SPEECH OF

HON. CHRISTOPHER H. SMITH

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 12, 2021

Mr. SMITH of New Jersey. Mr. Speaker, against the backdrop of President Biden's demand that Congress immediately pass an unprecedented $3.5 trillion tax and spend budget package that constitutes the largest tax hike since 1968 and massive new unsustainable debt, the House votes today to extend the debt ceiling until December 3rd.

I will vote no.

One analysis shows that Biden's budget—championed by Senator BERNIE SANDERS—could cost up to $5.5 trillion after accounting for several budget gimmicks that artificially lower the price tag.

Despite the fact that approximately $1.3 trillion of previously appropriated COVID funds remain either unobligated (about $800 billion) or obligated but unspent (about $500 billion)—sitting idle in the government coffers—the Biden administration is demanding more power to borrow.

There has also been a serious lack of transparency as to how COVID funds are spent.

In a July report, the Government Accountability Office (GAO)—the federal government's "watchdog agency"—recommended "that Health and Human Services (HHS) improve transparency over tens of billions of dollars in unspent relief funds."

The GAO also recommended that "the Office of Management and Budget and Department of Treasury issue timely guidance for audits of hundreds of billions in state and local COVID relief funds."

Nothing but political will—and a genuine commitment to responsible governance and spending within our means—precludes redirecting some or all of the $1.3 trillion unobligated and unspent COVID funds to mitigate the debt, instead of new borrowing.

There was a time when then-Senator Biden was concerned with the detrimental impact of debt on the economy and on those—our children and grandchildren—who will someday pay a huge price for today's profligate government spending and the borrowing needed to sustain it.

In a Senate speech in 2004, then-Senator Biden opposed raising the debt ceiling and condemned the "threat of massive deficits" and said, "the bill for our decisions will be sent to our children and grandchildren, in the form of the additional debt we authorize today."

In 2006, Biden said: "... I am voting against the debt limit increase ... the tsunami of debt created by the policies of this administration (George W. Bush) has to go somewhere ... But as the rest of the world copes with the waves of U.S. debt, we are now all in the same leaky boat. There is just so much of our debt other nations want to hold ... We need both more awareness, and more understanding, of this fundamental threat to our economic well being and the global economy."

Today, with our national debt far worse than ever—it was $8.5 trillion in 2006, today it's $28.4 trillion—the President ought to heed his own words.

HONORING MS. SARAH YOUNG
GLACKIN

HON. TIM RYAN

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mr. RYAN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize and thank Sarah Young Glackin on her long and distinguished career as a member of staff on the House Appropriations Committee as she prepares to leave us for new endeavors.

Myself and my fellow colleagues—on both sides of the aisle—have relied extensively on Sarah's expertise in many appropriations matters, most notably in the areas of defense and military construction.

Sarah's career began on the Subcommittee on Defense, with a portfolio that included Tricare and Defense Health Programs.

Four years later, she moved to the Subcommittee on Military Quality of Life and then Subcommittee on Interior and Environment. She soon returned to Defense, where she worked on Counterdrug and Narcotics, Missile Defense, Defense Health Programs, Military Medical Research, and TRICARE. For the last decade, Sarah has served on the Subcommittee on Military Construction, Veterans Affairs, and Related Agencies.

She was responsible for military construction across all components and services, the improvement of housing for our servicemembers and their Families, and the NATO security investment program. Oftentimes congressional staffers are not appropriately recognized for their service. However, they are the Americans from all over our nation that represent the fabric of our country. Sarah has served in more ways than one.

Madam Speaker, Sarah has been an institution on the Appropriations Committee since the moment I arrived there. My Colleagues and myself will miss her dedication, her patience, and her deep reservoir of knowledge. I want to wish Sarah all the best as she pursues new adventures.

IN RECOGNITION OF SOUTHERN
WAYNE COUNTY REGIONAL
CHAMBER UNSUNG HEROINE
AWARD RECIPIENT JESSICA WORKMAN

HON. DEBBIE DINGELL

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mrs. DINGELL. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize Jessica Workman, Vice President of Member Experience at Advantage One Credit Union as she is awarded the Unsung Heroine Award at the Southern Wayne County Regional Chamber's 5th annual Women of Achievement Awards. Her significant contributions to our downriver community are worthy of commendation.

Ms. Workman began her career at Advantage One Credit Union over 12 years ago as a teller and has worked her way up to her current role as Vice President of Member Experience. A native of Romulus, Michigan, she studied Political Science at University of Michigan—Dearborn. As a leader in her office, Ms. Workman is always looking for ways to improve the credit union for employees and members alike, and she meets each new challenge with enthusiasm. Even during a core conversion in the midst of a pandemic, Ms. Workman remained dedicated to making a positive change in her workplace—even when things got tough.

Her colleagues know her as someone who always has an upbeat attitude and looks on the bright side. A true team player, she challenges everyone to find new ways to help others and to go above and beyond in serving their members. She takes on every task with grace and optimism, and for that her entire team is thankful. Ms. Workman lives in Maybee, Michigan with her family.

Madam Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing Jessica Workman and in congratulating her for being the recipient of the Unsung Heroine Award. We are grateful for her service to our community in Wayne County and beyond. We join with Jessica's friends, family, and colleagues in thanking her for her tireless work in making our community a better place for everyone. Her hard work has not gone unnoticed.

HONORING JON G'S BARBECUE

HON. DAN BISHOP

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mr. BISHOP of North Carolina. Madam Speaker, today, I rise to pay tribute to Garren

• This "bullet" symbol identifies statements or insertions which are not spoken by a Member of the Senate on the floor.

"Jon G" and Kelly Kirkman, the proprietors of Jon G's Barbecue in Peachland, North Carolina. After only a year in business, Jon G's has already become a local institution, as evidenced by the consistently long line of customers who are ready to enjoy good barbecue. For the Kirkmans, barbecue is truly a labor of love and the establishment of their restaurant took many years of hard work and experimentation.

Small business owners have been ravaged by the government response to the pandemic, and it is tremendously important during this time to highlight entrepreneurship and to support small businesses in our local communities. Jon G and Kelly, I hope your hard work will continue to pay off and that your barbecue restaurant will be a Peachland institution for years to come.

TRIBUTE IN HONOR OF NOBEL
LAUREATE IN ECONOMICS

HON. ANNA G. ESHOO

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Ms. ESHOO. Madam Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring my distinguished constituent, a recipient of the 2021 Nobel Memorial Prize in Economic Sciences, Stanford University Professor Guido W. Imbens. The Sveriges Riksbank Prize in Economic Sciences in Memory of Alfred Nobel, more commonly known as the Nobel Prize in Economics, is given by the Royal Swedish Academy of Sciences in Stockholm and was established in 1968, joining the five original prizes established by Alfred Nobel in his 1895 will. Dr. Imbens is being honored with his colleague Joshua D. Angrist of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology for methodological contributions to the analysis of causal relationships.

Guido Imbens is the Applied Econometrics Professor and Professor of Economics at the Stanford Graduate School of Business (GSB). He is a senior fellow at the Stanford Institute for Economic Policy Research and Amman Mineral faculty fellow for 2021–22. He is a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and the Econometric Society, served as a Stanford GSB Trust faculty fellow in 2013 and 2014, and holds an honorary Doctorate from the University of St. Gallen. A graduate of Brown University, where he earned his Ph.D., he taught at Harvard, UCLA and UC Berkeley before joining the GSB in 2012. His research focuses on developing methods for drawing causal relationships in observational studies, using matching, instrumental variables and regression continuity designs.

Madam Speaker, I ask the entire House of Representatives to join me in congratulating Dr. Guido W. Imbens on receiving this most prestigious award, recognizing his contributions to the field of economics. It's my privilege to represent him, pay tribute to his brilliance, and thank him for making every American proud of his accomplishments.

RECOGNIZING THE 20TH ANNIVERSARY OF HOPE ANIMAL ASSISTED CRISIS RESPONSE

HON. JACK BERGMAN

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mr. BERGMAN. Madam Speaker, it is my honor to recognize the 20th Anniversary of the HOPE Animal Assisted Crisis Response. Through their dedicated service and steadfast devotion to their communities, HOPE AACR has become an indispensable part of Michigan's First District and the United States.

Since 2001, HOPE AACR has tirelessly worked to provide mental and emotional support to Americans during individual or national crises. Their organization has brought needed assistance to many local community groups including first responders, schools, hospitals, and churches. In addition, they often work directly with mental health professionals and counselors to bring the maximum level of care for those experiencing personal hardship.

HOPE AACR has also brought vital support to our nation during numerous tragic events such as 9/11, Hurricane Katrina, and the wildfires in California. Their help has improved the lives of countless Americans and their families and their dedication to the well-being of our communities cannot be overstated.

Madam Speaker, it is my honor to recognize HOPE Animal Assisted Crisis Response for decades of success and service to Michigan and the United States. Michiganders can take great pride in knowing the First District is home to such dedicated citizens. On behalf of my constituents, I wish them all the best in their future endeavors.

HONORING CBP'S FALLEN

HON. BENNIE G. THOMPSON

OF MISSISSIPPI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mr. THOMPSON of Mississippi. Madam Speaker, the mission of U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) is broad and diverse. The more than 60,000 men and women of CBP protect our borders at and between the ports of entry and help boost our economic security and prosperity by facilitating trade and travel. While the roles they play may differ, CBP personnel are tasked with keeping our country a safe, secure, and resilient place where the American way of life can thrive.

In carrying out this critical role, CBP personnel provide a great service to our country. They put their uniforms on every day and kiss their families goodbye, not sure what the next shift may bring. Tragically, some have not returned home.

I wish to pay tribute to the brave officers and agents who made the ultimate sacrifice in service to our Nation. We commemorate them, celebrate their lives, and offer their families and loved ones our continued support. They have earned the respect and appreciation of a grateful nation, and their service and sacrifice will never be forgotten.

Today, on the occasion of CBP's 2021 Valor Memorial and Wreath Laying Ceremony, I include in the RECORD the names of these officers and agents as follows:

James S. Litz, Air Interdiction Agent, End of watch: September 7, 2012
 Donna M. Doss, Border Patrol Agent, End of watch: February 2, 2019
 Robert M. Hotten, Border Patrol Agent, End of watch: October 6, 2019
 Luis O. Pena, Jr., Border Patrol Agent, End of watch: December 23, 2019
 Van Dong, CBP Technician, End of watch: April 1, 2020
 Richard McCoy, CBP Officer, End of watch: May 3, 2020
 Omar E. Palmer, CBP Officer, End of watch: May 4, 2020
 James Taylor, CBP Field Technology Officer, End of watch: May 8, 2020
 Ching Kok "CK" Yan, CBP Officer, End of watch: May 16, 2020
 Johan S. Mordan, Border Patrol Agent, End of watch: June 12, 2020
 Alfonso Murrieta, CBP Officer, End of watch: July 9, 2020
 Enrique J. Rositas, Jr., Border Patrol Agent, End of watch: July 11, 2020
 Roel De La Fuente, CBP Officer, End of watch: July 13, 2020

 Domingo Jasso III, CBP Officer, End of watch: November 5, 2020
 Christopher Carney, Air Interdiction Agent, End of watch: November 16, 2020
 Richard Rios, CBP Officer, End of watch: December 2, 2020
 Jose Santana, CBP Officer, End of watch: December 2, 2020

IN RECOGNITION OF SOUTHERN
WAYNE COUNTY REGIONAL CHAMBER ENTREPRENEUR
AWARD RECIPIENT AYANA KING

HON. DEBBIE DINGELL

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mrs. DINGELL. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize Ayana King, CEO at Maximum Communications as she is awarded the Entrepreneur Award at the Southern Wayne County Regional Chamber's 5th annual Women of Achievement Awards. Her significant contributions to our community are worthy of commendation.

Ms. King founded Maximum Communications, LLC in 2018 after working as Corporate Communications Manager at American House Senior Living Communities in Bloomfield Hills, Michigan where she worked for over 4 years. A graduate of University of Michigan—Dearborn, Ms. King is a consultant and a leader in diversity, equity, and inclusion. She began her journey assisting business in social media management, but found her calling in giving diversity, equity, and inclusion workshops. To her, inclusion is more than a word to be thrown around, she is unafraid to have tough conversations about difficult topics. She helps everyone do better and look inwards to recognize their own unconscious bias.

Her expertise in communications and diversity, equity, and inclusion is sought after in our community and nationally. Ms. King is known by others to be strong, driven, and passionate—never missing an opportunity to educate those around her. Her creative, entrepreneurial spirit has helped Michigan businesses find innovative ways to reach new customers through social media, helping grow the local economy. In starting her own business, she discovered her enthusiasm for helping others by providing an inclusive education to businesses and executives all over Metro Detroit.

Madam Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing Ayana King and in congratulating her for being the recipient of the Entrepreneur Award. We are grateful for her service to our community in Wayne County and beyond. We join with Ayana's friends, family, and colleagues in thanking her for her hard work and dedication to helping others thrive and make our workspaces for inclusive for all.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. PAUL A. GOSAR

OF ARIZONA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mr. GOSAR. Madam Speaker, I am compelled to use proxy voting this week as I am currently spending time with my father who had a terminal diagnosis and passed away this week.

HONORING DR. GARY AND KAROLYN CHAPMAN

HON. TED BUDD

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mr. BUDD. Madam Speaker, I rise today in honor of Dr. Gary and Karolyn Chapman as they celebrate 50 years of ministry at Calvary Baptist Church in Winston-Salem, NC.

When Gary and Karolyn Chapman began their ministry at Calvary in 1971 at the invitation of Dr. Mark Corts, they didn't land immediately within the business of strengthening marriages. It was only after the Chapmans had been faithfully leading the college and single adult ministries of the church that God opened a door for them to reach those encountering relational difficulties, primarily focusing on married couples and families.

Karolyn has long been involved in encouraging other pastors' wives, a hugely important work to minister to the behind-the-scenes supporters that she's uniquely suited to care for. In addition to this, Calvary and all its members have been blessed through Karolyn's beautiful voice and her devotion to the church's choir ministry.

Millions of relationships have experienced healing and restoration through Gary's work as a pastor, marriage counselor, and author of over fifty books including his best-selling The Five Love Languages, which has sold over 20 million copies and been translated into more than 50 different languages. While Gary formally retired from his position as Senior Associate Pastor of Calvary Baptist Church at the end of July, he continues to write and teach, and neither he nor Karolyn have any plans of retiring from ministry altogether.

Madam Speaker, please join me in congratulating Gary and Karolyn on a half-century of faithful service invested in sharing Christ's love with the world. Their example has been an inspiration to me, my family, and to so many. May we all continue to grow closer to Christ as we follow their example.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. ROBIN L. KELLY

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Ms. KELLY of Illinois. Madam Speaker, had I been present, I would have voted YEA on Roll Call No. 315.

HONORING MR. ARTHUR M. NEWELL

HON. TIM RYAN

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mr. RYAN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Mr. Arthur M. Newell, of Struthers, Ohio, on the awarding to him of the French Legion d'honneur.

The government of the French Republic, since the end of the Second World War, honors those liberators, who restored those liberties with determination, sacrifice, duty, and honor, with the presentation of the Ordre national de la Légion d'honneur.

Conceived over two centuries ago by Napoléon Bonaparte, First Consul of the First Republic of France, his Order was devised to reward eminent military and civil merits in the service of France. The award is still the highest distinction that can be bestowed upon a citizen of France or a foreigner who has done great deeds for France.

Of his service, then Private First Class Newell recalls, "After arriving in Metz, France, our regiment joined others from Patton's 3rd Army in an attempt to breach the Siegfried Line. Just to the east of Metz, we approached our first enemy pillbox. It appeared to be out of action until we were within about 100 feet from it. At that moment the Germans opened fire. A few of our men got hit and a few more stepped on mines or set off booby traps. We took cover. Our heavy weapons platoon came up to the front and with their machine guns and bazookas they took direct aim at the bunkers slotted openings and opened fire. As the battle progressed my buddies and I got close enough to lob grenades towards the fortification. The enemy within the pillbox fell silent."

There is no doubt that Mr. Newell is a true American hero, emblematic of the service that characterizes the Veterans of Ohio's 13th Congressional District, the state of Ohio, and the United States of America.

I want to personally congratulate Arthur on this milestone and offer my sincerest gratitude for his unwavering dedication to our country. It is members of his generation upon which our nation is built.

IN RECOGNITION OF SOUTHERN WAYNE COUNTY REGIONAL CHAMBER KYLE F. STACK LEADERSHIP AWARD RECIPIENT MIA HARNOS

HON. DEBBIE DINGELL

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mrs. DINGELL. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize Mia Harnos, Chief Strategy and Innovation Officer at Wayne Metropolitan Community Action Agency as she is awarded the Kyle F. Stack Leadership Award at the Southern Wayne County Regional Chamber's 5th annual Women of Achievement Awards. Her significant contributions to our community are worthy of commendation.

Raised in Allen Park, Mrs. Harnos has called southeast Michigan home for her whole life. Committed to the betterment of her community, she joined Wayne Metro in 2013 and has risen through the ranks to become Chief Strategy and Innovation Officer. She is the visionary behind numerous successful events, programs, and fundraisers that benefit the residents of Wayne County. In her current role, she is working on redesigning Wayne Metro's programs and services using a racial equity and inclusion lens. Described by co-workers as a natural leader who always puts people first, she's inspired her team to find new and improved ways to help residents in challenging times.

A tireless advocate for the people of her community, Mrs. Harnos led efforts to pass the Pay As You Stay legislation and helps raise money for Wayne Metro's Save the Day fund, two programs that provide financial relief to those facing tough times. Known for her ambitious spirit and positive attitude, she never stops striving to make a difference in her community. Mrs. Harnos lives in Wyandotte with her husband Brian and their three sons. Along with participating in Wayne Metro's many community events, Mrs. Harnos and her husband are supporters of the Wyandotte Rotary Club.

Madam Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing Mia Harnos and in congratulating her for being the recipient of the Kyle F. Stack Leadership Award. We are grateful for her service to our community in Wayne County and beyond. We join with Mia's friends, family, and colleagues in thanking her for her exemplary leadership at the Wayne Metropolitan Community Action Agency and for always being ready and willing to help those in their time of need.

COMMEMORATING NATIONAL POLICE WEEKEND

HON. SHEILA JACKSON LEE

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Ms. JACKSON LEE. Madam Speaker, as a member of the Law Enforcement Caucus and a senior member of the Committees on Judiciary and Homeland Security, and the Chair of the Subcommittee on Crime, Terrorism, and Homeland Security, I rise to commemorate National Police Weekend, which runs from today, Friday, October 15, through Sunday, October 17, 2021.

The National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial is the nation's monument to law enforcement officers who have died in the line of duty.

Dedicated on October 15, 1991, the Memorial honors federal, state and local law enforcement officers who have made the ultimate sacrifice for the safety and protection of our nation and its people.

Carved on its walls are the names of 22,611 officers who have been killed in the line of duty throughout U.S. history, dating back to the first known death in 1791.

Added to the Wall this year will be the names of the 295 police officers who lost their lives in the line of duty in 2020 and an additional 99 officers who died in previous years but whose stories of sacrifice had been lost to history until now.

Also to be added are the names of 182 officers who were lost to the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020.

Madam Speaker, enshrined on the Memorial Wall of Honor also are the names of 1,831 fallen peace officers from the state of Texas, the most of any state, including 115 members of the Houston Police Department who gave their lives to keep their city safe.

To this Roll of Honor will be added the following heroes from Texas:

Caleb Daniel Rule, End of Watch: May 29, 2020, Fort Bend County, Texas, C.O., Pct. 4

Mark Christopher Brown, End of Watch: July 26, 2020, Harris County, Texas, C.O., Pct. 5

Johnny Ramos Tunches, End of Watch: November 2, 2020, Harris County, Texas, S.O.

Cornelius Bernard Anderson, End of Watch: July 12, 2020, Harris County, Texas, S.O.

Juan Menchaca Jr., End of Watch: June 13, 2020, Harris County, Texas, S.O.

Raymond John Scholwinski, End of Watch: May 6, 2020, Harris County, Texas, S.O.

Dennis Roy Oliver Jr., End of Watch: October 2, 2020, Highland Village, Texas, P.D.

Lemuel Delray Bruce Jr., End of Watch: October 16, 2020, Houston, Texas, F.D.

Christopher Charles Lewis Brewster, End of Watch: December 7, 2019, Houston, Texas, P.D.

Ernest Leal Jr., End of Watch: November 27, 2020, Houston, Texas, P.D.

Harold Lloyd Preston, End of Watch: October 20, 2020, Houston, Texas, P.D.

Jason Michael Knox, End of Watch: May 2, 2020, Houston, Texas, P.D.

Madam Speaker, today there are more than 800,000 law enforcement personnel serving the people of our country, the highest amount ever.

About 12 percent of them are female.

These brave men and women risk their lives to keep the peace and keep us safe, but they are too often taken by the violence they are working to prevent.

Every year, a law enforcement officer is killed somewhere in the United States every 55 hours, and there are also 58,170 assaults against our law officers each year, resulting in 17,560 injuries.

Madam Speaker, I am proud to represent the people of the 18th Congressional District of Texas in paying tribute to the 394 fallen heroes who will be joining the 22,611 gallant men and women who gave the last full measure of devotion to the communities they took an oath to protect and serve.

Madam Speaker, I ask for a moment of silence in memory of the 295 officers who died in the line of duty in 2020 and the additional 99 officers who died in previous years but whose story had been lost to history, the names of all of whom will be added to the National Peace Officers Memorial Wall of Honor.

IN RECOGNITION OF THE ALEXIS COMPANY

HON. RASHIDA TLAIB

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Ms. TLAIB. Madam Speaker, today I rise to recognize an African American-owned small business, the Alexis Company, based in Detroit in Michigan's 13th Congressional District, as they celebrate their thirty-fifth anniversary.

The Alexis Company is the culmination of the hard work of its founder Regina Dubose. Born and raised in Detroit, Ms. Dubose dreamed of one day running her own business when she was a child. She credits her financial and business acumen to the mentorship she received in one of her earliest jobs working at a local accounting firm. Ms. Dubose was drawn to a career in psychology and counseling after earning her Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Wayne State University, but she found herself drawn to entrepreneurship when she began working as a vendor at concerts and events in the mid-1980s.

By 1986, Ms. Dubose was able to open the Alexis Company. Over the years, she has grown the business with expanded product lines and by engaging with local events and organizations. The early initial successes solidified the Alexis Company's reputation as a reliable partner in community events. Ms. Dubose was able to leverage this work into a distributorship for the company, which increased their access to promotional products and broadened their competitive edge in new markets at the local, state, national, and international levels.

Under Ms. Dubose's leadership, the Alexis Company has adapted to the changing demands of the business. Most recently, she has shifted her focus to sharing her knowledge by writing and publishing a book about her experiences. Ms. Dubose and the Alexis Company reflect the grit and adaptability needed to succeed as an entrepreneur. Small businesses are the backbone of local economies, and it is especially meaningful when minority-owned businesses succeed and thrive.

Please join me in recognizing Regina Dubose and the Alexis Company as they celebrate thirty-five years in business as we wish them well in the years to come.

HONORING ISABEL MARTINEZ SANTOS AS IOWAN OF THE WEEK

HON. CYNTHIA AXNE

OF IOWA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mrs. AXNE. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Isabel Martinez Santos as Iowan of the Week. Isabel immigrated to the United States and has lived in Iowa for 28 years. Isabel has become a staple of advocacy within her community. Isabel has committed herself to addressing the conflict that exists in our world through her position with the Iowa Coalition Against Domestic Violence and with Nuestras Danzas sin Fronteras, a community-focused dance group she founded.

Isabel started her very accomplished career as a member of a community group that worked directly with women who faced violence in different aspects of their lives. Through this, and the values that were instilled in her from her parents, Isabel began to amplify the voices of those in need. This year, Isabel was promoted as the co-director of Iowa Coalition Against Domestic Violence's Legal Clinic as the Bi-Lingual DOJ Accredited Representative. She provides legal services, consultations, resources, and support to survivors of partner violence. She also offers technical assistance, mentorship to Spanish-speaking bi-cultural advocates, and training. Her commitment to advocacy on behalf of survivors is evident in her extensive track record of 22 years in the victim services field.

In addition to her role with the Iowa Coalition Against Domestic Violence, Isabel found another way to give back to her community. Isabel founded Nuestras Danzas sin Fronteras almost six years ago hoping to create a place for self-care for other advocates. Since its opening, Isabel has welcomed a broader spectrum of members of her community to highlight individual cultures, have fun, and overcome the barriers of trauma. Through her group, Isabel strives to provide change that will last for generations.

Not only has Isabel been an incredible advocate for the women of Iowa, but Isabel is also the 2021 recipient of the Diane Reese Excellence in Advocacy in the Movement (DREAM) Award from the National Network to end Domestic Violence. This national award is granted to individuals who incorporate and demonstrate the spirit and promise of true advocacy in all aspects of their life—one who emulates Ms. Reese's commitment to clear and ethical communication, her eagerness to collaborate in the spirit of true partnership, and her deep respect for the dignity, worth and humanity in each one of us.

Isabel hopes to be a role model and leave a legacy for her three children, her community, and immigrant women around the world by continuing to actively work to end the violence that exists in our world. It is my pleasure to name Isabel Martinez Santos Iowan of the Week.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. GREGORY F. MURPHY

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mr. MURPHY of North Carolina. Madam Speaker, unfortunately, I was unable to be physically present for the following vote series that took place on October 12, 2021. Had I been present, I would have voted NAY on Roll Call No. 315.

IN RECOGNITION OF SOUTHERN WAYNE COUNTY REGIONAL CHAMBER DISTINGUISHED YOUNG WOMAN AWARD RECIPIENT DEIDRE CROCKETT

HON. DEBBIE DINGELL

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mrs. DINGELL. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize Deidre Crockett, volunteer at Beaumont Health as she is awarded the Distinguished Young Woman Award at the Southern Wayne County Regional Chamber's 5th annual Women of Achievement Awards. Her significant contributions to our community are worthy of commendation.

Ms. Crockett attended high school in Taylor, Michigan. She is currently studying Biomedical Physics at Wayne State University in Detroit, Michigan as Wayne Med-Direct scholar. The competitive Wayne Med-Direct program aims to educate students about urban health disparities and help future physicians lead the way in improving the health and wellness of urban and underserved communities. In the future, Ms. Crockett wants to become a geneticist specializing in treating sickle cell disease and offer low-cost treatments to families in need. As a volunteer at Beaumont Hospital in Taylor she has given over 180 hours of services to staff and patients in the surgical lounge, radiology, wound care, welcome desk, and bariatric surgery areas.

Her colleagues at Beaumont describe her as kind, compassionate, smart, and hard-working—truly a distinguished young woman. They have no doubt that she will make an immense difference in the lives of her future patients. Even as a busy student, in her spare time she is active in her church, helps children learn to play soccer, and volunteers at a local food distribution center. It is safe to say that Ms. Crockett has a bright future ahead of her and we will all benefit from her drive and passion for helping others.

Madam Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing Deidre Crockett and in congratulating her for being the recipient of the Distinguished Young Woman Award. We are grateful for her exemplary service to our community in Wayne County and beyond. We join with Deidre's friends, family, and colleagues in thanking her for her hard work and dedication to her field and wish her the best in the future.

CONGRATULATING RABBI MICAH GREENSTEIN

HON. STEVE COHEN

OF TENNESSEE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mr. COHEN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Rabbi Micah Greenstein of Temple Israel in Memphis for his 30 years leading the historic, 167-year-old congregation.

Rabbi Greenstein is the most recent in a long line of rabbis leading a congregation whose history is entwined with the history of the city of Memphis, from the Civil War and yellow fever epidemic, through both World Wars and the Civil Rights movement.

One of Rabbi Greenstein's predecessors, Rabbi James Wax, led the Memphis Ministerial Association during the Memphis Sanitation Workers strike and the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., in 1968.

Rabbi Greenstein has been instrumental in working with the Memphis Interfaith Coalition for Action and Hope (MICAHA), his namesake, a group dedicated to dealing with social issues and economic and educational disparities in our community. Rabbi Greenstein returned Temple Israel to Midtown Memphis when he dedicated Temple Israel Crosstown, an auxiliary branch in Crosstown Center, an important move for Judaism in Memphis.

Rabbi Greenstein is a great orator and the congregation looks forward to hearing his High Holy Days remarks each year. He is also the Jerry West of rabbis for his ability to select phenomenal cantors and associate rabbis to complement his talents and present an All Star team at Temple Israel, from Rabbi Katie Bauman to Rabbi Bess Wohlner to cantorial soloist Happie Hoffman and many others, including a husband-wife team.

Rabbi Greenstein has brought together Memphis religious leaders addressing Memphis' crime problems and helped calm anxieties after the September 11 terrorist attacks by linking arms with Muslim and Christian leaders. I commend Rabbi Greenstein—my rabbi—for his 30 years of service in Memphis and wish him many more productive years in our community.

RECOGNIZING MR. PATRICK B. LOFTUS ON HIS RETIREMENT

HON. MIKE QUIGLEY

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mr. QUIGLEY. Madam Speaker, I rise today to join TTX Company CEO, Tom Wells, and his colleagues in honoring Mr. Patrick B. Loftus. Pat recently retired from his position as the company's Senior Vice President, Law and Administration.

Pat's retirement marks the end of a distinguished career as a leader in his company and in the railroad industry, including years as a spokesman and strategist for TTX and the industry here in Washington.

Pat has been with TTX for 35 years, beginning as a litigator when the company was known as Trailer Train, rising to General Counsel in 2001, Corporate Secretary a year later, and assuming his most recent wide-ranging responsibilities as Senior Vice President in 2013.

Pat was a leader in legislative fights for fair competition in surface transportation and spearheaded the company's successful relationship with its regulator, the Surface Transportation Board.

Pat's many friends on Capitol Hill, in the rail industry, and in his company will miss his insight, skills as an advocate, and trademark good humor. We wish Pat all the best.

Madam Speaker, please join me and all our colleagues in the House of Representatives in recognizing Mr. Loftus' years of service and congratulating him on his retirement.

HONORING DON REID

HON. DAN BISHOP

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mr. BISHOP of North Carolina. Madam Speaker, today I rise to honor my good friend Don Reid and to wish him a very happy 90th birthday. Don, a stalwart conservative, served on the Charlotte City Council from 1991 to 1999. There, he established a reputation as a zealous defender of the taxpayer—demanding accountability, asking tough questions, and standing against imprudent and ill-advised big spending projects, even if that meant standing alone. Among those big spending projects: a proposed taxpayer-funded NBA stadium and an expensive light rail system.

Twenty years off the Council, the passage of time has proven Don right again and again. In addition to his service on the Council, Don helped found the watchdog group Citizens for Effective Government and hosted weekly breakfast meetings in Charlotte that were must-attend events for those interested in local politics. Don, you continue to be an important voice on behalf of fiscal responsibility, and Charlotte is grateful for your service. Happy birthday.

HONORING THE LIFE AND SERVICE OF SERGEANT KAILA SULLIVAN

HON. BRIAN BABIN

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mr. BABIN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the life and sacrifice of Sergeant Kaila Sullivan, a 16-year veteran of the Nassau Bay Police Department.

On December 10, 2019, Sergeant Kaila Sullivan was killed in the line of duty while assisting an arrest in the Clear Lake area. Her tragic death is a grim reminder that the job of a police officer protecting our streets can be dangerous and deadly, even on the most routine of days, and that our law enforcement officers deserve our gratitude and respect.

Her friends and colleagues remember Kaila as the "rock" of her police force, a hero, and a "peace officer's peace officer." She was an enthusiastic advocate for victims of domestic violence and a natural leader revered by her community. She always strived to excel at her job as a police officer, and her long list of roles within the force reflects that; Sullivan served as a bike patrol instructor, a mental health officer, a field training officer, crime prevention specialist, and Rape Aggression Defense (RAD) instructor in addition to her duties as Sergeant.

But Kaila was not just a police officer. She was a devoted mother and loving wife, a friend to all, and quite the entertainer with "the voice of an angel." She enjoyed playing the guitar, riding horses, and was often seen around town in her overhauled, monster truck-like pickup. She loved hiking, being outdoors, and spending time with her family, but most of all, people remember her being totally dedicated to the community she served.

Sergeant Kaila Sullivan was Nassau Bay Police Department's first death in the line of duty. Her loss continues to reverberate in the Nassau Bay community, as it will for many years.

Madam Speaker, I would like to honor Sergeant Kaila Sullivan and her family for her service. God bless Texas, Nassau Bay, and Sergeant Kaila Sullivan.

RECOGNIZING CARLI LLOYD

HON. ANDY KIM

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mr. KIM of New Jersey. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize and congratulate Carli Lloyd on her retirement from a sixteen-year international career in professional soccer as a member of the United States Women's National Team.

Carli grew up in Delran, New Jersey, and while she participated in numerous sports, she always gravitated towards soccer. She began playing at 5 years old and quickly excelled as a youth player. Later she even recalled some of her fondest memories were when she played on the Medford Strikers. From the moment she returned home from school, Carli could be found on any patch of grass big enough to kick a ball. Whether she was playing against men in pickup games or with younger siblings in her family's upstairs hallway, Carli's competitive nature and ambition to be the best player on the field was always on display.

After playing on Rutgers University's team, Carli's removal from the Under 21 Women's National Soccer Team forced her to re-examine her approach to achieving her ultimate dream of being on the Women's National Team. As we all know, for Carli simply being on the team wasn't enough. She has gone on to compete in 312 international games, the second highest tally in U.S. soccer history.

She played in 25 World Cup matches and 22 Olympic matches. She is the highest scoring midfielder in U.S. history and just a few months ago scored after playing for just 23 seconds, the second fastest goal scorer at the start of a match in Women's National Team History. A team general manager described Carli as, "the embodiment of the DNA of a U.S. Women's National Team player."

For those of us watching in stadiums or on television, we only see a fraction of what is truly required to compete at the highest level—the hard work, perseverance, self-taught-confidence that each player must have. While Carli leaves behind a legendary record, truly a legacy, her adherence to self-improvement and love for the sport is perhaps what she will forever be remembered.

Madam Speaker, Carli is an inspiration to all of us in New Jersey, particularly our daughters, and represents the best of us. Her integrity, humility and dedication to her teammates inspires us to become the best version of ourselves, and I wish her the best of luck in the next chapter of her life.
