Indian population figures were used to justify the State's receipt of Federal funding. In addition, findings of the Senate Committee on Indian Affairs revealed that even when States were attempting to serve Indians, the programmatic and administrative costs of providing welfare services to Indians are often greater than providing local services to others. What these findings revealed to me is that when either the Federal or State governments have administered programs for Indians, Indians have not received an equitable share of services.

Mr. President, the whole purpose of welfare reform is to provide the tools to State governments to design and administer local welfare programs. After all, we have come to understand that local governments want and have the ability to create local solutions to address what are, in essence, local problems. I would suggest that this policy is no different than the Federal Indian policies of tribal self-determination and self-governance. I also know that elected tribal officials have a great love of country and an incredible desire to contribute to the Nation's goal of elevating members of their communities out of the depths of poverty. Given the tools to do so, I believe that Indian tribes will make great contribution to the Nation's war on poverty.

Mr. President, before I conclude my remarks, I would like to acknowledge a group of Senators that I believe have demonstrated a great level of understanding and commitment to the importance of addressing the needs of Indian tribes in the Nation's welfare reform movement. Senators HATCH, INOUYE, DOMENICI, SIMON, MURKOWSKI, PRESSLER, CAMPBELL, and KASSEBAUM have contributed to ensuring that Indian tribes are not overlooked and abandoned in the current welfare reform efforts.

Two members of the Indian Affairs Committee deserve particular recognition: my good friend from Kansas, Senator NANCY LANDON KASSEBAUM and my good friend from Utah, Senator ORRIN HATCH. Senator KASSEBAUM, as chairwoman of the Labor and Human Resources Committee, worked closely with the Indian Affairs Committee and Senator SIMON to ensure that provisions for direct Federal funding would be available to Indian tribes in her committee's employment consolidation bill and that tribes would continue to receive funding through the Child Care and Development Block Grant Program. Senator KASSEBAUM'S leadership has greatly contributed to the fairness with which Indian tribes are treated under H.R. 4 and the progress that has been made by the Congress in its treatment of Indian tribes.

I want to give particular thanks to my good friend from Utah, Senator ORRIN HATCH. Senator HATCH has worked tirelessly with me over the last several months to shape and enhance tribal welfare provisions that could be acceptable in any welfare reform plan. Senator HATCH is a member of the Senate Finance Committee and he is a new member of the Senate Committee on Indian Affairs. He has demonstrated a great level of understanding and commitment to the betterment of the lives of Indian people, and I commend Senator HATCH for his steadfast leadership in ensuring that Indian tribal governments are fairly treated in the welfare reform debate.

Mr. President, I understand that other major welfare reform proposals make an effort to similarly address the needs of Indian tribes. While I have placed my full support behind the provisions of H.R. 4 related to Indian tribal governments, I want to make sure to recognize the attention that has been paid and the work that has been done on behalf of Indian tribal governments by my colleague so the other side of the aisle. For example, I know that S. 1117 would have provided a 3-percent allocation of funds to Indian tribes under the JOBS Program and would have authorized new funding for teen pregnancy prevention and for teen parent group homes, and like the Dole substitute bill, provides continued funding for child care and development block grants to tribes.

The spirit in which the Senate has acted has adhered to a principle that I believe should guide the Congress in matters of Indian affairs: Indian issues are neither Republican, nor Democratic. They are not even bipartisan issues—they are nonpartisan issues. They are day-to-day human issues which call for a level of understanding on both sides of the aisle. While this body is not in total agreement with just how to reform welfare, the one thing we all agree upon is that whatever new form this Nation's welfare system takes, providing equal access to the Nation's Indian population is not only the right thing to do, it honorably discharges some of our continuing responsibilities under the U.S. Constitution.

SENATE ETHICS COMMITTEE PERFORMED WITH HONOR

Mr. BYRD. Mr. President, one definition given for the word ''ethics'' by the Random House Dictionary is—and I quote—''The branch of philosophy dealing with values relating to human conduct, with respect to the rightness and wrongness of certain actions and to the goodness and badness of the motives and ends of such actions.''

Members of this body who are called to service on the Ethics Committee are asked to make judgments quite unlike the judgments required by service on any other committee of the Senate. These individuals are called upon to grapple not only with public policy and legal and constitutional questions, but also with the deeper philosophical questions which have confronted the human race since Adam and Eve found themselves tempted in the Garden—namely ''the rightness and wrongness of certain actions'' by their own colleagues. There is no more daunting task than this.

To be asked to sit in judgment of another's actions and motives is, in one sense, an honor, but it is also an humbling experience for those who are so honored to sit in judgment. And with that charge must come the certain inner realization that no one among us is without fault, that none of us is free from errors in judgment, weakness, and at times failings of character. Such task is made all the more difficult in a body such as this, where politics too easily intrudes, and where friendships developed over long years can cloud one's objectivity.

I am deeply saddened by the tragedy that has befallen our colleague, Senator PACKWOOD. However, he has done the right thing in choosing to spare the Senate further agony over his fate. Although this experience has been difficult for all concerned, one thing is clear. The Senate Ethics Committee has again performed its most arduous function with honor, thoroughness and professionalism. I commend the chairman of the committee, Senator MCCONNELL, vice chairman, Senator BRYAN, Senator MIKULSKI, Senator SMITH, Senator DORGAN, and Senator CRAIG for their handling of this extremely contentious matter. I commend the very professional staff of the Ethics Committee for their diligent work stretching over some 2½ years. I understand that the staff read 16,000 pages of documents, spent approximately 1,000 hours in meetings and interviewed over 260 witnesses during the investigation of this matter. That staff has served the Senate well.

We live in times which are, unfortunately, more politically charged and ruthlessly partisan than I have ever witnessed in my tenure in the Senate. And it is nothing short of amazing that the Ethics Committee, evenly split among Democrats and Republicans, could come to a unanimous decision on this very unfortunate and highly politically charged matter. They were pulled and they were tugged by the media, by other colleagues, by an enormous workload, by political forces outside this body, and I am sure by their own personal inner turmoil over judging the actions and determining the fate of a fellow human being. Still and all, they came through. The ability of the Senate to police itself has been questioned time and time again. In this instance, perhaps the committee's toughest test in many years, I believe that the question has certainly been answered in the affirmative.

I yield the floor and suggest the absence of a quorum.

Mr. SANTORUM. If the Senator will withhold.

Mr. BYRD. I withhold my request.

SEC. ____10. EFFECTIVE DATE.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. I ask unanimous consent that the amendments be temporarily laid aside.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Mr. President, as the Senate today winds to a close, we will have perhaps a few more amendments by the 5 o'clock deadline. My colleague and friend from Pennsylvania observes that there were about 120 when we last counted, which does not auger well for the conclusion of our business by Wednesday evening. But it does speak to the extraordinary transformation in the debate over welfare policy in the United States.

I spoke earlier this week of the moment of February 8, 1971, when Time and Newsweek and U.S. News and World Report had as their cover stories the subject of welfare and the seeming intractable problem—that at a time when the illegitimacy ratio in our country was one-third what it is today. The number of children born outside of marriage was one-third of what it is today. In 1992, it was 1.2 million. The ratio would be about 30 percent. It is about 33 percent today. That is the basic social condition that leads to this baffling problem.

We are not alone, and it is important to know that. Just by happenstance, Mr. President, this week's issue of The Economist, a British ''newspaper,'' as they call it, has as its cover story, ''The Disappearing Family.'' They have a chart on page 26 called ''Fewer Gold Rings: Births to Unmarried Mothers as a Percentage of the Total.'' I find myself cited as the source. Indeed our office did do this work.

Characteristically, the administration did nothing. Characteristically, the Department of Health and Human Services does nothing. Characteristically, they are absent from this debate. At times, there has been no one in the Vice President's office, as there is on any major issue affecting legislation. They are vanishing, defeated by the commitment to end welfare as they know it, and horrified at the prospect of what that will mean as they see it happen.

The Economist has its ''lead article,'' as they say, on the subject, and then they have a long story. It begins:

> To European ears, America's family values debate can sound shrill, even surreal. It is taken as a sign that the citizens of the new world remain considerably less sophisticated and more moralistic than those of the old. But Europe would do well to listen. In many American neighborhoods, the family has collapsed. Among households with children and poor inner cities, fewer than one in ten have a father in residence. If there are lessons from this awful experience, they are worth learning.

They go on to say that many of the same phenomenon are appearing in Britain. They differentiate between different parts of Europe that are adjacent but are very different in their approaches. Sweden is a country of individuals, and has a very high rate of birth outside of marriage, but they are not births outside of households. All their family structure, their social policy, is built around the individual. Germany, which is just across the Baltic, is a nation built around families. And all of their social policy is designed in that direction, and the consequences are easy to see. Our policies are hard to find.

Years ago, we observed that there is no way a nation can avoid a family policy.

It can only avoid acknowledging what the family policy is—or being aware. Whatever you do, one way or another, will have consequences.

I rise in the remaining few moments of today's session to thank my colleagues on the Democratic side, the minority side, for their support in the bill I offered this morning, the Family Support Act of 1995.

Mr. President, 41 Democrats voted for it; five did not. They have their reasons. They are understood and respected. Fifty-six altogether, 51 Members of the other side voted ''no.'' Several mentioned to me that one Senator on that side volunteered that it was the worst vote he ever cast, but that is understandable.

The point I tried to make is that this legislation, the Family Support Act of 1988, passed the Senate 93–3 in its first form and then the conference report 96–1.

We had consensus and we lost it. I have to think we began to lose it when President Clinton, campaigning for the Presidency, said he would end welfare as we know it, asked for a 2-year time limit, and no further details.

Legislation finally came forward in the 103d Congress, but very late, with no expectation that it would be dealt with. I was chairman of the Finance Committee and was happy to do it but nobody wanted it. It was left for this. A curious—how to say—silence from organizations. You would have expected to hear something from the U.S. Conference of Mayors, which I have worked with for 35 years in one form or another, helping them get revenue sharing going directly to municipalities, and things like that. Silent on our bill. The welfare reform advocates, children's advocates, silent on our bill. Democratic Governors, silent.

Well, the fact is, there has been an extraordinary change in expectations of what Congress will do and a passivity which perhaps accounts for events, a complacency, the assumption that a Democratic administration confirmed in these matters.

Well, we see the results. I will put on the RECORD that the absence of any support for the legislation which we put forward in the Finance Committee last spring—the vote was 12–8, eight Democrats—has to be taken as an unprecedented surrender and unprecedented abandonment of principle.

I say to the U.S. Conference of Mayors, they have abandoned every principle they have stood for in 35 years I have worked with them. The Governors are split on partisanship.

The advocacy groups—what advocacy groups? Maybe their anxiety is that, if they say anything, their funding will be cut off. Well, then, we know where their priorities are.

Mr. President, I can only regret that silence, even as I express my appreciation for the Senators who did support us today. The time will come when they will be proud of that vote. I yield the floor.

(3) Home ownership incentives and grants to encourage resident management of public housing and home ownership of public housing;

On page 122, between lines 11 and 12, insert:

SEC. 110. DEMONSTRATION PROJECTS FOR SCHOOL UTILIZATION.

(a) FINDINGS.—It is the goal of the United States that children grow to be self-sufficient citizens, that parents equip themselves to provide the best parental care and guidance to their children, and that welfare dependency, crime, and the deterioration of neighborhoods be eliminated. It will contribute to these goals to increase the level of parents' involvement in their children's school and other activities, to increase the amount of time parents spend with or in close proximity to their children, to increase the portion of the day and night when children are in a safe and healthy environment and not exposed to unfavorable influences, to increase the opportunities for children to participate in safe, healthy, and enjoyable extra-curricular and organized developmental and recreational activities, and to make more accessible the opportunities for parents, especially those dependent on public assistance, to increase and enhance their parenting and living skills. All of these contributions can be facilitated by establishing the neighborhood public school as a focal point for such activities and by extending the hours of the day in which its facilities are available for such activities.

(b) GRANTS.—The Secretary of Education (hereafter in this section referred to as the ''Secretary'') shall make demonstration grants as provided in subsection (c) to States to enable them to increase the number of hours during each day when existing public school facilities are available for use for the purposes set forth in subsection (d).

(c) SELECTION OF STATES.—The Secretary shall make grants to not more than 5 States for demonstration projects in accordance with this section. Each State shall select the number and location of schools based on the amount of funds it deems necessary for a school properly to achieve the goals of this program. The schools selected must have a significant percentage of students receiving benefits under part A of title IV of the Social Security Act. No more than 2 percent of the grant to any State shall be used for administrative expenses of any kind by any entity (except that none of the activities set forth in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subsection (d) shall be considered an administrative activity the expenses for which are limited by this subsection).

(d) USE OF FUNDS.—The grants made under subsection (b), in order that school facilities can be more fully utilized, shall be used to provide funding for, among other things—

(1) extending the length of the school day, expanding the scope of student programs offered before and after pre-existing school hours, enabling volunteers and parents or professionals paid from other sources to teach, tutor, coach, organize, advise, or monitor students before and after pre-existing school hours, and providing security, supplies, utilities, and janitorial services before and after pre-existing school hours for these programs,

(2) making the school facilities available for community and neighborhood clubs, civic associations and organizations, Boy and Girl

Scouts and similar organizations, adult education classes, organized sports, parental education classes, and other educational, recreational, and social activities.

None of the funds provided under this section can be used to supplant funds already provided to a school facility for services, equipment, personnel, or utilities nor can funds be used to pay costs associated with operating school facilities during hours those facilities are already available for student or community use.

(e) APPLICATIONS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—The Governor of each State desiring to conduct a demonstration project under this section shall prepare and submit to the Secretary an application in such manner and containing such information as the Secretary may require. The Secretary shall actively encourage States to submit such applications.

(2) APPROVAL.—The Secretary shall consider all applications received from States desiring to conduct demonstration projects under this section and shall approve such applications in a number of States to be determined by the Secretary (not to exceed 5), taking into account the overall funding levels available under this section.

(f) DURATION.—A demonstration project under this section shall be conducted for not more than 4 years plus an additional time period of up to 12 months for final evaluation and reporting. The Secretary may terminate a project if the Secretary determines that the State conducting the project is not in substantial compliance with the terms of the application approved by the Secretary under this section.

(g) EVALUATION PLAN.—

(1) STANDARDS.—Not later than 3 months after the date of the enactment of this section, the Secretary shall develop standards for evaluating the effectiveness of each demonstration project in contributing toward meeting the objectives set forth in subsection (a), which shall include the requirement that an independent expert entity selected by the Secretary provide an evaluation of all demonstration projects, which evaluations shall be included in the appropriate State's annual and final reports to the Secretary under subsection (h)(1).

(2) SUBMISSION OF PLAN.—Each State conducting a demonstration project under this section shall submit an evaluation plan (meeting the standards developed by the Secretary under paragraph (1)) to the Secretary not later than 90 days after the State is notified of the Secretary's approval for such project. A State shall not receive any Federal funds for the operation of the demonstration project until the Secretary approves such evaluation plan.

(h) REPORTS.—

(1) STATE.—A State that conducts a demonstration project under this section shall prepare and submit to the Secretary annual and final reports in accordance with the State's evaluation plan under subsection (g)(2) for such demonstration project.

SEC. 110. DEMONSTRATION PROJECTS FOR SCHOOL UTILIZATION.

(a) FINDINGS.—It is the goal of the United States that children grow to be self-sufficient citizens, that parents equip themselves to provide the best parental care and guidance to their children, and that welfare dependency, crime, and the deterioration of neighborhoods be eliminated. It will contribute to these goals to increase the level of parents' involvement in their children's school and other activities, to increase the amount of time parents spend with or in close proximity to their children, to increase the portion of the day and night when children are in a safe and healthy environment and not exposed to unfavorable influences, to increase the opportunities for children to participate in safe, healthy, and enjoyable extracurricular and organized developmental and recreational activities, and to make more accessible the opportunities for parents, especially those dependent on public assistance, to increase and enhance their parenting and living skills. All of these contributions can be facilitated by establishing the neighborhood public school as a focal point for such activities and by extending the hours of the day in which its facilities are available for such activities.

(b) GRANTS.—The Secretary of Education (hereafter in this section referred to as the ''Secretary'') shall make demonstration grants as provided in subsection (c) to States to enable them to increase the number of hours during each day when existing public school facilities are available for use for the purposes set forth in subsection (d).

(c) SELECTION OF STATES.—The Secretary shall make grants to not more than 5 States for demonstration projects in accordance with this section. Each State shall select the number and location of schools based on the amount of funds it deems necessary for a school properly to achieve the goals of this program. The schools selected must have a significant percentage of students receiving benefits under part A of title IV of the Social Security Act. No more than 2 percent of the grant to any State shall be used for administrative expenses of any kind by any entity (except that none of the activities set forth in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subsection (d) shall be considered an administrative activity the expenses for which are limited by this subsection).

(d) USE OF FUNDS.—The grants made under subsection (b), in order that school facilities can be more fully utilized, shall be used to provide funding for, among other things—

(1) extending the length of the school day, expanding the scope of student programs offered before and after pre-existing school hours, enabling volunteers and parents or professionals paid from other sources to teach, tutor, coach, organize, advise, or monitor students before and after pre-existing school hours, and providing security, supplies, utilities, and janitorial services before and after pre-existing school hours for these programs,

(2) making the school facilities available for community and neighborhood clubs, civic associations and organizations, Boy and Girl Scouts and similar organizations, adult education classes, organized sports, parental education classes, and other educational, recreational, and social activities.

None of the funds provided under this section can be used to supplant funds already provided to a school facility for services, equipment, personnel, or utilities nor can funds be used to pay costs associated with operating school facilities during hours those facilities are already available for student or community use.

(e) APPLICATIONS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—The Governor of each State desiring to conduct a demonstration project under this section shall prepare and submit to the Secretary an application in such manner and containing such information as the Secretary may require. The Secretary shall actively encourage States to submit such applications.

(g) EVALUATION PLAN.—

(1) STANDARDS.—Not later than 3 months after the date of the enactment of this section, the Secretary shall develop standards for evaluating the effectiveness of each demonstration project in contributing toward meeting the objectives set forth in subsection (a), which shall include the requirement that an independent expert entity selected by the Secretary provide an evaluation of all demonstration projects, which evaluations shall be included in the appropriate State's annual and final reports to the Secretary under subsection (h)(1).

(2) SUBMISSION OF PLAN.—Each State conducting a demonstration project under this section shall submit an evaluation plan (meeting the standards developed by the Secretary under paragraph (1)) to the Secretary not later than 90 days after the State is notified of the Secretary's approval for such project. A State shall not receive any Federal funds for the operation of the demonstration project until the Secretary approves such evaluation plan.

LAND TITLE TRANSFER LEGISLATION

● Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. President, I introduce legislation to permit the transference of clear title to certain land in Douglas, WY. I believe that this legislation should be uncontroversial because of the unique history of this land, and the obvious public benefits which will accrue from its transfer.

Among those benefits: The transfer will facilitate the cleanup of a 200-foot-wide blighted area that divides the city in half. It will also enable a number of citizens to finally secure sound and merchantable title to property on which their homes are located. These actions will do much to continue to revitalize the city's downtown business district.

The need for this legislation is based upon the particular legal history of this land. In the mid-19th century, the United States was eager to fully settle the Western territories which had been acquired during the Mexican War and in the Louisiana Purchase. The principle means of accomplishing this lay with the development of the railroads, which could bring not only settlers, but the rapid transportation of commerce.

Laying rail over these vast expanses of the West was a most expensive undertaking. Realizing this, Congress passed a number of railroad acts allowing the immediate establishment of a series of railroad right-of-ways. This was done through the use of special grants that were immediately effective once a railroad decided to locate its track over a specific piece of ground.

According to a document entitled ''Railroad Lands and Rights-of-Way'' that was prepared by The First American Title Insurance Co., these grants provided railroads with a limited fee title to strips of land ranging from 200 to 400 feet in width wherever the track might be laid, as long as they adhered to the general routes established in these congressional acts. No patents were given on these rights-of-way because the congressional act was sufficient in itself to convey the interest to the railroad.

The titles to the track strips granted by Congress have been determined by various court interpretations to be limited fee estates. This is an interpretation that has grown up over time, quite apart from the specific mandates of statutory language.

It is at this point that the city of Douglas, WY, enters the story. On March 3, 1875, one of these congressional railroad acts established a railroad right-of-way for the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad through a section of what is now central Wyoming. Almost immediately the city of Douglas, WY, was born and it grew up around the right-of-way, which still runs right smack through the center of town.

As the years passed, the railroad sold portions of land out of the 200-foot-wide easement to the local citizens. Many of these lots now contain homes whose current owners now have a quite serious problem: because the right-of-way is a limited fee, they are unable to gain good and clear title to their land.

To make matters more confounding, the railroad ceased operation and sought abandonment of this right-of-way on April 14, 1989, and filed formal notice in the Federal Register to that effect. In its wake, the railroad left behind this strip of land that has since become quite unsightly and overgrown with weeds. Additionally, this land also contains a number of dilapidated old buildings that blight the community and are dangerous attractions to young children.

Fortunately, the city of Douglas remedied one of the most serious dangers by remodeling an old depot and part of the surrounding strip into the city's chamber of commerce and a railroad interpretive center. The city stands by now, ready and able to develop the remainder of this land into an attractive subdivision if Congress is willing to transfer clear title to this land.

I trust that the Senate will approve of this legislation in order to transfer this land which previously was governed by the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad. To do so will clearly serve the public interest, and impinges upon no private interests. The good citizens of Douglas will greatly benefit from this correction of a problem rooted in long-ago 19th century law, and I earnestly urge its passage.●

By Mr. GRASSLEY (for himself and Mr. LEVIN):

S. 1224. A bill to amend subchapter IV of chapter 5 of title 5, United States Code, relating to alternative means of dispute resolution in the administrative process, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Governmental Affairs.

THE ADMINISTRATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION ACT OF 1995

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, the bill that I and Senator LEVIN are introducing today, the Administrative Dispute Resolution Act of 1995, is an amendment to subchapter IV of chapter 5 of title 5 of the United States Code, a law which I sponsored in 1989. That law, also titled the ''Administrative Dispute Resolution Act,'' was designed to encourage Federal agencies to streamline dispute resolution processes through the use of alternative dispute resolution techniques instead of litigation. In other words, it would reduce our litigation process. These techniques—often collectively referred to as ADR—include mediation, arbitration, conciliation, fact-finding and minitrials, among others.

Since the implementation of the 1989 act, both Federal agencies and private parties have realized significant time and cost savings by avoiding the litigation quagmire, while sacrificing little in fairness and party satisfaction. Almost all the Federal agencies now have some sort of ADR framework in place, and most have enjoyed significant degrees of success. For example, the Environmental Protection Agency now uses mediation and arbitration processes to resolve superfund, Clean Water Act and Resource Conservation and Recovery Act disputes. The EPA and the private parties involved expressed great satisfaction with the efficiency and fairness of these techniques for the resolution of complex regulatory issues.

Not only are ADR techniques more efficient, they are also far less costly than litigation. One agency, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, has estimated a savings of $13 million in legal costs in the last 3 years alone. Even better, the Resolution Trust Corporation estimated it saved $114 million over the last 4 years. Nor are these cost savings realized only in the Government. NRC, a private computer company, reduced it's pending lawsuits from 263 to 28 and cut the cost of outside attorneys' fees by half over a period of 10 years through the use of ADR techniques. Also, a contractor was able to deliver a completed rocket testing facility to the Air Force 3 months ahead of schedule and $12 million under budget by using ADR. In fact, the contractor was so satisfied with past ADR outcomes that it released all further claims against the Government.

Despite these gains, much work still remains in integrating ADR techniques into the Federal Government. Many agencies lag behind in adopting ADR programs into their daily routines. This lag is at least partially due to institutional misgivings about the new and unfamiliar. However, it is also due to legitimate concerns about confidentiality, fairness and quality assurance. It is these latter concerns that our new bill seeks to address. Based largely on an extensive and thorough analysis by the Administrative Conference of the United States, this bill modifies and clarifies the 1989 ADR Act, making ADR more attractive to both Federal agencies and private parties for solving regulatory disputes. At this time I would like to briefly summarize how the proposed act will accomplish this goal.

First, the bill removes the term ''settlement negotiations'' from the group of ADR techniques listed in the 1989 act. This will not decrease the effectiveness of the act as ''settlement negotiations'' are not and have never been covered by the act as they do not use third party ''neutrals'' in resolving conflicts. Thus, abolition of the term merely eliminates widespread agency confusion as to whether ''settlement negotiation'' is a statutorily supported ADR technique, and does not decrease the scope of the original act.

Second, the bill addresses agency confidentiality concerns by exempting all dispute resolution communications from Freedom of Information Act disclosure. Although these communications have always been confidential by implication, this amendment to the 1989 act makes that confidentiality express and clear.

Third, the bill makes it easier for agencies to acquire ''neutrals'' by streamlining competitive procedures for obtaining expert services and by allowing the acquisition of ''neutrals'' from nonprofit organizations.

Fourth, the bill eliminates the requirement that the validity of all contract claims under $100,000 be certified by the contractor. This change brings the 1989 ADR Act into conformance with the certification levels in the Contracts Disputes Act, thus encouraging the use of ADR techniques in many small disputes where they may be particularly appropriate.

Fifth, the bill authorizes the use of ''any alternate means of dispute resolution under the act or other mutually agreeable procedures'' for resolving claims. This greatly expands the range of available ADR techniques, above and beyond those listed in the statute, provided that both parties in the dispute agree to the method ultimately used.

Sixth, the bill orders the Chairman of the Administrative Conference of the United States to study the benefits and problems of Federal ADR use and report these findings to Congress 3 years after this bill is enacted. This will allow Congress to reassess the value of ADR methods at that time and make appropriate changes.

Finally, the bill permanently authorizes the ADR Act by striking the sunset provision presently in the law.

Mr. President, there has been much progress in the implementation and use of ADR techniques in the Federal Government since I first introduced the Administrative Dispute Resolution Act in 1989. Passage of this amendment to the act will further this progress by eliminating the remaining statutory barriers to ADR use and by clarifying statutory language. I hope my colleagues will join Senator LEVIN and I in this effort.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the text of the bill be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

By Mr. JEFFORDS:

S. 1225. A bill to require the Secretary of the Interior to conduct an inventory of historic sites, buildings, and artifacts in the Champlain Valley and the upper Hudson River Valley, including the Lake George area, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources.

THE CHAMPLAIN VALLEY HERITAGE CORRIDOR INVENTORY ACT

Mr. JEFFORDS. Mr. President, today I introduce legislation known as the Champlain Valley Heritage Corridor Inventory Act. The legislation that I am introducing is very similar to legislation that I have introduced in the past, with minor alterations to reflect the many comments I have received on this matter.

The corridor bill would inventory the many historically significant cultural resources which make up the Upper Hudson River Valley, the Champlain Valley, and the Lake George region. This would be accomplished by the Secretary of the Interior working with officials of State and local government, local historians and archaeologists, owners of historic sites, native Americans, local and regional planning commissions, local and regional chambers of commerce, interstate citizen groups, and any other interested parties. This is to be a grass roots coalition intended to benefit individuals and communities alike.

Mr. President, the legislation that I offer today seeks to enhance something that, truly, already exists. Along Lake Champlain, Lake George, and the Upper Hudson River in my home State of Vermont, and in New York and the Province of Quebec, is a wondrous corridor of heritage, perhaps unrivaled for its historic richness in all of the Western Hemisphere.

Americans wishing to discover the history, first hand, of the French and Indian wars, the decisive campaign of the American Revolution and of a key campaign of the War of 1812, must come to this area.

Fort Ticonderoga, Crown Point, the Saratoga Battlefield, Mount Independence, Bennington Battlefield, Hubbardton Battlefield, the Plattsburgh battle sites are there, and nowhere else. It is a resource the people of the north country truly cherish, and long have shared with the rest of the world.

Trouble is, it's not an easy task to guide oneself along those paths of history. I would like to change that. And if I can, it seems to me that all the people of the corridor, indeed all the people of this Nation, stand to benefit.

One day in the not-too-distant future, I would hope to see the great historic sites of this corridor linked, made easy to discover and explore. Here and there we ought to have a visitors center to help the traveler, the historian, in their search for the storied places of the past. Here and there ought to be a pulloff by the roadside with explanations of the historic significance of the area, a map. Common signage would be a great help.

A heritage corridor along these historic waterways would be a wonderful gift of our generation to future generations of Americans who would go forth to seek this Nation's fascinating past, indeed this continent's history. We should go forward in the spirit of those farsighted pioneer preservationists of this corridor, such as Ticonderoga's Pell family. Long ago they had the foresight to preserve and protect Ticonderoga, Mount Independence, Saratoga, Hubbardton, and dozens of other historic places.

T.S. Eliot said that history ''is a pattern of timeless moments.'' We are indeed fortunate that a wealth of such moments were enacted in our corridor, and that many of their settings have survived. They constitute a valued bequest that carries a considerable responsibility. They constitute a heritage that should be shared with all Americans.

Therefore, Mr. President, today I introduce this heritage corridor inventory bill. I do it in the name of the people of my home country who have long cared deeply about their history. Also, I do it in the name of those who wrote the history of the corridor that we seek to honor, preserve and make more accessible. Those names include Ethan Allen, Arthur St. Clair, Seth Warner, Robert Rogers, Philip Schuyler, George Washington, and a thousand more now forgotten, but never unappreciated, men and women who stood firm to make a new Nation called America.

Those long-ago people, and the people who live along the storied waterways that are true paths of history, deserve no less.

By Mr. JEFFORDS:

S. 1226. A bill to require the Secretary of the Interior to prepare a study of battlefields of the Revolutionary War and the War of 1812, to establish an American Battlefield Protection Program, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources.

THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR AND WAR OF 1812 HISTORIC PRESERVATION STUDY ACT OF 1995

Mr. JEFFORDS. Mr. President, I am proud to say that there is in this land a great wellspring of caring for the places where freedom was won and defended. Millions of Americans have, in recent years, become aware of the hallowed ground of our Civil War battlefields, have visited them, read of them, many have written of them.

The clear and eloquent message I hear is that these treasured places should be saved, intact, for future generations. The preservation message goes forth from Gettysburg, Antietam, Manassas, Cold Harbor, Malvern Hill, Petersburg, Stones River, and dozens more Civil War places. It is heard from the banks of the Mississippi to the Atlantic Coast, from Mobile to the Monocacy.

When battlefields become severely threatened, such as has happened at Brandy Station and Manassas, there quickly develops a continuity of Americans that spreads nationwide. The American people care about their history, look on these places as national treasures, and speak eloquently and effectively for their preservation.

Five years ago, Congress responded to the growing awareness of our Civil War heritage and the concern for the sites where that heritage took form, by passing legislation that created a national Civil War Sites Advisory Commission. Composed of distinguished historians, supported by a staff of National Park Service experts, the Commission for 2 years studied the remaining Civil War battlefields. Civil War sites were visited, public meetings held, and in the end a report was written.

In that report, Commissioner James McPherson of Princeton University noted that while Americans no longer have the power to consecrate their historic sites, they clearly have the power to desecrate them. A plan of action was presented for protecting what remains of the Civil War battlefields. It is a plan now being discussed in the Halls of Congress, a plan that I strongly favor and which I hope will be acted upon.

Thanks in large part to the work of Ken Burns, before he turned to baseball, this Nation is now highly aware of its Civil War history and the places where that history took place. That war, in Lincoln's words, brought forth a new birth of freedom. It was a freedom won initially, of course, four score years earlier on the battlefields of the American Revolution.

Somewhat sadly, the Revolutionary War and War of 1812 has not had, of late, a bard the equal of Mr. Burns to sing its praises, reawaken the awareness of its history. The people nowadays do not go forth in anywhere the numbers to the Revolutionary battlefields, as they do to our Civil War fields.

Nonetheless, the Revolutionary and War of 1812 sites offer experiences full well as intriguing, meaningful, even haunting, as the scenes of the Civil War. Many of the key sites of the Revolutionary War and War of 1812 still exist, though some are in jeopardy and some are much in need of enhancement. A half million people do visit the Saratoga Battlefield each year—scene of the war's decisive battle. Yet the battlefield of Hubbardton in Vermont, a key prelude to Saratoga, and once called by National Park historian Edwin Bearss the best preserved of all American battlefields, is visited by only about 2,500 people annually. It just isn't very well known.

Fort Ticonderoga, both a French and Indian War and Revolutionary War site, receives more than 100,000 visitors annually. Yet just across Lake Champlain on the Vermont shore, Mount Independence receives only about 3,000 visitors. And it lacks a museum, even permanent toilet facilities. Yet it has been called the least disturbed major Revolutionary War site, a place where as many as 1,000 American soldiers may be buried. In the winter of 1776–77, Mount Independence was garrisoned against a British invasion from Canada. The troops there probably spent a harder winter than Washington's men at Valley Forge. Earthworks, a hospital site, blockhouse foundations, the abutments of a military bridge, all survive on the Mount. Thousands of artifacts have been dug and preserved, awaiting a proper facility for display. This is a major American historic site that needs the caring attention of this Nation. At the very least it would seem to qualify as a national cemetery.

It is part of the American freedom story, a story that, sadly, is very hard to follow today. While a great chapter of that story was written along Lake Champlain, finding the places where the story happened, following the military routes, is a near-impossible job for anyone seeking history. That is but one example of why our Revolutionary War sites need attention.

It is time to take a thorough look at our Revolutionary War places, to make a thorough study of what remain, even of what has been lost. This Nation continues to grow, the heaviest concentrations of population being along the east coast corridor. And this, of course, is where the old and fragile sites of the Revolution exist.

There needs to be done, I believe, a thorough study of Lexington and Concord, Cowpens and Brandywide, Yorktown and Saratoga. We need an assessment of Mount Independence and Crown Point, Valley Forge, and Germantown. We need to know what we have and what needs doing so that those wondrous sites are preserved and made understandable and accessible to the American public.

The American people are ever more interested in the story of their Nation's past—want their history protected and interpreted.

So I say today that Congress should act now to create a Revolutionary War and War of 1812 Sites Commission. This Commission should go forth to the places where independence was won, determine what remains, and what is needed to make sure our founding heritage is not lost. It is a task that history calls upon us to make, so that our present generations can pass on to the Americans of the fast approaching new millennium a wondrous gift of history. That gift would be the landscape where the Nation that our Civil War President called the last best hope of mankind was born in fire and blood and bravery, thus establishing the glowing promise of freedom that yet abides across this great land.

By Mr. HEFLIN:

S. 1227. A bill to extend and revise agricultural price support and related programs for cotton, peanuts, and oilseeds, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry.

THE SOUTHERN AGRICULTURE ACT OF 1995

Mr. HEFLIN. Mr. President, I rise today to introduce the Southern Agriculture Act of 1995. This legislation will extend and revise agricultural loan and related programs for cotton, peanuts, and oilseeds.

Some farm programs, as currently structured, have served rural America well, and in the case of southern crops, farm programs have served the rural South extremely well. Therefore, it is my intention to introduce legislation that fine tunes these programs, rather than radically restructuring them, as some as proposing.

In 1994, the cotton industry experienced a record year. Cotton production in the United States totaled a record 19.7 million bales. Production in the Southeast totaled 3.7 million bales, an increase of 89 percent over the previous year. U.S. exports and domestic mill consumption together totaled in excess of 21 million bales in 1994, the largest total offtake on record. During calendar 1994, U.S. cotton textile exports increase 15 percent above 1993 to surpass 1 billion pounds, a new record.

Much of this success is due to the structure of the cotton program. Through the use of the marketing loan, that I put in, in the 1985 farm bill, the cotton industry has been able to take advantage of favorable world prices resulting from poor planting decisions and harvest conditions experienced by some of our foreign competitors. The marketing loan has been an enormously valuable tool for this industry and is responsible for drastically reducing the cost of the cotton program by allowing producers to effectively market their crop.

The cotton program stands as a shining example of a farm program that works as it should. For instance, there will be no idled acres, or set-asides, for this year's crop, further reducing the cost of the program. Despite the perception that commodity programs pay farmer not to plant a portion of their crops, cotton producers only get paid for the cotton that they produce.

Due to the success in the manner in which the industry is operating, I see no reason to change a policy just for the sake of change. Therefore, this legislation proposes to extend the cotton program as written.

I would like to take this opportunity to recognize that while cotton has just had a record year and expectations are high for 1995, cotton producers in Alabama, and throughout the Southeast, are having to deal with a severe drought and have been plagued by an extraordinary outbreak of insect and worm infestations.

Roughly two-thirds of Alabama's cotton crop has had some degree of significant yield damage, and nearly one quarter of the State's cotton crop will not be harvested this year. As work progresses on the 1995 farm bill, I will be mindful of this situation as our deliberations continue.

Mr. President, there is a crop that is unique to a handful of States in the South that has represented more than just an economic endeavor, rather it has been responsible for a way of life and the preservation of a rural culture. The peanut program which is essential to Alabama, has lately been the target of those who would have us believe that ending this program or radically altering its structure would be in the best interest of all American consumers.

While it is acknowledged that the American farmer receives a higher amount for his peanuts, it should also be pointed out that the world price against which they are measured represents an entirely different grade and quality of peanuts. Peanuts of foreign origin are not subject to similar requirements for minimum wage, environmental protection, restricted chemical use, rigorous post harvest treatment, or inspection.

Detractors tell us that by radically changing the peanut program that consumers will realize savings at the check-out stand as a result. The GAO in 1993 interviewed both small and large manufacturers of peanuts products and were told that they ''may not pass the savings directly on to the final consumer of peanut products, but they could develop some new product lines''. What this peanut product manufacturer, anti-peanut movement sounds like to me is an effort to increase the manufacturer's bottom line, at the expense of peanut producers with absolutely no guarantee whatsoever that any savings realized by manufacturers will be passed along to consumers.

Auburn University recently released a study that indicates that the peanut industry in Alabama, Georgia, and Florida has an economic impact in the tri-State area exceeding $1.3 billion, and employment associated with economic activity related to the peanut industry exceeds 16,000 jobs in the three States. This record of success has been accomplished through one of the USDA's most cost effective commodity programs. The peanut program has a 10-year average cost of about $13 million annually.

The Auburn study goes further to indicate, using the very same economic impact model used by the Base Realignment and Closure Commission, that changes in the order of those being proposed by the antipeanut forces would cost 4,510 jobs in Alabama, Georgia, and Florida and have a negative economic impact exceeding $320 million.

However, in an effort to further limit the already minimal cost exposure of the program, this legislation will freeze the support price paid to producers at the 1995 crop level. Additionally, the Southern Agricultural Act of 1995 will eliminate other production control provisions, thereby even further reducing the cost of the program by limiting the amount of peanuts that a producer may carry over to the following year's crop.

According to the USDA, this peanut proposal will save an estimated $173 million over 7 years from the cost of the program. Furthermore, other peanut State Senators and I are working on ways to eliminate all cost to the Federal Government from the peanut program to achieve a no-net-cost program. The peanut program is vital to Alabama and I strongly support its continuation.

Soybeans are another crop of great importance to Alabama. However, due to the lack of profitability, acres planted to soybeans in Alabama have declined by 90 percent over the last 10 to 15 years.

Soybeans and other oilseeds do not receive income support under the farm program. Lacking income protection, soybean producers in Alabama and other States are vulnerable to sharp increases in production and reductions in prices. This vulnerability has resulted in a lost of over 10 million acres of soybean production in the United States since 1981, with most of this loss occurring in Southern States. Soybean production peaked in Alabama in 1979 with 2.2 million acres planted. Data on the 1995 crop indicates only 230,000 acres are planted to soybeans in Alabama.

In an effort to correct his situation, this legislation addresses this issue by increasing marketing loan rates for soybeans to $5.25 per bushel from the current level of $4.92 per bushel. While not high enough to incur outlays except during years when soybean prices fall well below historical levels, this increased loan rate will provide a minimal amount of support for our soybean producers, encouraging greater planting of soybeans in years when prices warrant it.

Every year the farming community takes risks that most Americans take for granted each time they go to the grocery store and purchase a gallon of milk or loaf of bread or jar of peanut butter. Each time they walk down the grocery aisles, there is that same consistency in quality and price that consumers now rarely, if ever, stop to appreciate. However, it is the farmer who each spring puts his family on the line by planting his crops. Every farming family is no more than a natural disaster away from losing his farm and home. Regardless, each year he again takes that risk that provides us all with the highest quality, most abundant, and most affordable food and fiber in world. For that, I strongly believe that we should, at the very least, provide some measure of a safety net for the unavoidable natural disasters and the heavily subsidized competition that our farmers must face from our foreign trading partners.

I realize that we are faced with budget realities that dictate that we must make some difficult and painful choices. We must keep in mind, though, that Commodity Credit Corporation outlays for farm programs have declined from a high of $26 billion in fiscal year 1986 to less than $9 billion in fiscal year 1995, a 65-percent reduction. According to the Congressional Budget Office, farm program outlays are projected to remain below this level for fiscal year 1996–2002, even if no changes are made in current law for existing farm programs. If all other sectors of the Federal Government had experienced the same proportion of cuts as agriculture has, the Federal budget would now be balanced. However, the upcoming reconciliation bill appears to be the place for those decisions to be debated.

The Southern Agricultural Act of 1995 is a statement of support for the continuation and improvement of the cotton, peanut, and soybean farm programs, programs that have worked well and do not warrant drastic overhaul. This bill is designed to allow these farm programs continue to build upon their many successes which include benefits to taxpayers, consumers, and producers alike.

By Mr. D'AMATO (for himself, Mr. INOUYE, Mr. PRESSLER, Mr. FAIRCLOTH, and Mr. KOHL):

S. 1228. A bill to impose sanctions on foreign persons exporting petroleum products, natural gas, or related technology to Iran; to the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs.

THE IRAN FOREIGN OIL SANCTIONS ACT OF 1995

Mr. D'AMATO. Mr. President, I rise today, along with my distinguished colleagues, Senators INOUYE, PRESSLER, FAIRCLOTH, and KOHL to introduce the Iran Foreign Oil Sanctions Act of 1995. The purpose of this legislation is simple. It will place sanctions on any foreign company that supplies

Iran with equipment to extract petroleum, natural gas, or other activities that would enable Iran to obtain hard currency with which to fund the acquisition of a nuclear bomb and to continue its funding of international terrorism. Any increase in Iranian oil revenues should be viewed as a threat to the national security and foreign policy interests of the United States.

Several months ago, I commended President Clinton for his wisdom in implementing a total United States trade ban against Iran. I had been pushing for this ban for 2 years, because I felt that it was wrong for us to be subsidizing Iranian terrorism. Thankfully, the United States no longer is doing so. I wish, however, I could say the same for the rest of the world. While Iran is racing to obtain weapons of mass destruction, most of the other countries of the world are subsidizing them through their development of the Iranian oil fields. What they are forgetting is that by providing Iran with hard currency, they are providing Iran with the means with which to fulfill their dreams of obtaining nuclear weapons. This cannot be allowed to happen.

While I know that this administration has tried to convince our allies of their mistake in subsidizing Iranian aggression, I feel that they can do more. I feel that they must have the proper tools with which to deal with the allies regarding Iran and this bill provides those tools. Our allies must understand that oil is Iran's lifeline. If we are going to persuade the Iranian regime that its efforts to achieve nuclear status, its support for international terrorism, and its horrendous human rights abuses against the Iranian people should all end, we must end the funding with which they are paying for it all. The rest of the world now must stop providing that funding.

Our legislation provides a series of mandatory sanctions and discretionary sanctions that the President may place upon any foreign company, foreign person, successor entity to that company or person, parent, and subsidiary who engages in either trade with Iran in the above-mentioned sectors or has requisite knowledge thereof.

Among the mandatory sanctions that the President can place upon the offending foreign company are the following:

Procurement sanctions which state that the U.S. Government shall not procure, or enter into any contract for the procurement of, any goods or services from such sanctioned foreign persons or any parent, subsidiary, affiliate, or successor entity thereof.

Export sanctions which state that the U.S. Government shall not issue any license or grant any other permission or authority to export any goods or technology to a sanctioned foreign person or company.

Inclusion onto the table of denial orders stating that sanctioned foreign persons shall be included within the table of denial orders for general and validated export licenses for a period of not less than three years.

Denial of entry of persons into the United States meaning that senior executives of sanctioned companies, as well as sanctioned persons are ineligible to receive visas and shall be excluded from admission into the United States.

Additional to the mandatory sanctions, there is a menu of discretionary sanctions that the President can choose from to impose upon the offending foreign company. They include the following choices:

Review of certain mergers, acquisitions, and takeovers, stating that the President may exercise his statutory authority to prohibit mergers, acquisitions, takeovers, and other similar investments in the United States by sanctioned companies and persons.

Import sanctions, stating that the President may ban the importation into the United States of products produced by any sanctioned foreign person, including any parent, subsidiary, affiliate, or successor entity.

Prohibition against export-import bank assistance for exports to foreign persons, stating that there shall be no export-import guarantees, credit, or insurance for goods or services to sanctioned companies or persons.

Loans from U.S. financial institutions, stating that the U.S. Government may prohibit U.S. financial institutions from making any loan or providing any credit to any sanctioned foreign person or company.

Prohibitions on foreign financial institutions, stating that a sanctioned foreign financial institution will lose its designation as a primary dealer in the United States, a sanctioned foreign financial institution shall not serve as an agent of the U.S. Government or serve as a repository of U.S. Government funds and a sanctioned foreign financial institution shall not engage in any line of business or conduct any business from any location that it did not conduct before the determination by the President of becoming a sanctioned company or person.

Mr. President, I want to make it clear that we are providing the President with a wide variety of options to deal with foreign companies that provide Iran with oil fields and affiliated equipment. We have provided ample waiver authority for the President, and in no way mean to tie his hands in his conduct of foreign affairs. We are, however, putting the countries of the world on notice that Iran is a dangerous country, with intentions inimical to our own, possessing aspirations that provide a real and sustained threat to the region and the world. Continued coddling and trading with Iran will only serve to build up a monster that we will have to deal with at some future time. It is better to deal with Iran now, in this manner, than a nuclear-armed Iran in the more dangerous future.

I urge my colleagues to support this important bill.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the text of the bill be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

S. 1228

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the ''Iran Foreign Oil Sanctions Act of 1995''.

SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

The Congress makes the following findings:

(1) The efforts of the Government of Iran to acquire weapons of mass destruction and the means to deliver them endanger potentially the national security and foreign policy interests of the United States and those countries with which it shares common strategic and foreign policy objectives.

(2) The objective of preventing the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction through existing multilateral and bilateral initiatives requires additional efforts to deny Iran the financial means to sustain its nuclear, chemical, biological, and missile weapons programs.

SEC. 3. DECLARATION OF POLICY.

The Congress declares that it is the policy of the United States to deny Iran the ability to fund the development and acquisition of weapons of mass destruction and the means to deliver them by preventing Iran from acquiring equipment that would enhance Iran's ability to extract, refine, process, store, or transport petroleum, petroleum products, or natural gas.

SEC. 4. IMPOSITION OF SANCTIONS ON FOREIGN PERSONS EXPORTING PETROLEUM PRODUCTS, NATURAL GAS, OR RELATED TECHNOLOGY TO IRAN.

(a) IN GENERAL.—The President shall impose the mandatory sanctions in section 5(1) and may impose one or more of the discretionary sanctions described in section 5(2), if the President determines that a foreign person subject to this section has, with requisite knowledge, on or after the date of enactment of this Act, exported, transferred, or released to Iran, its nationals, or entities controlled by Iran or its nationals any goods or technology identified on the List of Petroleum and Natural Gas-Related Goods and Technology established by section 9 (hereafter in this Act referred to as the ''List'')—

(1) through the export from the United States of any goods or technology identified in the List that is subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, or

(i) if such actions involve foreign persons sanctioned under section 4(a); and

(ii) if the President finds, in addition to the requirements of section 721(e) of such Act, that the participation of foreign persons, sanctioned by the President under section 4(a), in activities to assist, directly or indirectly, Iran to increase the revenue available to that government by extracting petroleum, natural gas, or other activities related to these product sectors threatens to impair the national security and foreign policy interests of the United States.

(A) a nuclear explosive device or related materials and technology;

(B) chemical and biological weapons;

(1) ACTIONS BY GOVERNMENT OF JURISDICTION.—In order to pursue such consultations with that government, the President may delay imposition of the sanctions pursuant to this section within 90 days. Following such consultations, the President shall immediately impose sanctions unless the President determines and certifies to the Congress that the government has taken specific and effective actions, including the imposition of appropriate penalties, to terminate the involvement of the foreign person in the activities that resulted in the imposition of sanctions against the foreign person.

(2) ADDITIONAL DELAY IN IMPOSITION OF SANCTIONS.—The President may delay the imposition of sanctions for up to an additional 45 days if the President determines and certifies to the Congress that the government with primary jurisdiction over the foreign person is in the process of taking the actions described in paragraph (1).

(2) Any such report shall provide a specific and detailed rationale for such determination, including—

(A) a description of the conduct, including the identification of the goods and technology involved in the violation, that resulted in the determination of a violation or violations;

(B) an explanation of the efforts to secure the cooperation of the government with primary jurisdiction of the foreign person to terminate or penalize the activities that resulted in the determination of a violation;

(C) an estimate as to the significance of the goods and technology exported to Iran on that country's ability to extract, refine, process, store, or transport petroleum, petroleum products, or natural gas; and

(D) a statement as to the response of the United States in the event that such foreign person engages in other activities that under this section would constitute an additional violation.

SEC. 8. TERMINATION OF SANCTIONS.

(a) DURATION OF SANCTIONS.—The sanctions imposed pursuant to this section shall apply for a period of not less than 12 months following the determination by the President under section 4(a) and shall cease to apply thereafter only if the President determines and certifies to the Congress that reliable information indicates that the foreign person with respect to which the determination was made under section 4(a) has ceased to aid or abet Iran, or any individual, group, or entity owned or controlled by Iran, to acquire goods and technology on the List.

(b) WAIVER.—

(1) CRITERION FOR WAIVER.—the President may waive the continued application of any sanction imposed on any foreign person pursuant to this section, after the end of the 12-month period beginning on the date on which that sanction was imposed on that person, if the President determines and certifies to the Congress that the continued imposition of the sanction would have a serious adverse effect on United States national security.

(2) NOTIFICATION OF AND REPORT TO CONGRESS.—If the President decides to exercise the waiver authority provided in paragraph (1), the President shall so notify the Congress not less than 30 days before the waiver takes effect. Such notification shall include a report fully articulating the rationale and circumstances which led the President to exercise the waiver authority.

S. RES. 169

Whereas historically Tibet has demonstrated those attributes which under international law constitute statehood: it has had a defined territory and a permanent population; it has been under the control of its own government; and it has engaged in, or had the capacity to engage in, formal relations with other states;

Whereas beginning in 1949 Tibet was forcibly and coercively invaded and occupied by the People's Republic of China;

Whereas under the principles of international law Tibet is an occupied country and its true representatives continue to be His Holiness the Dalai Lama and the Tibetan Government-in-exile, which the Congress has recognized on several occasions;

Whereas the Tibetan people are historically, territorially, and culturally distinct from the Chinese population in the People's Republic of China and were forcibly incorporated into the People's Republic of China;

Whereas the Tibetan people are entitled to the right of self-determination as recognized in 1961 by the United Nations General Assembly in Resolution No. 1723;

Whereas instead of being afforded that right they have been subjected to repressive actions on the part of the Government of the People's Republic of China, which have resulted in the deaths of countless Tibetans, the destruction of over 6,000 temples and monasteries as well as much of Tibet's unique cultural and spiritual patrimony, the flight of the Dalai Lama and over 100,000 Tibetans from their homeland, the establishment in Tibet by the Chinese of a consistent and well-documented pattern of human rights abuses including numerous violations of the United Nations Declaration on Human Rights, and the settlement of thousands of Chinese in Tibet in an effort to reduce Tibetans to being a minority in their own land; and

Whereas this September His Holiness the Dalai Lama will be making his first extended visit to Washington, DC, since 1993: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate—

(1) warmly welcomes His Holiness the Dalai Lama to the United States;

(2) urges the President to meet with His Holiness the Dalai Lama during his visit to discuss substantive issues of interest to our two respective governments, and to continue to encourage the Government of the People's Republic of China to meet the Dalai Lama or his representatives to discuss a solution to the present impasse in their relations; and

(3) urges His Holiness the Dalai Lama to remind the Tibetan people that, as they move forward in their struggle toward preserving their culture and regaining their freedom, the Congress and the American people stand with them.

"SEC. ———. SENSE OF THE SENATE REGARDING ENTERPRISE ZONES.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Senate finds that—

(1) Many of the Nation's urban centers are places with high levels of poverty, high rates of welfare dependency, high crime rates, poor schools, and joblessness;

(2) Federal tax incentives and regulatory reforms can encourage economic growth, job creation and small business formation in many urban centers;

(3) Encouraging private sector investment in America's economically distressed urban and rural areas is essential to breaking the cycle of poverty and the related ills of crime, drug abuse, illiteracy, welfare dependency, and unemployment;

(4) The empowerment zones enacted in 1993 should be enhanced by providing incentives to increase entrepreneurial growth, capital formation, job creation, educational opportunities, and home ownership in the designated communities and zones;

(b) SENSE OF THE SENATE.—Therefore, it is the Sense of the Senate that the Congress should adopt enterprise zone legislation in the 104th Congress, and that such enterprise zone legislation provide the following incentives and provisions:

(1) Federal tax incentives that expand access to capital, increase the formation and expansion of small businesses, and promote commercial revitalization;

(2) Regulatory reforms that allow localities to petition Federal agencies, subject to the relevant agencies' approval, for waivers or modifications of regulations to improve job creation, small business formation and expansion, community development, or economic revitalization objectives of the enterprise zones;

(3) Home ownership incentives and grants to encourage resident management of public housing and home ownership of public housing;

(4) School reform pilot projects in certain designated enterprise zones to provide low-income parents with new and expanded educational options for their children's elementary and secondary schooling.

''SEC. 404. MANDATORY WORK REQUIREMENTS.

''(a) PARTICIPATION RATE REQUIREMENTS.—A State to which a grant is made under section 403 for a fiscal year shall achieve the minimum participation rate specified in the following tables for the fiscal year with respect to—

''(1) all families receiving assistance under the State program funded under this part:

''If the fiscal year is:	The minimum participation rate for all families is:
1996	25
1997	30
1998	35
1999	40
2000 or thereafter	50; and

''(2) with respect to 2-parent families receiving such assistance:

"If the fiscal year is:	The minimum participation rate is:
1996	60
1997 or 1998	75
1999 or thereafter	90.

''(b) CALCULATION OF PARTICIPATION RATES.—

''(1) FOR ALL FAMILIES.—

''(A) AVERAGE MONTHLY RATE.—For purposes of subsection (a)(1), the participation rate for all families of a State for a fiscal year is the average of the participation rates for all families of the State for each month in the fiscal year.

''(B) MONTHLY PARTICIPATION RATES.—The participation rate of a State for all families of the State for a month, expressed as a percentage, is—

''(i) the sum of—

''(I) the number of all families receiving assistance under the State program funded under this part that include an adult who is engaged in work for the month;

''(II) the number of all families receiving assistance under the State program funded under this part that are subject in such month to a penalty described in paragraph (1)(A) or (2)(A) of subsection (d) but have not been subject to such penalty for more than 3 months within the preceding 12-month period (whether or not consecutive);

''(III) the number of all families receiving assistance under the State program funded under this part that have become ineligible for assistance under the State program within the previous 6-month period because of employment and that include an adult who is employed for the month; and

''(IV) beginning in the first month beginning after the promulgation of the regulations described in paragraph (3) and in accordance with such regulations, the average monthly number of all families that are not receiving assistance under the State program funded under this part as a result of the State's diversion of such families from the State program prior to such families receipt of assistance under the program; divided by

''(ii) the total number of all families receiving assistance under the State program funded under this part during the month that include an adult.

''(2) 2-PARENT FAMILIES.—

''(A) AVERAGE MONTHLY RATE.—For purposes of subsection (a)(2), the participation rate for 2-parent families of a State for a fiscal year is the average of the participation rates for 2-parent families of the State for each month in the fiscal year.

''(B) MONTHLY PARTICIPATION RATES.—The participation rate of a State for 2-parent families of the State for a month, expressed as a percentage, is—

''(i) the total number of 2-parent families described in paragraph (1)(B)(i); divided by

''(ii) the total number of 2-parent families receiving assistance under the State program funded under this part during the month that include an adult.

''(3) REGULATIONS RELATING TO CALCULATION OF FAMILIES DIVERTED FROM ASSISTANCE.—

''(A) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 1 year after the date of the enactment of the Work Opportunity Act of 1995, the Secretary shall consult with the States and establish, by regulation, a method to measure the number of families diverted by a State from the State program funded under this part prior to such families receipt of assistance under the program.

''(B) ELIGIBILITY CHANGES NOT COUNTED.—The regulations described in subparagraph (A) shall not take into account families that are diverted from a State program funded under this part as a result of differences in eligibility criteria under a State program funded under this part and eligibility criteria under such State's plan under the aid to families with dependent children program, as such plan was in effect on the day before the date of the enactment of the Work Opportunity Act of 1995.

''(4) STATE OPTION TO INCLUDE INDIVIDUALS RECEIVING ASSISTANCE UNDER A TRIBAL FAMILY ASSISTANCE PLAN.—For purposes of paragraphs (1)(B) and (2)(B), a State may, at its option, include families receiving assistance under a tribal family assistance plan approved under section 414. For purposes of the previous sentence, an individual who receives assistance under a tribal family assistance plan approved under section 414 shall be treated as being engaged in work if the individual is participating in work under standards that are comparable to State standards for being engaged in work.

''(c) ENGAGED IN WORK.—

''(1) ALL FAMILIES.—For purposes of subsection (b)(1)(B)(i)(I), an adult is engaged in work for a month in a fiscal year if the adult is participating in work for at least the minimum average number of hours per week specified in the following table during the month, not fewer than 20 hours per week of which are attributable to a work activity:

"If the month is in fiscal year:	The minimum average number of hours per week is:
1996	20
1997	20
1998	20
1999	25
2000	30
2001	30
2002	35
2003 or thereafter	35.

''(2) 2-PARENT FAMILIES.—For purposes of subsection (b)(2)(A), an adult is engaged in work for a month in a fiscal year if the adult is participating in work for at least 35 hours per week during the month, not fewer than 30 hours per week of which are attributable to work activities described in paragraph (3).

''(3) DEFINITION OF WORK ACTIVITIES.—For purposes of this subsection, the term 'work activities' means—

''(A) unsubsidized employment;

''(B) subsidized employment;

''(C) on-the-job training;

''(D) community service programs; and

''(E) job search (only for the first 4 weeks in which an individual is required to participate in work activities under this section).

''(d) PENALTIES AGAINST INDIVIDUALS.—If an adult in a family receiving assistance under the State program funded under this part refuses to engage in work required under subsection (c)(1) or (c)(2), a State to which a grant is made under section 403 shall—

''(1) reduce the amount of assistance that would otherwise be payable to the family; or

''(2) terminate such assistance, subject to such good cause and other exceptions as the State may establish.

''(e) NONDISPLACEMENT IN WORK ACTIVITIES.—

''(1) IN GENERAL.—Subject to paragraph (2), an adult in a family receiving assistance under this part may fill a vacant employment position in order to engage in a work activity described in subsection (c)(3).

''(2) NO FILLING OF CERTAIN VACANCIES.—No adult described in paragraph (1) shall be employed, or job opening filled, by such an adult—

''(A) when any other individual is on layoff from the same or any substantially equivalent job; or

''(B) when the employer has terminated the employment of any regular employee or otherwise reduced its workforce with the intention of filling the vacancy so created by hiring an adult described in paragraph (1).

''(f) SENSE OF THE CONGRESS.—It is the sense of the Congress that in complying with this section, each State that operates a program funded under this part is encouraged to assign the highest priority to requiring adults in 2-parent families and adults in single-parent families that include older preschool or school-age children to be engaged in work activities.

''(g) DELIVERY THROUGH STATEWIDE SYSTEM.—

''(1) IN GENERAL.—Each work program carried out by the State to provide work activities in order to comply with this section shall be delivered through the statewide workforce development system established in section 711 of the Work Opportunity Act of 1995 unless a required work activity is not available locally through the statewide workforce development system.

''(2) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The provisions of paragraph (1) shall take effect—

''(A) in a State described in section 815(b)(1) of the Work Opportunity Act of 1995; and

''(B) in any other State, on July 1, 1998.

''SEC. 405. REQUIREMENTS AND LIMITATIONS.

''(a) STATE REQUIRED TO ENTER INTO A PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY CONTRACT WITH EACH FAMILY RECEIVING ASSISTANCE.—Each State to which a grant is made under section 403 shall require each family receiving assistance under the State program funded under this part to have entered into a personal responsibility contract (as developed by the State) with the State.

''(b) NO ASSISTANCE FOR MORE THAN 5 YEARS.—

''(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided under paragraphs (2) and (3), a State to which a grant is made under section 403 may not use any part of the grant to provide assistance to a family that includes an adult who has received assistance under the program operated under this part for the lesser of—

''(A) the period of time established at the option of the State; or

''(B) 60 months (whether or not consecutive) after September 30, 1995.

''(2) MINOR CHILD EXCEPTION.—If an individual received assistance under the State program operated under this part as a minor child in a needy family, any period during which such individual's family received assistance shall not be counted for purposes of applying the limitation described in paragraph (1) to an application for assistance under such program by such individual as the head of a household of a needy family with minor children.

''(3) HARDSHIP EXCEPTION.—

''(A) IN GENERAL.—The State may exempt a family from the application of paragraph (1) by reason of hardship.

''(B) LIMITATION.—The number of families with respect to which an exemption made by a State under subparagraph (A) is in effect for a fiscal year shall not exceed 15 percent of the average monthly number of families to which the State is providing assistance under the program operated under this part.

''(c) DENIAL OF ASSISTANCE FOR 10 YEARS TO A PERSON FOUND TO HAVE FRAUDULENTLY MISREPRESENTED RESIDENCE IN ORDER TO OBTAIN ASSISTANCE IN 2 OR MORE STATES.—An individual shall not be considered an eligible individual for the purposes of this part during the 10-year period that begins on the date the individual is convicted in Federal or State court of having made a fraudulent statement or representation with respect to the place of residence of the individual in order to receive assistance simultaneously from 2 or more States under programs that are funded under this title, title XIX, or the Food Stamp Act of 1977, or benefits in 2 or more States under the supplemental security income program under title XVI.

''(d) DENIAL OF ASSISTANCE FOR FUGITIVE FELONS AND PROBATION AND PAROLE VIOLATORS.—

''(1) IN GENERAL.—An individual shall not be considered an eligible individual for the purposes of this part if such individual is—

''(A) fleeing to avoid prosecution, or custody or confinement after conviction, under the laws of the place from which the individual flees, for a crime, or an attempt to commit a crime, which is a felony under the laws of the place from which the individual flees, or which, in the case of the State of New Jersey, is a high misdemeanor under the laws of such State; or

''(B) violating a condition of probation or parole imposed under Federal or State law.

''(2) EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION WITH LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a State shall furnish any Federal, State, or local law enforcement officer, upon the request of the officer, with the current address of any recipient of assistance under this part, if the officer furnishes the agency with the name of the recipient and notifies the agency that—

''(A) such recipient—

''(i) is described in subparagraph (A) or (B) of paragraph (1); or

''(ii) has information that is necessary for the officer to conduct the officer's official duties; and

''(B) the location or apprehension of the recipient is within such officer's official duties.

''SEC. 406. PROMOTING RESPONSIBLE PARENTING.

''(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress makes the following findings:

''(1) Marriage is the foundation of a successful society.

''(2) Marriage is an essential institution of a successful society which promotes the interests of children.

''(3) Promotion of responsible fatherhood and motherhood is integral to successful child rearing and the wellbeing of children.

''(4) In 1992, only 54 percent of single-parent families with children had a child support order established and, of that 54 percent, only about one half received the full amount due. Of the cases enforced through the public child support enforcement system, only 18 percent of the caseload has a collection.

''(5) The number of individuals receiving aid to families with dependent children (hereafter in this subsection referred to as 'AFDC') has more than tripled since 1965. More than two-thirds of these recipients are children. Eighty-nine percent of children receiving AFDC benefits now live in homes in which no father is present.

''(A)(i) The average monthly number of children receiving AFDC benefits—

''(I) was 3,300,000 in 1965;

''(II) was 6,200,000 in 1970;

''(III) was 7,400,000 in 1980; and

''(IV) was 9,300,000 in 1992.

''(ii) While the number of children receiving AFDC benefits increased nearly threefold between 1965 and 1992, the total number of children in the United States aged 0 to 18 has declined by 5.5 percent.

''(B) The Department of Health and Human Services has estimated that 12,000,000 children will receive AFDC benefits within 10 years.

''(C) The increase in the number of children receiving public assistance is closely related to the increase in births to unmarried women. Between 1970 and 1991, the percentage of live births to unmarried women increased nearly threefold, from 10.7 percent to 29.5 percent.

''(6) The increase of out-of-wedlock pregnancies and births is well documented as follows:

''(A) It is estimated that the rate of nonmarital teen pregnancy rose 23 percent from 54 pregnancies per 1,000 unmarried teenagers in 1976 to 66.7 pregnancies in 1991. The overall rate of nonmarital pregnancy rose 14 percent from 90.8 pregnancies per 1,000 unmarried women in 1980 to 103 in both 1991 and 1992. In contrast, the overall pregnancy rate for married couples decreased 7.3 percent between 1980 and 1991, from 126.9 pregnancies per 1,000 married women in 1980 to 117.6 pregnancies in 1991.

''(B) The total of all out-of-wedlock births between 1970 and 1991 has risen from 10.7 percent to 29.5 percent and if the current trend continues, 50 percent of all births by the year 2015 will be out-of-wedlock.

''(7) The negative consequences of an out-of-wedlock birth on the mother, the child, the family, and society are well documented as follows:

''(A) Young women 17 and under who give birth outside of marriage are more likely to go on public assistance and to spend more years on welfare once enrolled. These combined effects of 'younger and longer' increase total AFDC costs per household by 25 percent to 30 percent for 17-year olds.

''(B) Children born out-of-wedlock have a substantially higher risk of being born at a very low or moderately low birth weight.

''(C) Children born out-of-wedlock are more likely to experience low verbal cognitive attainment, as well as more child abuse, and neglect.

''(D) Children born out-of-wedlock were more likely to have lower cognitive scores, lower educational aspirations, and a greater likelihood of becoming teenage parents themselves.

''(E) Being born out-of-wedlock significantly reduces the chances of the child growing up to have an intact marriage.

''(F) Children born out-of-wedlock are 3 more times likely to be on welfare when they grow up.

''(8) Currently 35 percent of children in single-parent homes were born out-of-wedlock, nearly the same percentage as that of children in single-parent homes whose parents are divorced (37 percent). While many parents find themselves, through divorce or tragic circumstances beyond their control, facing the difficult task of raising children alone, nevertheless, the negative consequences of raising children in single-parent homes are well documented as follows:

''(A) Only 9 percent of married-couple families with children under 18 years of age have income below the national poverty level. In contrast, 46 percent of female-headed households with children under 18 years of age are below the national poverty level.

''(B) Among single-parent families, nearly ½ of the mothers who never married received AFDC while only ⅛ of divorced mothers received AFDC.

''(C) Children born into families receiving welfare assistance are 3 times more likely to be on welfare when they reach adulthood than children not born into families receiving welfare.

''(D) Mothers under 20 years of age are at the greatest risk of bearing low birth-weight babies.

''(E) The younger the single parent mother, the less likely she is to finish high school.

''(F) Young women who have children before finishing high school are more likely to receive welfare assistance for a longer period of time.

''(G) Between 1985 and 1990, the public cost of births to teenage mothers under the aid to families with dependent children program, the food stamp program, and the medicaid program has been estimated at $120,000,000,000.

''(H) The absence of a father in the life of a child has a negative effect on school performance and peer adjustment.

''(I) Children of teenage single parents have lower cognitive scores, lower educational aspirations, and a greater likelihood of becoming teenage parents themselves.

''(J) Children of single-parent homes are 3 times more likely to fail and repeat a year in grade school than are children from intact two-parent families.

''(K) Children from single-parent homes are almost 4 times more likely to be expelled or suspended from school.

''(L) Neighborhoods with larger percentages of youth aged 12 through 20 and areas with higher percentages of single-parent households have higher rates of violent crime.

''(M) Of those youth held for criminal offenses within the State juvenile justice system, only 29.8 percent lived primarily in a home with both parents. In contrast to these incarcerated youth, 73.9 percent of the 62,800,000 children in the Nation's resident population were living with both parents.

''(9) Therefore, in light of this demonstration of the crisis in our Nation, it is the sense of the Congress that prevention of out-of-wedlock pregnancy and reduction in out-of-wedlock birth are very important Government interests and the policy contained in provisions of this title is intended to address the crisis.

''(b) STATE OPTION TO DENY ASSISTANCE FOR OUT-OF-WEDLOCK BIRTHS TO MINORS.—At the option of the State, a State to which a grant is made under section 403 may provide that the grant shall not be used to provide assistance for a child born out-of-wedlock to an individual who has not attained 18 years of age, or for the individual, until the individual attains such age.

''(c) STATE OPTION TO DENY ASSISTANCE FOR CHILDREN BORN TO FAMILIES RECEIVING ASSISTANCE.—At the option of the State, a State to which a grant is made under section 403 may provide that the grant shall not be used to provide assistance for a minor child who is born to—

''(1) a recipient of assistance under the program funded under this part; or

''(2) an individual who received such benefits at any time during the 10-month period ending with the birth of the child.

''(d) REQUIREMENT THAT TEENAGE PARENTS LIVE IN AN ADULT-SUPERVISED SETTING AND ATTEND SCHOOL.—

''(1) IN GENERAL.—A State to which a grant is made under section 403 shall not use any part of the grant to provide assistance to an individual described in paragraph (2) if—

''(A) the individual and the minor child of the individual do not reside in—

''(i) a place of residence maintained by a parent, legal guardian, or other adult relative of such individual as such parent's, guardian's, or adult relative's own home; or

''(ii) another adult-supervised setting; and

''(B) the individual does not participate in—

''(i) educational activities directed toward the attainment of a high school diploma or its equivalent; or

''(ii) an alternative educational or training program that has been approved by the State.

''(2) INDIVIDUAL DESCRIBED.—An individual described in this paragraph is an individual who—

''(A) is under the age of 18 and is not married; and

''(B) has a minor child in his or her care.

''SEC. 407. STATE PENALTIES.

''(a) IN GENERAL.—Subject to the provisions of subsection (b), the Secretary shall deduct from the grant otherwise payable under section 403 the following penalties:

''(1) FOR USE OF GRANT IN VIOLATION OF THIS PART.—If an audit conducted under section 408 finds that an amount paid to a State under section 403 for a fiscal year has been used in violation of this part, then the Secretary shall reduce the amount of the grant otherwise payable to the State under such section for the immediately succeeding fiscal year quarter by the amount so used, plus 5 percent of such grant (determined without regard to this section).

''(2) FOR FAILURE TO SUBMIT REQUIRED REPORT.—

''(A) IN GENERAL.—If the Secretary determines that a State has not, within 6 months after the end of a fiscal year, submitted the report required by section 409 for the fiscal year, the Secretary shall reduce by 5 percent the amount of the grant that would (in the absence of this section) be payable to the State under section 403 for the immediately succeeding fiscal year.

''(A) IN GENERAL.—If the Secretary determines that a State has failed to satisfy the minimum participation rates specified in section 404(a) for a fiscal year, the Secretary shall reduce by not more than 5 percent the amount of the grant that would (in the absence of this section) be payable to the State under section 403 for the immediately succeeding fiscal year.

''(B) PENALTY BASED ON SEVERITY OF FAILURE.—The Secretary shall impose reductions under subparagraph (A) on the basis of the degree of noncompliance.

''(4) FOR FAILURE TO PARTICIPATE IN THE INCOME AND ELIGIBILITY VERIFICATION SYSTEM.—If the Secretary determines that a State program funded under this part is not participating during a fiscal year in the income and eligibility verification system required by section 1137, the Secretary shall reduce by not more than 5 percent the amount of the grant that would (in the absence of this section) be payable to the State under section 403 for the immediately succeeding fiscal year.

''(5) FOR FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH PATERNITY ESTABLISHMENT AND CHILD SUPPORT ENFORCEMENT REQUIREMENTS UNDER PART D.—Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, if the Secretary determines that the State agency that administers a program funded under this part does not enforce the penalties requested by the agency administering part D against recipients of assistance under the State program who fail to cooperate in establishing paternity in accordance with such part, the Secretary shall reduce by not more than 5 percent the amount of the grant that would (in the absence of this section) be payable to the State under section 403 for the immediately succeeding fiscal year.

''(6) FOR FAILURE TO TIMELY REPAY A FEDERAL LOAN FUND FOR STATE WELFARE PROGRAMS.—If the Secretary determines that a State has failed to repay any amount borrowed from the Federal Loan Fund for State Welfare Programs established under section 403(d) within the period of maturity applicable to such loan, plus any interest owed on such loan, then the Secretary shall reduce the amount of the grant otherwise payable to the State under section 403 for the immediately succeeding fiscal year quarter by the outstanding loan amount, plus the interest owed on such outstanding amount.

''(b) REQUIREMENTS.—

''(1) LIMITATION ON AMOUNT OF PENALTY.—

''(A) IN GENERAL.—In imposing the penalties described in subsection (a), the Secretary shall not reduce any quarterly payment to a State by more than 25 percent.

''(B) CARRYFORWARD OF UNRECOVERED PENALTIES.—To the extent that subparagraph (A) prevents the Secretary from recovering during a fiscal year the full amount of all penalties imposed on a State under subsection (a) for a prior fiscal year, the Secretary shall apply any remaining amount of such penalties to the grant otherwise payable to the State under section 403 for the immediately succeeding fiscal year.

''(2) STATE FUNDS TO REPLACE REDUCTIONS IN GRANT.—A State which has a penalty imposed against it under subsection (a) shall expend additional State funds in an amount equal to the amount of the penalty for the purpose of providing assistance under the State program under this part.

''(3) REASONABLE CAUSE FOR NONCOMPLIANCE.—The Secretary may not impose a penalty on a State under subsection (a) if the Secretary determines that the State has reasonable cause for failing to comply with a requirement for which a penalty is imposed under such subsection.

''(c) CERTIFICATION OF AMOUNT OF PENALTIES.—If the Secretary is required to reduce the amount of any grant under this section, the Secretary shall certify the amount of such reduction to the Secretary of the Treasury and the Secretary of the Treasury shall reduce the amount paid to the State under section 403 by such amount.

''(d) EFFECTIVE DATES.—

''(1) IN GENERAL.—The penalties described in paragraphs (2) through (6) of subsection (a) shall apply with respect to fiscal years beginning on or after October 1, 1996.

''(2) MISUSE OF FUNDS.—The penalties described in subsection (a)(1) shall apply with respect to fiscal years beginning on or after October 1, 1995.

''SEC. 408. AUDITS.

''(2) is approved by the chief executive officer of the State; and

''(3) is independent of any agency administering activities funded under this part.

(A) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall, on a continuing basis, review, assess, and inspect the planning, design, and operation of, statewide management information systems referred to in section 1303(a)(2), with a view to determining whether, and to what extent, such systems meet and continue to meet requirements imposed under such section and the conditions specified under paragraph (10) of subsection (a).

(B) SUSPENSION OF APPROVAL.—If the Secretary finds with respect to any statewide management information system referred to in section 1303(a)(2) that there is a failure substantially to comply with criteria, requirements, and other undertakings, prescribed by the advance automated data processing planning document previously approved by the Secretary with respect to such system, then the Secretary shall suspend his approval of such document until there is no longer any such failure of such system to comply with such criteria, requirements, and other undertakings so prescribed.

(C) REDUCTION OF PAYMENTS UNDER SECTION 1303.—If the Secretary determines that such a system has not been implemented by the State by the date specified for implementation in the State's advance automated data processing planning document, then the Secretary shall reduce payments to such State, in accordance with section 1303(b), in an amount equal to 40 percent of the expenditures referred to in section 1303(a)(2) with respect to which payments were made to the State under section 1303(a)(2). The Secretary may extend the deadline for implementation if the State demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Secretary that the State cannot implement such system by the date specified in such planning document due to circumstances beyond the State's control.

(d) IMPACT ON MEDICAID BENEFITS OF NONCOMPLIANCE WITH CERTAIN TAP AND WAGE REQUIREMENTS.—If a family becomes ineligible to receive transitional aid under the State transitional aid program because an individual in such family fails to comply with the requirements of this subtitle—

(1) a needy child of such family shall remain eligible for medical assistance under the State's plan approved under title XIX of the Social Security Act, and

(2) the family shall be appropriately notified of such extension (in the State agency's notice to the family of the termination of its eligibility for such aid) as required by section 1925(a)(2) of the Social Security Act.

SEC. 1303. PAYMENTS TO STATES.

(a) COMPUTATION OF AMOUNTS.—From the sums appropriated therefor, the Secretary of the Treasury shall pay to each State which has an approved plan for a transitional aid program, for each quarter, beginning with the quarter commencing October 1, 1995, an amount equal to—

(1) the Federal medical assistance percentage (as defined in section 1905(b) of the Social Security Act) of the expenditures by the State for benefits and assistance under such plan, and

(2) 50 percent of so much of the sums expended during such quarter as are attributable to the planning, design, development, or installation of such statewide mechanized claims processing and information retrieval systems as—

(A) meet the conditions of section 1302(a)(10), and

(B) the Secretary determines are likely to provide more efficient, economical, and effective administration of the plan and to be compatible with the claims processing and information retrieval systems utilized in the administration of State plans approved under title XIX of the Social Security Act, and State programs with respect to which there is Federal financial participation under title XX of the Social Security Act.

(b) METHOD OF COMPUTATION AND PAYMENT.—The method of computing and paying such amounts shall be as follows:

(1) ESTIMATES.—The Secretary shall, prior to the beginning of each quarter, estimate the amount to be paid to the State for such quarter under the provisions of subsection (a) of this section, such estimate to be based on—

(A) a report filed by the State containing its estimate of the total sum to be expended in such quarter in accordance with the provisions of such subsection and stating the amount appropriated or made available by the State and its political subdivisions for such expenditures in such quarter, and if such amount is less than the State's proportionate share of the total sum of such estimated expenditures, the source or sources from which the difference is expected to be derived,

(B) records showing the number of needy children in the State, and

(C) such other information as the Secretary may find necessary.

(2) ADJUSTMENTS FOR PRIOR QUARTERS.—The Secretary of Health and Human Services shall then certify to the Secretary of the Treasury the amount so estimated by the Secretary of Health and Human Services—

(A) reduced or increased, as the case may be, by any sum by which the Secretary finds that the Secretary's estimate for any prior quarter was greater or less than the amount which should have been paid to the State for such quarter,

(B) reduced by a sum equivalent to the pro rata share to which the United States is equitably entitled, as determined by the Secretary of Health and Human Services, of the net amount recovered during any prior quarter by the State or any political subdivision thereof with respect to transitional aid to families with needy children furnished under the State plan, and

(C) reduced by such amount as is necessary to provide the ''appropriate reimbursement of the Federal Government'' that the State is required to make under section 457 of the Social Security Act out of that portion of child support collections retained by the State pursuant to such section, except that such increases or reductions shall not be made to the extent that such sums have been applied to make the amount certified for any prior quarter greater or less than the amount estimated by the Secretary of Health and Human Services for such prior quarter.

(3) PAYMENT OF THE AMOUNT CERTIFIED.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall thereupon, through the Fiscal Service of the Department of the Treasury and prior to audit or settlement by the General Accounting Office, pay to the State, at the time or times fixed by the Secretary of Health and Human Services, the amount so certified.

(c) UNIFORM REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.—In order to assist in obtaining the information needed to carry out subsection (b)(1) and otherwise to perform the Secretary's duties under this subtitle, the Secretary shall establish uniform reporting requirements under which each State will be required to furnish data regarding—

(1) the monthly number of families assisted under this subtitle;

(2) the types of such families;

(3) the monthly number of children assisted under this subtitle;

(4) the amounts expended to serve such families and children;

(5) the length of time for which such families and children are assisted;

(6) the number of families and children receiving child care assistance;

(7) the number of families receiving transitional medicaid assistance; and

(8) in what form the amounts of assistance are being spent (the amount spent on wage subsidies compared to the amount spent on cash benefits).

(d) BONUS AMOUNT.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—For fiscal year 1997 and each fiscal year thereafter, a State operating a transitional aid program under subtitle A in the preceding fiscal year meeting the requirements of paragraph (2) shall receive a bonus amount equal to 10 percent of the base payment amount determined for such State under section 1381(b).

(2) REQUIREMENTS.—A transitional aid program meets the requirements of this paragraph if the program—

(A) provides for disregards of earned income for families receiving transitional aid to ensure that a family in which a family member worked part-time in a minimum wage job did not have a lower monthly income after calculation of reasonable work-related expenses than a family of the same size in which a family member did not work;

(B) provides that calculation of the level of transitional aid under the program for a family is based only on the needs of needy children and the caretaker relatives of such children; and

(C) provides for equal treatment of one-parent and two-parent families.

SEC. 1304. DEVIATION FROM PLAN.

(a) STOPPAGE OF PAYMENTS.—In the case of any State plan for transitional aid to families with needy children which has been approved by the Secretary, if the Secretary, after reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing to the State agency administering or supervising the administration of such plan, finds that in the administration of the plan there is a failure to comply substantially with any provision required by section 1302(a) to be included in the plan, the Secretary shall notify such State agency that further payments will not be made to the State (or in the Secretary's discretion, that payments will be limited to categories under or parts of the State plan not affected by such failure) until the Secretary is satisfied that such prohibited requirement is no longer so imposed, and that there is no longer any such failure to comply. Until the Secretary is so satisfied the Secretary shall make no further payments to such State (or shall limit payments to categories under or parts of the State plan not affected by such failure).

(b) MISUSE OF FUNDS.—In any case in which the Secretary finds that a State has misappropriated or misused funds appropriated pursuant to section 1303, the Secretary shall reduce the payment to which the State would otherwise be entitled under this subtitle for the fiscal year following the fiscal year in which such finding is made by an amount equal to two times the amount of funds found to be misused or misappropriated.

SEC. 1305. USE OF PAYMENTS FOR BENEFIT OF CHILDREN.

Whenever the State agency has reason to believe that any payments of transitional aid to families with needy children made with respect to a child are not being or may not be used in the best interests of the child, the State agency may provide for such counseling and guidance services with respect to the use of such payments and the management of other funds by the relative receiving such payments as it deems advisable in order to assure use of such payments in the best interests of such child, and may provide for advising such relative that continued failure to so use such payments will result in substitution therefor of such protective payments as the State may authorize, or in seeking appointment of a guardian or legal representative as provided in section 1111 of the Social Security Act, or in the imposition of criminal or civil penalties authorized under State law if it is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that such relative is not using or has not used for the benefit of the child any such payments made for that purpose; and the provision of such services or advice by the State agency (or the taking of the action specified in such advice) shall not serve as a basis for withholding funds from such State under section 1304 and shall not prevent such payments with respect to such child from being considered transitional aid to families with needy children.

SEC. 1306. SPECIAL RULE.

Each needy child, and each relative with whom such a child is living (including the spouse of such relative), who becomes ineligible for transitional aid to families with needy children as a result (wholly or partly) of the collection or increased collection of child or spousal support under part D of title IV of the Social Security Act, and who has received such aid in at least 3 of the 6 months immediately preceding the month in which such ineligibility begins, shall be deemed to be a recipient of transitional aid to families with needy children for purposes of title XIX of such Act for an additional 4 calendar months beginning with the month in which such ineligibility begins.

SEC. 1307. PERFORMANCE MEASUREMENT SYSTEM.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Not later than July 1, 1996, the Secretary, in consultation with the States, shall submit recommendations to Congress to streamline the system for monitoring the accuracy of payments made for transitional aid to families with needy children and for transforming the transitional aid program into a system that measures a State's performance in moving recipients of such aid into permanent employment.

(b) DETAILS OF RECOMMENDATIONS.—The recommendations required by subsection (a) shall—

(1) be based on a system which replaces the AFDC quality control system (described in section 408 of the Social Security Act as in effect on the day before the date of the enactment of the Work and Gainful Employment Act),

(2) include an effort to ensure the continuity of recipient data collected under the AFDC quality control system and the new streamlined system, and

(3) integrate the performance measurements under the WAGE program and any other applicable performance measurements that are designed to measure the effectiveness of States in promoting work.

SEC. 1308. EXCLUSION FROM TRANSITIONAL AID PROGRAM UNIT OF INDIVIDUALS FOR WHOM CERTAIN PAYMENTS ARE MADE.

(a) EXCLUSION OF CHILDREN RECEIVING FOSTER CARE, ETC.—Notwithstanding any other provision of this title (other than subsection (b))—

(1) a child with respect to whom foster care maintenance payments or adoption assistance payments are made under part E of title IV of the Social Security Act or under State or local law, or a child or parent receiving benefits under title XVI of such Act, shall not, for the period for which such payments are made, be regarded as a member of a family for purposes of determining the amount of benefits of the family under this subtitle; and

(2) the income and resources of such child or parent shall be excluded from the income and resources of a family under this subtitle.

(b) LIMITATION.—Subsection (a) of this section shall not apply in the case of a child with respect to whom adoption assistance payments are made under part E of title IV of the Social Security Act or under State or local law, if application of such subsection would reduce the benefits under this subtitle of the family of which the child would otherwise be regarded as a member.

SEC. 1309. TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE FOR DEVELOPING MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SYSTEMS.

The Secretary shall provide such technical assistance to States as the Secretary determines necessary to assist States to plan, design, develop, or install and provide for the security of, the management information systems referred to in section 1303(a)(2).

SEC. 1310. FRAUD CONTROL.

(a) ELECTION FOR FRAUD CONTROL PROGRAM.—Any State, in the administration of its State plan approved under section 1302, may elect to establish and operate a fraud control program in accordance with this section.

(b) PENALTY FOR FALSE OR MISLEADING STATEMENT OR MISREPRESENTATION OF FACT.—Under any such program, if an individual who is a member of a family applying for or receiving aid under the State plan approved under section 1302 is found by a Federal or State court or pursuant to an administrative hearing meeting requirements determined in regulations of the Secretary, on the basis of a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or otherwise, to have intentionally—

(1) made a false or misleading statement or misrepresented, concealed, or withheld facts, or

(2) committed any act intended to mislead, misrepresent, conceal, or withhold facts or propound a falsity, for the purpose of establishing or maintaining the family's eligibility for aid under such State plan or of increasing (or preventing a reduction in) the amount of such aid, then the needs of such individual shall not be taken into account by the State in determining eligibility for transitional aid under this subtitle with respect to his or her family—

(A) for a period of 6 months upon the first occasion of any such offense,

(B) for a period of 12 months upon the second occasion of any such offense, and

(C) permanently upon the third or a subsequent occasion of any such offense.

(c) PROCEEDINGS AGAINST VIOLATORS BY STATE AGENCY.—The State agency involved shall proceed against any individual alleged to have committed an offense described in subsection (b) either by way of administrative hearing or by referring the matter to the appropriate authorities for civil or criminal action in a court of law. The State agency shall coordinate its actions under this section with any corresponding actions being taken under the food stamp program in any case where the factual issues involved arise from the same or related circumstances.

(d) DURATION OF PERIOD OF SANCTIONS; REVIEW.—Any period for which sanctions are imposed under subsection (b) shall remain in effect, without possibility of administrative stay, unless and until the finding upon which the sanctions were imposed is subsequently reversed by a court of appropriate jurisdiction; but in no event shall the duration of the period for which such sanctions are imposed be subject to review.

(e) ADDITIONAL SANCTIONS PROVIDED BY LAW.—The sanctions provided under subsection (b) shall be in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other sanctions which may be provided for by law with respect to the offenses involved.

(f) WRITTEN NOTICE OF PENALTIES FOR FRAUD.—Each State which has elected to establish and operate a fraud control program under this section must provide all applicants for transitional aid to families with needy children under its approved State plan, at the time of their application for such aid, with a written notice of the penalties for fraud which are provided for under this section.

SEC. 1311. ASSISTANT SECRETARY FOR FAMILY SUPPORT.

The programs under this title and part D of title IV of the Social Security Act shall be administered by an Assistant Secretary for Family Support within the Department of Health and Human Services, who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and who shall be in addition to any other Assistant Secretary of Health and Human Services provided for by law.

(2) METHODS OF OBTAINING OBJECTIVE.—The objective of the program under paragraph (1) shall be achieved by connecting recipients of transitional aid with the private sector labor market as soon as possible and offering them the support and skills necessary to remain in the labor market. Each component of the program should seek to attain the objective by emphasizing employment and conveying an understanding that minimum wage jobs are a stepping stone to more highly paid employment. The program is intended to provide recipients with job search and placement, education, training, wage supplementation, temporary subsidized jobs, or such other services as the State deems necessary to help a recipient obtain private sector employment.

(3) JOB CREATION.—The creation of jobs, with an emphasis on private sector jobs, shall be a component of the program and shall be a priority for each State office that has responsibility under the program.

(4) ASSISTANCE.—The State may provide assistance to participants in the program in the following forms:

''(1) APPROVAL OF AUTOMATED DATA PROCESSING PLANNING DOCUMENT.—The Secretary shall not approve the initial and annually updated advance automated data processing planning document, referred to in paragraph (2), unless the Secretary finds that such document, when implemented, will generally carry out the objectives of the statewide management system referred to in such paragraph, and such document—

''(A) provides for the conduct of, and reflects the results of, requirements analysis studies, which include consideration of the program mission, functions, organization, services, constraints, and current support, of, in, or relating to, such system,

''(B) contains a description of the proposed statewide management system, including a description of information flows, input data, and output reports and uses,

''(D) describes the projected resource requirements for staff and other needs, and the resources available or expected to be available to meet such requirements,

''(E) includes cost-benefit analyses of each alternative management system, data processing services and equipment, and a cost allocation plan containing the basis for rates, both direct and indirect, to be in effect under such statewide management system,

''(F) contains an implementation plan with charts of development events, testing descriptions, proposed acceptance criteria, and backup and fallback procedures to handle possible failure of contingencies, and

''(G) contains a summary of proposed improvements of such statewide management system in terms of qualitative and quantitative benefits.

''(2) SECRETARIAL REVIEW.—

''(A) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall, on a continuing basis, review, assess, and inspect the planning, design, and operation of, statewide management information systems referred to in section 403(a)(2), with a view to determining whether, and to what extent, such systems meet and continue to meet requirements imposed under such section and the conditions specified under paragraph (10) of subsection (a).

''(B) SUSPENSION OF APPROVAL.—If the Secretary finds with respect to any statewide management information system referred to in section 403(a)(2) that there is a failure substantially to comply with criteria, requirements, and other undertakings, prescribed by the advance automated data processing planning document previously approved by the Secretary with respect to such system, then the Secretary shall suspend his approval of such document until there is no longer any such failure of such system to comply with such criteria, requirements, and other undertakings so prescribed.

''(C) REDUCTION OF PAYMENTS UNDER SECTION 403.—If the Secretary determines that such a system has not been implemented by the State by the date specified for implementation in the State's advance automated data processing planning document, then the Secretary shall reduce payments to such State, in accordance with section 403(b), in an amount equal to 40 percent of the expenditures referred to in section 403(a)(2) with respect to which payments were made to the State under section 403(a)(2). The Secretary may extend the deadline for implementation if the State demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Secretary that the State cannot implement such system by the date specified in such planning document due to circumstances beyond the State's control.

''(d) TEMPORARY DISQUALIFICATION OF CERTAIN NEWLY LEGALIZED ALIENS.—For temporary disqualification of certain newly legalized aliens from receiving transitional aid to families with needy children, see subsection (h) of section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1255a), subsection (f) of section 210 of such Act (8 U.S.C. 1160), and subsection (d)(7) of section 210A of such Act (8 U.S.C. 1161).

''(e) IMPACT ON MEDICAID BENEFITS OF NONCOMPLIANCE WITH CERTAIN TAP AND WAGE REQUIREMENTS.—If a family becomes ineligible to receive transitional aid under the State transitional aid program because an individual in such family fails to comply with the requirements of this part—

''(1) a needy child of such family shall remain eligible for medical assistance under the State's plan approved under title XIX, and

''(2) the family shall be appropriately notified of such extension (in the State agency's notice to the family of the termination of its eligibility for such aid) as required by section 1925(a)(2).

''SEC. 403. PAYMENTS TO STATES.

''(a) COMPUTATION OF AMOUNTS.—From the sums appropriated therefor, the Secretary of the Treasury shall pay to each State which has an approved plan for a transitional aid program, for each quarter, beginning with the quarter commencing October 1, 1995, an amount equal to—

''(1) the Federal medical assistance percentage (as defined in section 1905(b)) of the expenditures by the State for benefits and assistance under such plan, and

''(2) 50 percent of so much of the sums expended during such quarter as are attributable to the planning, design, development, or installation of such statewide mechanized claims processing and information retrieval systems as—

''(A) meet the conditions of section 402(a)(10), and

''(B) the Secretary determines are likely to provide more efficient, economical, and effective administration of the plan and to be compatible with the claims processing and information retrieval systems utilized in the administration of State plans approved under title XIX, and State programs with respect to which there is Federal financial participation under title XX.

''(b) METHOD OF COMPUTATION AND PAYMENT.—The method of computing and paying such amounts shall be as follows:

''(1) ESTIMATES.—The Secretary shall, prior to the beginning of each quarter, estimate the amount to be paid to the State for such quarter under the provisions of subsection (a) of this section, such estimate to be based on—

''(A) a report filed by the State containing its estimate of the total sum to be expended in such quarter in accordance with the provisions of such subsection and stating the amount appropriated or made available by the State and its political subdivisions for such expenditures in such quarter, and if such amount is less than the State's proportionate share of the total sum of such estimated expenditures, the source or sources from which the difference is expected to be derived,

''(B) records showing the number of needy children in the State, and

''(C) such other information as the Secretary may find necessary.

''(2) ADJUSTMENTS FOR PRIOR QUARTERS.—The Secretary of Health and Human Services shall then certify to the Secretary of the Treasury the amount so estimated by the Secretary of Health and Human Services—

''(A) reduced or increased, as the case may be, by any sum by which the Secretary finds that the Secretary's estimate for any prior quarter was greater or less than the amount which should have been paid to the State for such quarter,

''(B) reduced by a sum equivalent to the pro rata share to which the United States is equitably entitled, as determined by the Secretary of Health and Human Services, of the net amount recovered during any prior quarter by the State or any political subdivision thereof with respect to transitional aid to families with needy children furnished under the State plan, and

''(C) reduced by such amount as is necessary to provide the 'appropriate reimbursement of the Federal Government' that the State is required to make under section 457 out of that portion of child support collections retained by the State pursuant to such section, except that such increases or reductions shall not be made to the extent that such sums have been applied to make the amount certified for any prior quarter greater or less than the amount estimated by the Secretary of Health and Human Services for such prior quarter.

''(3) PAYMENT OF THE AMOUNT CERTIFIED.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall thereupon, through the Fiscal Service of the Department of the Treasury and prior to audit or settlement by the General Accounting Office, pay to the State, at the time or times fixed by the Secretary of Health and Human Services, the amount so certified.

''(c) UNIFORM REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.—In order to assist in obtaining the information needed to carry out subsection (b)(1) and otherwise to perform the Secretary's duties under this part, the Secretary shall establish uniform reporting requirements under which each State will be required to furnish data regarding—

''(1) the monthly number of families assisted under this part;

''(2) the types of such families;

''(3) the monthly number of children assisted under this part;

''(4) the amounts expended to serve such families and children;

''(5) the length of time for which such families and children are assisted;

''(6) the number of families and children receiving child care assistance;

''(7) the number of families receiving transitional medicaid assistance; and

''(8) in what form the amounts of assistance are being spent (the amount spent on wage subsidies compared to the amount spent on cash benefits).

''(d) BONUS AMOUNT.—

''(1) IN GENERAL.—For fiscal year 1997 and each fiscal year thereafter, a State operating a transitional aid program under part A in the preceding fiscal year meeting the requirements of paragraph (2) shall receive a bonus amount equal to 10 percent of the base payment amount determined for such State under section 481(b).

''(2) REQUIREMENTS.—A transitional aid program meets the requirements of this paragraph if the program—

''(A) provides for disregards of earned income for families receiving transitional aid to ensure that a family in which a family member worked part-time in a minimum wage job did not have a lower monthly income after calculation of reasonable work-related expenses than a family of the same size in which a family member did not work;

''(B) provides that calculation of the level of transitional aid under the program for a family is based only on the needs of needy children and the caretaker relatives of such children; and

''(C) provides for equal treatment of one-parent and two-parent families.

''SEC. 404. DEVIATION FROM PLAN.

''(a) STOPPAGE OF PAYMENTS.—In the case of any State plan for transitional aid to families with needy children which has been approved by the Secretary, if the Secretary, after reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing to the State agency administering or supervising the administration of such plan, finds that in the administration of the plan there is a failure to comply substantially with any provision required by section 402(a) to be included in the plan, the Secretary shall notify such State agency that further payments will not be made to the State (or in the Secretary's discretion, that payments will be limited to categories under or parts of the State plan not affected by such failure) until the Secretary is satisfied that such prohibited requirement is no longer so imposed, and that there is no longer any such failure to comply. Until the Secretary is so satisfied the Secretary shall make no further payments to such State (or shall limit payments to categories under or parts of the State plan not affected by such failure).

''(b) MISUSE OF FUNDS.—In any case in which the Secretary finds that a State has misappropriated or misused funds appropriated pursuant to section 403, the Secretary shall reduce the payment to which the State would otherwise be entitled under this part for the fiscal year following the fiscal year in which such finding is made by an amount equal to two times the amount of funds found to be misused or misappropriated.

''SEC. 405. USE OF PAYMENTS FOR BENEFIT OF CHILDREN.

''Whenever the State agency has reason to believe that any payments of transitional aid to families with needy children made with respect to a child are not being or may not be used in the best interests of the child, the State agency may provide for such counseling and guidance services with respect to the use of such payments and the management of other funds by the relative receiving such payments as it deems advisable in order to assure use of such payments in the best interests of such child, and may provide for advising such relative that continued failure to so use such payments will result in substitution therefor of such protective payments as the State may authorize, or in seeking appointment of a guardian or legal representative as provided in section 1111, or in the imposition of criminal or civil penalties authorized under State law if it is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that such relative is not using or has not used for the benefit of the child any such payments made for that purpose; and the provision of such services or advice by the State agency (or the taking of the action specified in such advice) shall not serve as a basis for withholding funds from such State under section 404 and shall not prevent such payments with respect to such child from being considered transitional aid to families with needy children.

''SEC. 406. SPECIAL RULE.

''Each needy child, and each relative with whom such a child is living (including the spouse of such relative), who becomes ineligible for transitional aid to families with needy children as a result (wholly or partly) of the collection or increased collection of child or spousal support under part D of this title, and who has received such aid in at least 3 of the 6 months immediately preceding the month in which such ineligibility begins, shall be deemed to be a recipient of transitional aid to families with needy children for purposes of title XIX for an additional 4 calendar months beginning with the month in which such ineligibility begins.

''SEC. 407. PERFORMANCE MEASUREMENT SYSTEM.

''(a) IN GENERAL.—Not later than July 1, 1996, the Secretary, in consultation with the States, shall submit recommendations to Congress to streamline the system for monitoring the accuracy of payments made for transitional aid to families with needy children and for transforming the transitional aid program into a system that measures a State's performance in moving recipients of such aid into permanent employment.

''(b) DETAILS OF RECOMMENDATIONS.—The recommendations required by subsection (a) shall—

''(1) be based on a system which replaces the AFDC quality control system (described in section 408 of the Social Security Act as in effect on the day before the date of the enactment of the Work and Gainful Employment Act),

''(2) include an effort to ensure the continuity of recipient data collected under the AFDC quality control system and the new streamlined system, and

''(3) integrate the performance measurements under the WAGE program and any other applicable performance measurements that are designed to measure the effectiveness of States in promoting work.

''SEC. 408. EXCLUSION FROM TRANSITIONAL AID PROGRAM UNIT OF INDIVIDUALS FOR WHOM CERTAIN PAYMENTS ARE MADE.

''(a) EXCLUSION OF CHILDREN RECEIVING FOSTER CARE, ETC.—Notwithstanding any other provision of this title (other than subsection (b))—

''(1) a child with respect to whom foster care maintenance payments or adoption assistance payments are made under part E of this title or under State or local law, or a child or parent receiving benefits under title XVI of this Act, shall not, for the period for which such payments are made, be regarded as a member of a family for purposes of determining the amount of benefits of the family under this part; and

''(2) the income and resources of such child or parent shall be excluded from the income and resources of a family under this part.

''(b) LIMITATION.—Subsection (a) of this section shall not apply in the case of a child with respect to whom adoption assistance payments are made under part E of this title or under State or local law, if application of such subsection would reduce the benefits under this part of the family of which the child would otherwise be regarded as a member.

''SEC. 409. TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE FOR DEVELOPING MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SYSTEMS.

''The Secretary shall provide such technical assistance to States as the Secretary determines necessary to assist States to plan, design, develop, or install and provide for the security of, the management information systems referred to in section 403(a)(2).

''SEC. 410. ATTRIBUTION OF INCOME AND RESOURCES OF SPONSOR AND SPOUSE TO ALIEN.

''(a) APPLICABILITY; TIME PERIOD.—For purposes of determining eligibility for and the amount of benefits under a State plan approved under this part for an individual who is a qualified alien described in section 402(a)(7), the income and resources of any person who (as a sponsor of such individual's entry into the United States) executed an affidavit of support or similar agreement with respect to such individual, and the income and resources of the sponsor's spouse, shall be deemed to be the unearned income and resources of such individual (in accordance with subsections (b) and (c) of this section) for a period determined under section 802 of the Work and Gainful Employment Act, except that this section is not applicable if such individual is a needy child and such sponsor (or such sponsor's spouse) is the parent of such child.

''(b) COMPUTATION.—

''(B) The amount determined under subparagraph (A) shall be reduced by an amount equal to the sum of—

''(i) the lesser of—

''(I) 20 percent of the total of any amounts received by the sponsor and his spouse in such month as wages or salary or as net earnings from self employment, plus the full amount of any costs incurred by them in producing self-employment income in such month, or

''(II) $175;

''(ii) the cash needs standard established by the State under its plan for a family of the same size and composition as the sponsor and those other individuals living in the same household as the sponsor who are claimed by him as dependents for purposes of determining his Federal personal income tax liability but whose needs are not taken into account by the State for the purpose of determining eligibility for transitional aid under this part;

''(iii) any amounts paid by the sponsor (or his spouse) to individuals not living in such household who are claimed by him as dependents for purposes of determining his Federal personal income tax liability; and

''(iv) any payments of alimony or child support with respect to individuals not living in such household.

''(2) AMOUNT DEEMED RESOURCES.—The amount of resources of a sponsor (and his spouse) which shall be deemed to be the resources of a qualified alien for any month shall be determined as follows:

''(1) INFORMATION REQUIRED.—Any individual who is an alien and whose sponsor was a public or private agency shall be ineligible for aid under a State plan approved under this part during the period determined under section 802 of the Work and Gainful Employment Act, unless the State agency administering such plan determines that such sponsor either no longer exists or has become unable to meet such individual's needs; and such determination shall be made by the State agency based upon such criteria as it may specify in the State plan, and upon such documentary evidence as it may therein require. Any such individual, and any other individual who is a qualified alien (as a condition of his or her eligibility for aid under a State plan approved under this part during the period determined under section 802 of the Work and Gainful Employment Act, shall be required to provide to the State agency administering such plan such information and documentation with respect to his sponsor as may be necessary in order for the State agency to make any determination required under this section, and to obtain any cooperation from such sponsor necessary for any such determination. ''(2) COOPERATION WITH SECRETARY OF STATE AND ATTORNEY GENERAL.—The Secretary shall enter into agreements with the Secretary of State and the Attorney General whereby any information available to them and required in order to make any determination under this section will be provided by them to the Secretary (who may, in turn, make such information available, upon request, to a concerned State agency), and whereby the Secretary of State and Attorney General will inform any sponsor of an alien, at the time such sponsor executes an affidavit of support or similar agreement, of the requirements imposed by this section.

''(d) JOINT AND SEVERAL LIABILITY OF ALIEN AND SPONSOR FOR OVERPAYMENT OF AID DURING SPECIFIED PERIOD FOLLOWING ENTRY.—Any sponsor of a qualified alien, and such alien, shall be jointly and severally liable for an amount equal to any overpayment of aid under the State plan made to such alien during the period determined under section 802 of the Work and Gainful Employment Act, on account of such sponsor's failure to provide correct information under the provisions of this section, except where such sponsor was without fault, or where good cause of such failure existed. Any such overpayment which is not repaid to the State or recovered in accordance with the procedures generally applicable under the State plan to the recoupment of overpayments shall be withheld from any subsequent payment to which such alien or such sponsor is entitled under any provision of this Act.

''(e) DIVISION OF INCOME AND RESOURCES OF INDIVIDUAL SPONSORING TWO OR MORE ALIENS LIVING IN SAME HOME.—

''(1) IN GENERAL.—In any case where a person is the sponsor of two or more alien individuals who are living in the same home, the income and resources of such sponsor (and his spouse), to the extent they would be deemed the income and resources of any one of such individuals under the preceding provisions of this section, shall be divided into two or more equal shares (the number of shares being the same as the number of such alien individuals) and the income and resources of each such individual shall be deemed to include one such share.

''(2) DEEMED INCOME AND RESOURCES.—Income and resources of a sponsor (and his spouse) which are deemed under this section to be the income and resources of any alien individual in a family shall not be considered in determining the need of other family members except to the extent such income or resources are actually available to such other members.

''(f) ALIENS NOT COVERED.—The provisions of this section shall not apply with respect to any alien who is—

''(b) PENALTY FOR FALSE OR MISLEADING STATEMENT OR MISREPRESENTATION OF

FACT.—Under any such program, if an individual who is a member of a family applying for or receiving aid under the State plan approved under section 402 is found by a Federal or State court or pursuant to an administrative hearing meeting requirements determined in regulations of the Secretary, on the basis of a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or otherwise, to have intentionally—

''(1) made a false or misleading statement or misrepresented, concealed, or withheld facts, or

''(2) committed any act intended to mislead, misrepresent, conceal, or withhold facts or propound a falsity, for the purpose of establishing or maintaining the family's eligibility for aid under such State plan or of increasing (or preventing a reduction in) the amount of such aid, then the needs of such individual shall not be taken into account by the State in determining eligibility for transitional aid under this part with respect to his or her family—

The State agency shall coordinate its actions under this section with any corresponding actions being taken under the food stamp program in any case where the factual issues involved arise from the same or related circumstances.

''(d) DURATION OF PERIOD OF SANCTIONS; REVIEW.—Any period for which sanctions are imposed under subsection (b) shall remain in effect, without possibility of administrative stay, unless and until the finding upon which the sanctions were imposed is subsequently reversed by a court of appropriate jurisdiction; but in no event shall the duration of the period for which such sanctions are imposed be subject to review.

''(e) ADDITIONAL SANCTIONS PROVIDED BY LAW.—The sanctions provided under subsection (b) shall be in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other sanctions which may be provided for by law with respect to the offenses involved.

''(f) WRITTEN NOTICE OF PENALTIES FOR FRAUD.—Each State which has elected to establish and operate a fraud control program under this section must provide all applicants for transitional aid to families with needy children under its approved State plan, at the time of their application for such aid, with a written notice of the penalties for fraud which are provided for under this section.

''(o)(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if the Commissioner of Social Security determines that an individual, who is 18 years of age or older, is eligible to receive benefits pursuant to section 1614(a)(3), the Commissioner shall, at the time of the determination, either exempt the individual from an eligibility review or establish a schedule for reviewing the individual's continuing eligibility in accordance with paragraph (2).

''(2)(A) The Commissioner shall establish a periodic review with respect to the continuing eligibility of an individual to receive benefits, unless the individual is exempt from review under subparagraph (C) or is subject to a scheduled review under subparagraph (B). A periodic review under this subparagraph shall be initiated by the Commissioner not later than 30 months after the date a determination is made that the individual is eligible for benefits and every 30 months thereafter, unless a waiver is granted under section 221(i)(2). However, the Commissioner shall not postpone the initiation of a periodic review for more than 12 months in any case in which such waiver has been granted unless exigent circumstances require such postponement.

''(B)(i) In the case of an individual, other than an individual who is exempt from review under subparagraph (C) or with respect to whom subparagraph (A) applies, the Commissioner shall schedule a review regarding the individual's continuing eligibility to receive benefits at any time the Commissioner determines, based on the evidence available, that there is a significant possibility that the individual may cease to be entitled to such benefits.

''(ii) The Commissioner may establish classifications of individuals for whom a review of continuing eligibility is scheduled based on the impairments that are the basis for such individuals' eligibility for benefits. A review of an individual covered by a classification shall be scheduled in accordance with the applicable classification, unless the Commissioner determines that applying such schedule is inconsistent with the purpose of this Act or the integrity of the supplemental security income program.

''(ii) The Commissioner may establish classifications of individuals who are exempt from review under this subsection based on the impairments that are the basis for such individuals' eligibility for benefits. Notwithstanding any such classification, the Commissioner may, at the time of determining an individual's eligibility, schedule a review of such individual's continuing eligibility if the Commissioner determines that a review is necessary to preserve the integrity of the supplemental security income program.

''(3) The Commissioner may revise a determination made under paragraph (1) and schedule a review under paragraph (2)(B), if the Commissioner obtains credible evidence that an individual may no longer be eligible for benefits or the Commissioner determines that a review is necessary to maintain the integrity of the supplemental security income program. Information obtained under section 1137 may be used as the basis to schedule a review.

''(4)(i) The requirements of sections 1614(a)(4) and 1633 shall apply to reviews conducted under this subsection.

''(ii) Such reviews may be conducted by the applicable State agency or the Commissioner, whichever is appropriate.''.

The Secretary of Labor and the Secretary of Education, acting jointly on the advice of the Federal Partnership, may decide to reduce only the portion of the allotment for such activities.

The Secretary of Labor and the Secretary of Education, acting jointly on the advice of the Federal Partnership, may decide to reduce only the portion of the allotment for such activities.

(2) making the school facilities available for community and neighborhood clubs, civic associations and organizations, Boy and Girl Scouts and similar organizations, adult education classes, organized sports, parental education classes, and other educational, recreational, and social activities.

(B) WAIVER.—The Federal Partnership may waive the requirements of this section (with respect to not more than 5 percent of expenditures by any State educational agency) for

No level of funding permitted under such a waiver may be used as the basis for computing the fiscal effort or aggregate expenditures required under this section for years subsequent to the year covered by such waiver. through the statewide system.

(f) LIMITATIONS.—

(1) WAGES.—No funds provided under this subtitle shall be used to pay the wages of incumbent workers during their participation in economic development activities provided through the statewide system.

(2) RELOCATION.—No funds provided under this subtitle shall be used or proposed for use to encourage or induce the relocation, of a business or part of a business, that results in a loss of employment for any employee of such business at the original location.

(3) TRAINING AND ASSESSMENTS FOLLOWING RELOCATION.—No funds provided under this subtitle shall be used for customized or skill training, on-the-job training, or company specific assessments of job applicants or workers, for any business or part of a business, that has relocated, until 120 days after the date on which such business commences operations at the new location, if the relocation of such business or part of a business, results in a loss of employment for any worker of such business at the original location.

(1) DIPLOMA OR EQUIVALENT.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—No individual may participate in workforce employment activities described in subparagraph (A), (B), (C), (E), (G), (J), or (K) of subsection (a)(7) until the individual has obtained a secondary school diploma or its recognized equivalent, or is enrolled in a program or course of study to obtain a secondary school diploma or its recognized equivalent.

(2) SERVICES.—

(A) REFERRAL.—If an individual who has not obtained a secondary school diploma or its recognized equivalent applies to participate in workforce employment activities described under subparagraph (A), (B), (C), (E), (G), (J), or (K) of subsection (a)(7), such individual shall be referred to State approved adult education services that provide instruction designed to help such individual obtain a secondary school diploma or its recognized equivalent.

SEC. . SENSE OF THE SENATE REGARDING COMPETITIVE BIDDING FOR INFANT FORMULA.

(a) IN GENERAL.—The Senate finds that—

(1) the federal Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants and Children (WIC) is a proven success story, providing special nutrition and health assistance to at-risk pregnant women, infants and children;

(2) WIC has been shown to reduce the incidence of fetal death, low birthweight, infant mortality and anemia, to increase the nutritional and health status of pregnant women, infants and children and to improve the cognitive development of infants and children;

(3) research has shown that each dollar spent on WIC for pregnant women results in savings of $1.92 to $4.21 in Medicaid expenditures;

(4) because of funding limitations not all individuals eligible for WIC assistance are served by the program;

(5) infant formula is a significant item in the cost of WIC monthly food packages, amounting to approximately 26 percent of WIC food costs after subtracting manufacturer's rebates, but approximately 48 percent of food costs prior to applying rebates;

(6) rebates obtained through competitive bidding for infant formula have reduced the cost of infant formula for WIC participants by approximately $4.1 billion through the end of fiscal year 1994, allowing millions of additional pregnant women, infants and children to be served by WIC with the limited funds available;

(7) the Department of Agriculture has estimated that in fiscal year 1995 rebates obtained through competitive bidding for infant formula will total over $1 billion, which will enable WIC to serve approximately 1.6 million additional women, infants and children; and

(8) because of the very substantial cost savings involved, Congress enacted in 1989 legislation requiring that states administering the WIC program conduct competitive bidding for infant formula.

(b) SENSE OF THE SENATE.—It is the Sense of the Senate that any legislation enacted by Congress should not eliminate or in any way weaken the present competitive bidding requirements for the purchase of infant formula with respect to any program supported wholly or in part by federal funds.

AUTHORITY FOR COMMITTEE TO MEET

SUBCOMMITTEE ON TERRORISM, TECHNOLOGY, AND GOVERNMENT INFORMATION

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Subcommittee on Terrorism, Technology, and Government Information of the Committee on the Judiciary be authorized to meet during the session of the Senate on Friday, September 8, 1995, at 10 a.m. in SH–216 to hold a hearing on ''The Ruby Ridge Incident.''

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

IMPROVED RELATIONS BETWEEN TURKEY AND ARMENIA

Mr. SIMON. Mr. President, sometimes the good news that we get comes in small pieces that we hope portend better things to come.

The recent agreement between Turkey and Armenia for an air corridor is a small step toward improved relations between those two countries but, nevertheless, it is a positive development. It would be a mistake to exaggerate it, but it would be a mistake to ignore it.

I noticed that when Prime Minister Tansu Ciller visited Azerbaijan, she returned to Turkey by way of the corridor over Armenia and was the first high-ranking Turkish official to use the air corridor. While she traveled, she congratulated Armenian President Levon Ter-Petrossian on the victory of his party in the July 5th parliamentary elections in Turkey.

These concessions seems small, indeed, and they are small. But I hope they can result in improvements.

I recall, about 2 years ago, flying in a U.S. military plane to Armenia. The Turkish Government would not let us fly over Turkey to go to Armenia—strange conduct on the part of a government that has been helped in a substantial way over the years by the United States.

It was an action taken that was not so much adverse to the United States as adverse to Armenia.

In noting this step forward in better relations between Turkey and Armenia, it must also be noted with regret that Turkish President Suleyman Demirel refuses to use the corridor over Armenia.

I hope he can overcome his fears or his hatreds enough to do that one of these days.

And I hope the use of the air corridor over Armenia by the Turkish Prime Minister will be followed with more significant actions by Turkey and Armenia.

A TRIBUTE TO REBEKAH HARLESTON

• Mr. MCCONNELL. Mr. President, I rise here today to pay tribute to Rebekah M. Harleston, a pioneer in the field of documents librarians. Ms. Harleston died on October 14, 1994, after dedicating more than two decades of her life to public service. Her innovative work as a reference and government documents librarian has been widely recognized and appreciated, and today the public still reaps the benefits of her lasting contribution to this field.

Ms. Harleston was a powerful driving force behind improvements to the libraries of Kentucky and the Nation. She worked as a reference and government documents librarian within the University of Kentucky [UK] Library system from July 1, 1958 until her retirement on June 30, 1983. During her time at the University of Kentucky, the UK libraries became both the regional depository library for the Commonwealth of Kentucky and a United Nations depository library. She was a charter member of the Government Documents Round Table of the American Library Association and chaired the Kentucky Library Association's Government Documents Round Table. In addition, she collaborated with Carla Stoffle, currently dean of the University of Arizona libraries, in writing what was then considered the definitive book on depository libraries, ''Administration of Government Documents Collections.''

Mr. President, this woman's dedication and exemplary work are illustrated by the many fond recollections of her colleagues. They speak of her as an excellent teacher who mentored many documents librarians, and they recall her ''infectious enthusiasm for government reference work.'' Her dedication and accomplishments as a professional are truly admirable.

As a public servant, Rebekah Harleston made lasting contributions to the state of Kentucky and the Nation. It is my honor to pay tribute today to this representative of Kentucky—a tireless, dedicated public servant, a woman to be emulated and admired.•

THEY PLAY TO LOSE

• Mr. SIMON. Mr. President, some weeks ago, I gave a lengthier than usual talk on the floor of the Senate about the growing problem of legalized gambling in the United States.

This is not a phenomenon only in the United States. The Jerusalem Post contained an article about the problem in Israel. The title of this article: ''They play to lose.''

The subhead is: ''Compulsive gambling is a disease that gradually overwhelms one's life, Ruth Beker writes.''

There is an unfavorable reference to the United States.

The article quotes a Dr. Yair Caspi as saying: ''Together with an increase in use of alcohol and drugs, gambling is part of a general addictive phenomenon growing rapidly in Israel, trying to be little America.''

I ask that the article be printed in the RECORD.

The article follows:

[From the Jerusalem Post, March 25, 1995]

THEY PLAY TO LOSE—COMPULSIVE GAMBLING IS A DISEASE THAT GRADUALLY OVERWHELMS ONE'S LIFE, RUTH BEKER WRITES

Gambling is a gate to dangerously false hope.

For Michael, 53, a compulsive gambler, it was sweet at the beginning, hell at the end, and many things in between.

Michael's sickness—for that's what it is—is rooted in the Holocaust.

When he was six months old, he was given to a Gentile family for safekeeping before his parents were sent to Bergen Belsen, where his mother died. ''After the war [my father] found me and took me home. When I was eight he remarried. It was disastrous.

''My father and stepmother always punished me harshly for no reason. Once I spent three months in my room on bread and water. I was never allowed to play outside. My father forced me to wear a skullcap to school. This was very cruel as we lived in a Gentile neighborhood.

''My father and stepmother crushed my spirit and destroyed my willpower. I could not think for myself, make any decisions. My self-confidence was shot. I'm still afraid of my father and he's been dead for years.''

Such a background, according to at least one expert in the field, is typical.

''A compulsive gambler is like someone who touches a hot stove, gets burned yet keeps coming back for more,'' explains Don Lavender, clinical coordinator at Arizona's Sierra Tucson Treatment Center for Psychological and Emotional Disorders. He was in Israel recently to give a one-week workshop at the new Herzliya Medical Center for Addictions at Beit Oren.

Gambling becomes the lover, the best friend, the only comfort as the sufferer runs from a pain he cannot deal with, Lavender explains.

''I didn't know I was addicted, but I knew something was wrong if I organized my whole day around gambling,'' Michael continues. ''At first gambling was fun, a diversion. Then it became a habit I couldn't live without and finally an escape for all my problems. I spent my business money, my children's money, everyone's money.

''My wife knew nothing about my gambling. I was a great liar and came home with a thousand stories. I was clever at ''combinations,'' the expertise of every gambler. I hid the truth brilliantly from everyone, including myself.

''I was in a trance, in a blackout when I played. Lost to the world. If the man next to me dropped dead I wouldn't look up. I wouldn't go to the bathroom.

''I could feel the adrenalin pumping in me while I was playing. I felt alive.

''You always lose. I didn't care. A compulsive gambler plays; it doesn't matter if he wins or loses. It has nothing to do with money.

''I know I have tons of anger in me and I can't let it go. I'm afraid to show my anger or any other emotion. I'm afraid to be myself.

''Nothing was sacred. I gambled everything away. If I had money to pay the bills, I gambled it away.

''Because gambling isn't physical like drugs or alcohol, it is hard for people to understand what a dangerous addiction it is,'' warns Michael. ''It sneaks up on you.

''Win or lose, I kept playing. I couldn't stop. My business was ruined. I owed money everywhere. I couldn't sleep. Suicide seemed the only way to go. Gambling had gobbled up my life.''

At that desperate point, Michael read about Penina Eldar's gambling disorder clinic. The treatment has been successful so far. ''I can't ever gamble again, not even for a penny,'' he insists.

Eldar opened the Center for Compulsive Gambling in Jerusalem in 1991, and recently opened a branch in the Center for Alternative Medicine in Tel Aviv.

''The Jewish people are more vulnerable to this disorder than others because of their troubled history,'' Michael says. ''The Holocaust had a lot to do with all this.''

Dr. Yair Caspi, a lecturer in addiction at the Hebrew University Law School and the Tel Aviv School of Social Work, defines a compulsive gambler: ''What place has gambling in his life? Does he think about it all the time? Is every vacation planned around it, whether the casino is in Turkey, Egypt or Rio?''

''Gambling gives you the same high you get from drugs. It's easy money. You don't have to work, you just play games,'' said Dr. Val Velkes, co-director with Dr. Pinhas Harris of the Herzliya Medical Center's addiction clinic.

''People here are addicted to Lotto, Hish Gad, Toto, all the state lottery games,'' says Harris. ''Gambling is much more of a problem here than anyone wants to admit.'' He adds that Jews are big gamblers.

''The mania of gambling sweeping Israel is going to cause lots of problems,'' Penina Eldar warns.

''Eldar is former director of the department for the treatment of alcoholics at the Ministry of Labor and Social Affairs, and founded Alcoholics Anonymous 20 years ago.

''Now with credit and access cards you can phone around the world and bet on any sporting event you want, a dangerous and tempting situation for compulsive gamblers and people vulnerable in that direction,'' she warns.

Eldar began the gambling program four years ago, but despite extensive media attention and an advertising campaign, ''of the 100 people who came to talk to me, only 50 decided on treatment.''

''That in itself is no part of the problem. ''It is very hard for a compulsive gambler to admit his sickness,'' she says. ''Today we are treating 12 people in intensive treatment and 30 in group therapy. It is a commitment many are not ready to take.''

''Eldar's method of treatment is more attractive than that used in Spain and France, where compulsive gamblers are kept in psychiatric wards. Eldar espouses rehabilitation and group and family therapy. The gambler seeking help gets 10 one-on-one sessions, 10 group meetings, two meetings with the family, and, if therapy is going well, monthly group sessions that continue ''for as long as necessary, sometimes forever.''

''Compulsive gambling disorder is a man's disease,'' Eldar explains, ''though it is the wives and mothers who face the dire economic consequences.'' An alcoholic may drink only a bottle a day and still be an alcoholic, but a compulsive gambler spends all the family's money, leaving them physically and emotionally destitute, she says.

Playing cards with family or friends is okay, but stay away from gambling clubs, she warns. ''It gets tricky when you start playing two to three times a week. Then it's only a matter of time.'' She says it can take five to seven years for gambling to develop into a compulsion.

''According to my statistics, 67,000 compulsive gamblers need treatment here, and there are between 50,000 and 200,000 gamblers at risk in Israel.''

The hundreds of illegal casinos mushrooming all over Israel signify the breakdown of Israeli society, warns Dr. Yair Caspi.

''This wasn't here 20 years ago. Not the growing gambling phenomenon, nor the drugs or alcohol. It isn't that we weren't aware, it just wasn't here.

''Together with an increase in use of alcohol and drugs, gambling is part of a general addictive phenomenon growing rapidly in Israel, trying to be little America.''

Caspi holds an opposing view to the widely accepted theory that addiction is caused by individual deficiency.

''Israel has lost its traditional Jewish value system. The '50s immigration from North Africa and Eastern Europe lost a value system from which they never recovered. Then Zionism and socialism and idealism were still strong and gave something back to replace it.''

Religion, he says, has ''reneged on its job.''●

TRIBUTE TO WILLIAM S. CONN, JR.

Mr. MCCONNELL. Mr. President, I rise today to pay tribute to William S. Conn Jr., a resident of Louisville, KY, who will soon retire from two decades of service as president of the Kentucky Hospital Association.

A native of Monticello, Mr. Conn began his career pursuits at Western Kentucky University where he received a degree in Business and Accounting. He then went on to receive his graduate degree in Hospital Administration from the University of Michigan.

After serving 7 years with the Kentucky Department of Mental Health, he became president and CEO of the Kentucky Hospital Association and the Kentucky Hospital Research & Education Foundation in 1975. His dedication to professional excellence took him one step further in 1980 when he became president and CEO of the Kentucky Hospital Service Corp., a wholly-owned, for-profit subsidiary of the Kentucky Hospital Association.

Mr. President, William Conn has given faithful service to his country and community. From 1954 to 1958 he served in the Medical Service Corps of the U.S. Navy. Throughout the years, William has invested both his time and creativity in community service. Mr. Conn is a former member of the U.S. Jaycees and is past president of the Fleming County Jaycees. He is currently a member of the Masonic Lodge and the American Society of Association Executives. He has also served as past president of the Kentucky Society of Association Executives.

His extensive service to his community and dedication to his field has earned Mr. Conn such admirable awards as the Distinguished Service Award from the Kentucky Hospital Association.

Administrator, community leader and friend—Mr. Conn's retirement is well deserved. His accomplishments over the past two decades are too extensive to capture in these few words. He is a respected and admired Kentuckian, and I appreciate this opportunity to honor his professional and community achievements today.

THE 22ND ANNUAL GERMAN HERITAGE FESTIVAL

● Mr. BRADLEY. Mr. President, our country is a remarkable mosaic—a mixture of races, languages, ethnicities and religions—that grows increasingly diverse with each passing year. Nowhere is this incredible diversity more evident than in the State of New Jersey. In New Jersey, schoolchildren come from families that speak 120 different languages at home. These different languages are used in over 1.4 million homes in my State. I have always believed that one of the United States' greatest strengths is the diversity of the people that make up its citizenry and I am proud to call the attention of my colleagues to an event in New Jersey that celebrates the importance of the diversity that is a part of America's collective heritage.

On June 4, 1995, the Garden State Arts Center in Holmdel, NJ, began its 1995 Spring Heritage Festival Series. The Heritage Festival program salutes some of the different ethnic communities that contribute so greatly to New Jersey's diverse makeup. Highlighting old country customs and culture, the festival programs are an opportunity to express pride in the ethnic backgrounds that are a part of our collective heritage. Additionally, the Spring Heritage Festivals will contribute proceeds from their programs to the Garden State Arts Center's Cultural Center Fund which presents theater productions free-of-charge to New Jersey's school children, seniors and other deserving residents. The Heritage Festival thus not only pays tribute to the cultural influences from our past, it also makes a significant contribution to our present day cultural activities.

On Sunday, September 10, 1995, the Heritage Festival Series will celebrate the 22d Annual German Heritage Festival. Chaired by Ted Hierl, this year's event is a wonderful opportunity for the German-American community to share its colorful culture with New Jerseyans and people from surrounding States through folk dancing, singing, food, and craft and cultural displays. Ted Hierl, of the radio stations WTTM/Trenton and WJDM/Elizabeth will join Hansel Kronauer and Edith Prock, two of Germany's most popular entertainers as part of the evening's stage entertainment. The day promises to be full of fun, friendship and family.

On behalf of all New Jerseyans of German descent, I offer my congratulations on the 22d anniversary of the German Heritage Festival.●

CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION OF THE DETROIT HEBREW FREE LOAN ASSOCIATION

● Mr. LEVIN. Mr. President, I am proud to rise to congratulate the Hebrew Free Loan Association of Detroit on the celebration of 100 years of service to the Jewish community.

The Hebrew Free Loan Association of Detroit was founded in 1895 to provide loans to Jewish people in the Detroit metropolitan area. Over the last century, this revered institution has made loans without interest to assist people in small businesses, and other endeavors with a particular emphasis on aiding people to do productive work.

The Hebrew Free Loan Association has also provided aid to waves of immigrants and refugees arriving in the Detroit area. A critical part of its mission has been to assist these newcomers in getting their start in America and in bringing their relatives from the old country to join them. Many of our families in the Jewish community have benefited from such loans and have gone on to become successful and to help others. Remarkably, historically, more than 96 percent of the loans made have been repaid.

Mr. President, this is an organization with old and strong roots in Jewish tradition, the Detroit community, and in American values. On September 10, the Hebrew Free Loan Association of Detroit will celebrate its centennial. I know all of my colleagues in the Senate join me in congratulating its president, Paul Hack, its executive director Ruth Marcus, its officers and directors, and all of those whose efforts over the years have contributed to this American success story.●

TRIBUTE TO CORPORATE AIR

● Mr. BAUCUS. Mr. President, I rise today to honor a made in Montana business. Corporate Air of Billings, MT is a modern day success story. Founded in 1981 by Mike and Linda Overstreet, Corporate Air has grown to employ over 300 people and serve a national and international market.

Mike has been an ambassador for Montana and America. And Corporate Air has created new jobs both here and abroad. Today, they are leaders in an overseas market that appears limitless.

That is what teamwork and Corporate Air is all about.

This company was years ahead of the industry in recognizing that freight hauling was a viable growth industry for the future. And they were also far ahead in recognizing and seizing the opportunity for expansion in Asia. Mike Overstreet accompanied me on two trade missions to Asia in order to look at exciting business opportunities.

That is why I was not surprised when Corporate Air was recently recognized with the Regional Airlines Teamwork Award by the Professional Pilots Association. This award is testament to teamwork and a can-do attitude that describes Montanans in general and the Overstreets in particular.

Corporate Air and Montana understand that teamwork can solve almost any problem, no matter how difficult. When founded in 1981, the economy in America and Montana was weak. Naysayers discounted the chances of a little Montana air service that did not carry passengers.

Well, they were wrong. Through organization, vision, and hard work, the Overstreets and Corporate Air not only made it but are national and international leaders.

Finally, Corporate Air is as committed to the Billings community as to success in business. They organized a successful Big Sky International Air Show, with an attendance of over 12,000 people, with the proceeds going to local charities.

That is just one example of how Corporate Air and the Overstreet family strive daily to give back to the community that helped them grow. Their children, Luke and Sara, and their three wonderful grandchildren represent generations of hardworking Montanans who will continue Mike and Linda's work.

To conclude, Mr. President, we in Montana are justifiably proud of this important award and Corporate Air's many contributions. The rest of America would do well to follow the example set by these innovative Montanans.●

REMARKS OF SENATOR HOWELL HEFLIN AT THE V–J. 50TH ANNIVERSARY COMMEMORATION SERVICE

● Mr. WARNER. Mr. President, I rise today to praise our colleague, Senator HOWELL HEFLIN. Senator HEFLIN served in the U.S. Marine Corps in World War II. He was wounded twice and decorated with the Silver Star. Senator HEFLIN is a strong supporter of America's military and has worked hard to ensure that the United States maintains its position as the leader of the free world.

Although his time on active duty is behind him, Senator HEFLIN remains a soldier at heart. On September 2, he attended the V–J 50th Anniversary Commemoration Service at Pearl Harbor. I would like to share the remarks he delivered with my colleagues.

For all of us in Congress who served in World War II, and for that matter, all World War II veterans, his words remind us of the faith we placed in God and our country. A faith that remains unshakable today.

I ask that Senator Heflin's remarks be printed in the RECORD.

The remarks follow:

V–J DAY 50TH ANNIVERSARY COMMEMORATION SERVICE

(By Senator Howell Heflin)

I was asked to read from the Book of Matthew, Chapter 5, verses 3–16. I have chosen to depart from the printed program and read from the Bible familiar to all troops and sailors during World War II—The King James Version:

Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

Rejoice, and be exceedingly glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? It is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father, which is in heaven.

I have been asked to say a few words on behalf of the veterans of World War II.

In the early days of World War II, American Chaplain William Thomas Cummings was delivering a sermon to troops on Baatan when he uttered the words, ''There are no atheists in foxholes.'' Those words quickly spread throughout the Pacific and shortly thereafter to wherever American troops were deployed. This truism symbolized the reliance of American service personnel on Almighty God as they served under the Stars and Strips.

On this 50th anniversary of the official end of World War II, I know that each surviving veteran of World War II gives thanks to our Supreme Deity for His decisive role in protecting us from the chains of totalitarianism, for the preservation of democratic values and for victory over our then-enemies as well as for life itself and many join me in thanking our Father in heaven for His redeeming grace of salvation.

At this time, I am reminded of the written words of Francis Scott Key which he penned as he watched the bombardment of Fort McHenry on the night of September 13–14, 1814, contained in the last stanza of the Star Spangled Banner. These words, which I paraphrase slightly, express our hope for our nation's future:

Blest with victory and peace, may this heaven-rescued land

Praise the power that hath made and preserved us as a nation!

Then defend it we must, may our cause always be just,

And this be our motto: ''In God is our trust!''

And may this star-spangled banner continue to wave, O'er a land of the free, and a home of the brave!

On behalf of all veterans of World War II, our prayer is that there will never be World War III.●

WORK NOT WELFARE IN THE MORMON CHURCH

● Mr. SIMON. Mr. President, we are talking a great deal in the Senate these days about welfare reform. Recently, I had a chance to read an article by Ralph Hardy, a Mormon leader in the Washington, D.C. area, in the magazine American Enterprise published by the American Enterprise Institute.

It is titled, ''Work not Welfare.''

For a long time we have known that Mormons have been exceptional in not having their people on welfare. But this article goes into more detail than I had known.

If we try to get welfare reform without providing jobs for people, we will not have welfare reform.

It is interesting to note in the article, he says, ''I quickly learned that the physical welfare of my charges was an important influence on their spiritual welfare.'' That is true in the religious sense and also in the non-religious sense.

I will have an amendment to try a WPA-type of demonstration in four different places in the country.

I hope it can pass.

The reality is there is simply no great demand for unskilled labor in the United States today, and most of the people on welfare fall in that category. If we were to do that, not only would we help the people more, as the Latter-Day Saints do, but we would be moving on other social problems.

We spend a great deal of time making speeches about crime and doing very little constructive about it. Show me an area with high unemployment, whether it is White, Black, or Hispanic, and I will show you an area of high crime.

I ask that the Ralph Hardy piece be printed in the RECORD and I urge my colleagues to read it.

The article follows:

(By Ralph Hardy)

In 1996, the 9 million-member Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints (popularly known as the Mormons) will commemorate the sixtieth year of its welfare program. It was in 1936, with the Great Depression sapping the strength and spirit of the nation, that our church's visionary president Heber Grant inaugurated the Church Welfare Program as ''a system under which the curse of idleness would be done away with, the evils of a dole abolished, and independence, industry, thrift, and self-respect be once more established amongst our people. The aim of the church is to help the people to help themselves. Work is to be re-enthroned as the ruling principle of the lives of our church membership.''

From this beginning, the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints developed a detailed system for social assistance that favors work instead of welfare. It has proven extremely practical and effective in helping vulnerable people. This I know from my own personal experiences.

In the late 1940s, when I was about eight years of age, my father roused me out of bed one early Saturday morning and announced that we were going to the stake (roughly analogous to a diocese) welfare farm. This was an exciting prospect; I had never visited a farm and I eagerly anticipated seeing many creatures of my imagination. However, when my father and I arrived at the enterprise on the far west side of Salt Lake City, I was surprised not only by the lack of farm animals but by the large machete I was given. There ended the fun. For the remainder of that Saturday my father and I, along with several other men and their sons, harvested heavy, dirty sugar beets by hand, throwing them into the back of a three-quarter-ton truck. After hefting those beets I never felt the same about sugar again. I did, however, acquire a healthy respect for the life of a farm boy.

Later, a few years after my family had moved to Washington, D.C., the assignment came again to work on the stake welfare farm. This time, however, I held no illusions. I braced myself to work in the intent heat and 95 percent humidity that only the Washington area can promise in July. Throughout that day, which still ranks as one of the hardest episodes of labor I can remember, my father and I toiled in the fields digging fence-post holes.

It was with a little sadness that I later learned that this stake welfare farm had been sold, with a large dairy farm on Maryland's Eastern Shore acquired in its place. When I returned to Washington after graduate school, I spent many more Saturdays cleaning barns and pouring cement at the dairy farm.

When I turned 12, I became a deacon in the church like other boys of my age. One of my first assignments was to visit about eight families in our local congregation on the first Sunday of every month. My purpose in going was to collect from these families a ''fast offering''—a cash contribution from each household equal to the value of two meals skipped by that family on the first Sunday of the month, known as Fast Sunday. I traveled by bicycle, and at the end of the afternoon I would bring all the offerings back to the bishop at the meetinghouse. These contributions created a pool of funds for our bishop to use in providing assistance to needy families in our ward. Although I did not know who these families were, I knew that our wise bishop would put the funds to good use.

When I was 34, the leadership of the church asked me to serve as bishop of my ward. One of the key assignments I was given, like all other bishops in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, was to assume direct responsibility for the physical welfare of the nearly 600 members of the congregation. I quickly learned that the physical welfare of my charges was an important influence on their spiritual welfare.

The good people of my ward were from all walks of life. Some were reasonably affluent, many were not. More than a few, especially young families, struggled. One adult member of my ward was retarded and living alone. Another was severely overweight, without family or transportation, and virtually unemployable. Over the five years of my service I spent an enormous amount of time administering to the many needs of these people.

One day, after I had been bishop for only about four months, one of the very faithful men in my ward came to see me. He had been assigned as the ''home teacher'' to several families, and, as such, he visited these families faithfully each month on my behalf. This man said to me, ''Bishop Hardy, I am concerned about one of my families. The husband is out of a job, and his spirit and self-confidence are broken.'' I knew the man's name at once, and was distressed that I had not been perceptive enough to detect that the family was in difficulty.

I immediately visited the man and his wife and confirmed that they were without the basic necessities of life. Their pantry was bare. All of their meager income went toward paying rent, now in arrears, and for gasoline so the man could search for work. And that search was not proving successful. That evening, I immediately called the very capable president of our ward's women's auxiliary, known in our church as the Relief Society, and asked her to also visit the home so that this family's immediate needs could be confidentially assessed. By noon the next day this was done. Counseling was begun, and a list of commodities and other necessities that this struggling family would need was compiled. By five o'clock in the evening, the Relief Society president and the wife in the family had driven to our regional bishops' storehouse facility and filled a large order of foodstuffs and other commodities to sustain that family of five for a period of time.

A few days later, by prearrangement with the husband, I contacted the man's older brother living in the southwest and inquired about the extended family's ability to be of assistance to their kin. To my joy I received a commitment from them to donate not only cash assistance to their brother but also a good used automobile to replace the family's old car, which was not worth fixing. Then I asked a capable young attorney in my ward to help me prevent the family from being evicted from their rented townhouse; he was able to work out a rent moratorium with the landlord. From the Fast Offering funds donated by members of my congregation I advanced a deposit of one month's rent so that the landlord would feel a sense of commitment. Also from Fast offering funds I made several direct payments to the electric utility and to several physicians, in order to free up the family's meager cash resources for other purposes.

As is the practice in our church, I asked the man and his wife if they would perform some church service to partially recompense for the assistance that they received. I asked the man if he would undertake a project to repaint one of the long hallway walls in our ward meetinghouse. This assignment was accepted and the work was performed over the course of several Saturdays.

A member of our ward who had been assigned to serve as an employment specialist then began turning over to this man every possible job lead. Before we could succeed at this, however, the man's own extended family found him employment in the Southwest. I still hear from him every Christmas and can report that he has been gainfully employed ever since his crisis, and is a productive member of our church and society.

At every turn the LDS church teaches the dignity of work and the importance of personal industry. Work is emphasized as a ruling principle in the lives of all of our believers. I learned this lesson as part of a religious congregation, through personal labor in the church welfare system, and through my participation in our system of financial and service offerings. Work is basic in the doctrine of our church, and the virtues of work—and the cursedness of idleness—are taught to Latter-Day Saints at a young age.

More generally, the members of our church are taught to be self-reliant. Coming in part from our pioneer traditions, the importance of self-reliance and personal independence receives great emphasis. Spencer W. Kimball, a recent church president, taught that:

The responsibility for each person's social, emotional, spiritual, physical, or economic well-being rests first upon himself, second upon his family, and third upon the church if he is a faithful member thereof. No true Latter-Day Saint, while physically or emotionally able, will voluntarily shift the burden of his own or his family's well-being to someone else.

Our emphases on work and self-reliance lead directly to a third requirement in church teaching—that of provident living. This means we must train members, from youth, to live within their means; to avoid unnecessary debt; to adopt on a family basis the principle of the ''storehouse,'' which encourages laying up a year's stock of food, commodities, and financial resources against a time when they may be needed.

These work- and independence-based principles inoculate most church members from serious problems of economic security. And where personal welfare problems do crop up, our vast system of temporary church assistance and guidance back toward work is able to ease most situations without any involvement by the government. This is not mere rhetoric. Last year within the United States alone, 35,207 of our unemployed members were placed in gainful employment through the church's employment centers. In addition, over 1,500 so-called ''unemployable'' persons were placed in jobs, with more than 85 percent still working at the same business over one year later.

I have seen the LDS church welfare assistance system in action. I learned its principles as a child; I taught them as a full-time missionary for the church as a young man overseas; I have administered the system at the grassroots level as a church bishop. This system works because it is focused on the self-worth of the individual, and because it is administered as a part of religious practice at the local level.

Ours is a program built on work, self-help, personal dignity, and redemption. I have seen it succeed. And I know that many of its principles could be applied to the world at large.●

TRIBUTE TO COL. ROBERT F. BEHLER

Mr. THURMOND. Mr. President, each of us has found cause to use the services of congressional liaison offices that have been set up by Government agencies to assist us in servicing our constituents and managing the affairs of the Nation. Almost without exception, the men and women who staff these offices are individuals who are competent, polite, and eager to serve. I rise today to pay tribute to a person who has met and exceeded those characteristics, the Chief of the U.S. Air Force Office of Senate Liaison, Col. Robert F. Behler.

Known, liked, and respected by Senators and staffers, Colonel Behler has spent the last 2 years representing the Air Force and striving to meet the needs of the Members of this Chamber.

Always maintaining the highest degree of professionalism, Colonel Behler ensured that he and those under his direction responded to our queries quickly and completely. As the chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, I greatly appreciated the commitment that Colonel Behler and his staff made to their jobs and I hope that his successor will maintain the same sense of duty and responsibility.

Soon Colonel Behler will take command of the 9th Reconnaissance Wing at Beale Air Force Base, CA. This will certainly be an important and challenging assignment, but one I am confident he will quickly master and at which he will excel. I wish him the best of luck in his new assignment and in the remainder of his career.

THE BAD DEBT BOXSCORE

Mr. HELMS. Mr. President, as of the close of business yesterday, September 7, the Federal debt stood at $4,968,651,845,437.79. On a per capita basis, every man, woman, and child in America owes $18,861.09 as his or her share of that debt.

WELCOMING HIS HOLINESS THE DALAI LAMA

Mr. SANTORUM. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of Senate Resolution 169, submitted earlier today by Senator THOMAS.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report.

The assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

A resolution (S. Res. 169) expressing the sense of Senate welcoming his holiness the Dalai Lama on his visit to the United States.

The Senate proceeded to consider the resolution.

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. President, I am today joined by the distinguished chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee Senator HELMS, the equally distinguished ranking minority member Senator PELL, and Senators MACK and D'AMATO to introduce a resolution welcoming the visit to the United States this week and next of His Holiness the Dalai Lama.

The story of the 14th Dalai Lama is one with which I believe we are all familiar. Exiled from his homeland along with over 100,000 of his fellow Tibetan citizens, repeatedly frustrated and rebuffed in his sincere efforts to resolve their differences with the Chinese Government, His Holiness has never wavered in his determination to bring freedom and the full panoply of human rights to his people. His commitment to nonviolence in pursuit of the goal, even in the face of consistent provocations, has never faltered and earned him the Nobel Peace Prize.

For 45 years since the forcible invasion and occupation of their country by the Chinese People's Liberation Army, Tibetans have been subjected to systematic abuses and human rights violations. Those 45 years have seen the deaths of tens of thousands of Tibetans, the destruction of thousands of their temples and monasteries, the imprisonment of their religious and political figures, the forced sinocization of their country, and the systematic destruction of traditional Tibetan culture.

Despite hollow Chinese declarations to the contrary, the present state of human rights in Tibet is deplorable. The Chinese Government continues to arrest and imprison Tibetans solely for their religious beliefs or for the peaceful expression of political dissent. Yesterday, the Subcommittee on East Asian and Pacific Affairs which I chair held a hearing on Tibet. Witnesses presented ample evidence of these continuing abuses; Mr. Gendun Rinchen, a former political prisoner in Tibet, very recently escaped across the Himalayas into India and flew here this week to provide us with firsthand testimony on the plight of the Tibetan people.

Mr. President, the resolution is fairly self-explanatory. It extends the welcome of the Senate to His Holiness the Dalai Lama, urges the President to meet with His Holiness and to encourage the Chinese Government to sit down at the negotiating table with the Tibetan Government-in-exile, and reminds the Tibetan people that as they move forward in their struggle the Congress and the American people stand with them.

In closing, I note that one of the central tenets of Tibetans' Buddhist belief is that life and its sufferings are transitory; this has allowed them to remain remarkably restrained since the invasion. I sincerely hope that sometime soon the Chinese Government will see fit to sit down with His Holiness and negotiate an end to the present unacceptable and untenable situation so that the Tibetan people no longer have to be patient in their suffering.

Mr. President, I urge the adoption of the resolution.

Mr. SANTORUM. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent the resolution be considered and agreed to, the preamble be agreed to, the motion to reconsider be laid upon the table, and any statements related to the resolution appear at the appropriate place in the RECORD.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The resolution (S. Res. 169) was agreed to.

The preamble was agreed to.

The resolution, with its preamble, reads as follows:

Whereas historically Tibet has demonstrated those attributes which under international law constitute statehood: it has had a defined territory and a permanent population; it has been under the control of its own government; and it has engaged in, or had the capacity to engage in, formal relations with other states;

Whereas beginning in 1949 Tibet was forcibly and coercively invaded and occupied by the People's Republic of China;

Whereas under the principles of international law Tibet is an occupied country and its true representatives continue to be His Holiness the Dalai Lama and the Tibetan Government-in-exile, which the Congress has recognized on several occasions;

Whereas the Tibetan people are historically, territorially, and culturally distinct from the Chinese population in the People's Republic of China and were forcibly incorporated into the People's Republic of China;

Whereas the Tibetan people are entitled to the right of self-determination as recognized in 1961 by the United Nations General Assembly in Resolution No. 1723;

Whereas instead of being afforded that right they have been subjected to repressive actions on the part of the Government of the People's Republic of China, which have resulted in the deaths of countless Tibetans, the destruction of over 6,000 temples and monasteries as well as much of Tibet's unique cultural and spiritual patrimony, the fight of the Dalai Lama and over 100,000 Tibetans from their homeland, the established in Tibet by the Chinese of a consistent and well-documented pattern of human rights abuses including numerous violations of the United Nations Declaration on Human Rights, and the settlement of thousands of Chinese in Tibet in an effort to reduce Tibetans to being a minority in their own land; and

Whereas this September His Holiness the Dalai Lama will be making his first extended visit to Washington, DC, since 1993; Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate—

(1) warmly welcomes His Holiness the Dalai Lama to the United States;

(2) urges the President to meet with His Holiness the Dalai Lama during his visit to discuss substantive issues of interest to our two respective governments, and to continue to encourage the Government of the People's Republic of China to meet with the Dala Lama or his representatives to discuss a solution to the present impasse in their relations; and

(3) urges His Holiness the Dalia Lama to remind the Tibetan people that, as they move forward in their struggle toward preserving their culture and regaining their freedom, the Congress and the American people stand with them.

AMENDMENT NO. 2680

(Purpose: To assure continued taxpayer savings through competitive bidding in WIC)

At the appropriate place insert the following:

SEC. . SENSE OF THE SENATE REGARDING COMPETITIVE BIDDING FOR INFANT FORMULA.

(a) IN GENERAL.—The Senate finds that—

(1) the federal Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants and Children (WIC) is a proven success story, providing special nutrition and health assistance to at-risk pregnant women, infants and children;

(2) WIC has been shown to reduce the incidence of fetal death, low birthweight, infant mortality and anemia, to increase the nutritional and health status of pregnant women, infants and children and to improve the cognitive development of infants and children;

(3) research has shown that each dollar spent on WIC for pregnant women results in savings of $1.92 to $4.21 in Medicaid expenditures;

(4) because of funding limitations not all individuals eligible for WIC assistance are served by the program;

(5) infant formula is a significant item in the cost of WIC monthly food packages, amounting to approximately 26 percent of WIC food costs after subtracting manufacturer's rebates, but approximately 48 percent of food costs prior to applying rebates;

(6) rebates obtained through competitive bidding for infant formula have reduced the cost of infant formula for WIC participants by approximately $4.1 billion through the end of fiscal year 1994, allowing millions of additional pregnant women, infants and children to be served by WIC with the limited funds available;

(7) the Department of Agriculture has estimated that in fiscal year 1995 rebates obtained through competitive bidding for infant formula will total over $1 billion, which will enable WIC to serve approximately 1.6 million additional women, infants and children; and

(8) because of the very substantial cost savings involved, Congress enacted in 1989 legislation requiring that states administering the WIC program conduct competitive bidding for infant formula.

(b) SENSE OF THE SENATE.—It is the Sense of the Senate that any legislation enacted by Congress should not eliminate or in any way weaken the present competitive bidding requirements for the purchase of infant formula with respect to any program supported wholly or in part by federal funds.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Mr. President, I ask the amendment be laid aside.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

RECESS UNTIL 10 A.M., MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1995

Mr. SANTORUM. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I now ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in recess under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 5:05 p.m., recessed until Monday, September 11, 1995, at 10 a.m.
