EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

SMITH McCOWAN

HON. EDDIE BERNICE JOHNSON

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, November 2, 2020

Ms. JOHNSON of Texas. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize and honor the life of Mrs. Curtistene Smith McCowan, Mayor of DeSoto, Texas, who passed away on October 28. 2020.

Mayor McCowan's experience in public service was commendable, and the extension of her influence cannot be measured by the positions she held-of which there were many. Among her laudable achievements included Mayor DeSoto. DeSoto City Councilmember, President of the DeSoto Economic Development Cooperation Board of Directors. Founder and President of the Concerned DeSoto Citizens nonprofit, and Chair of the Trustee Board at the Kirkwood Temple Christian Methodist Episcopal Church, just to name a few. Even in the 21st Century, Mrs. McCowan was the first African American elected to public office in DeSoto and the first woman to hold the office of mayor.

In our countless meetings together, Mayor McCowan and I always left with a greater understanding and appreciation for one another's perspectives. We shared the same vision for the future of DeSoto where its citizens and institutions flourished under her fervent leadership. During her tenure, Mayor McCowan made significant strides towards access for quality education, fiscal accountability, and the economic development of the city, among several other initiatives.

Mayor McCowan saw adversity as simply a bump in the road-a necessary hurdle on the way to success. She met her challenges, both personal and public, with a fierce, yet gentle tenacity. When announcing her cancer diagnosis during a city council meeting in early October 2020, she made it clear that her priority would remain the wellbeing of DeSoto and its residents during these trying times. "I've always said that when we work together, there's nothing that we can't accomplish," she remarked during that meeting. It is in that spirit that we carry on her legacy, so that generations to come may feel the significant impact Mayor McCowan is survived by her husband of 54 years, Leon R. McCowan, two sons, and three grandchildren. Also among her progeny include the students of Curtistene S. McCowan Middle School and the many of us she inspired along the way.

Madam Speaker, on behalf of the Texas Congressional Delegation and this legislative body, I compassionately extend my sincere condolences to the McCowan family, friends and loved ones. We know that DeSoto is a better place because of the well-lived life of Mayor Curtistene Smith McCowan.

OF JESSIE WOLF

HON. BRIAN BABIN

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES Monday, November 2, 2020

Mr. BABIN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the life and service of Jessie Wolf, former Sheriff of Tyler County, professional football player, and servant of his community.

Jessie was born on March 4, 1952, to John and Annie Mae Wolf in Warren, Texas. He was a long-time resident of Tyler County and graduated from Warren High School in 1970. For nearly three decades, Jessie ensured the safety of more than 21,000 residents of Tyler County serving as a law enforcement officer. He is remembered by many for his infectious personality and was loved deeply by the community of which he worked tirelessly to keep safe after an impressive career playing professional football.

Jessie played college football and was a weight thrower for the track and field team at Prairie View A&M University. Following his college graduation, he was recruited by the World Football League where he played for the Birmingham Vulcans. A year later, he was drafted into the National Football League (NFL) by the Miami Dolphins and helped lead the team to a Super Bowl championship in 1974. After his time with the Dolphins, he went on to play for two other NFL teams, the Washington Redskins and the Baltimore Colts. In 2014, Jessie was inducted into his alma mater's Sport's Hall of Fame.

Following his departure from the NFL, Jessie moved back to Tyler County and began his career in law enforcement. After many years of service, he assumed the position of Chief Deputy in the early 2000s and stepped in as acting Sheriff for Tyler County in 2005. Jessie made history as the first African American sheriff of Tyler County and held that position until his retirement.

He married the love of his life, Mary Cravens Wolf, in 2007, and they spent many wonderful years together. Throughout his time in law enforcement, Jessie made sure that the safety and wellbeing of the community he swore to protect remained top priority. In addition to his love of football and police service, Jessie enjoyed spending time with his family and his beloved six grandchildren.

Jessie is preceded in death by his parents, John Wolf Sr. and Annie Mae Deason Wolf; sister Maggie Lena Wolf Foster; and two brothers, James and Joe Wolf. He is survived by his wife, Margie Wolf; two daughters, Denise Wright and Shannon Dugas; brother Elray Wolf; two sisters, Beatrice Williams and Verdie Wolf; and six grandchildren, DeAndre Bell, Kayla Bell, Derrick Wright, Erik Wright, Isaiah Wright, and Rashaad Young.

Madam Speaker, I thank Jessie Wolf for his faithful service to our community and county; and my heartfelt prayers remain with his family and friends during this difficult time.

IN HONOR OF MAYOR CURTISTENE HONORING THE LIFE AND SERVICE IN HONOR OF THOMAS MCCARTHY, ABINGTON AND WHITMAN MA VETERANS' SERVICE OFFICER

HON. STEPHEN F. LYNCH

OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, November 2, 2020

Mr. LYNCH, Madam Speaker, I rise today in honor of Thomas McCarthy, in recognition of his outstanding contributions to the Towns of Abington and Whitman, the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and the United States of

The son of James and Jane McCarthy of Abington, Tom was born on May 11, 1958. He was raised on Plymouth Street in Abington, and he attended South Shore Vocational Tech High School in Hanover. He attended Southern Washington University, earning a bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice in 1979.

Tom served in the United States Marine Corps for thirty years (1976 to 2006), retiring with the rank of Sergeant Major. Over the course of his service in the United States Marine Corps, Tom attended the Military Police Academy and was assigned to the Military Police for twenty-six years. Upon his retirement, he returned to Abington.

Tom then worked for A-Prime Steel, a specialty steel company from 2007 to 2008 in addition to driving for Dunbar Armor, a private security company. Subsequently, Tom worked at Sears as a sales associate and then as an assistant manager in the automobile service department. In 2012, Tom began his service as the part-time Veterans' Service Officer for the towns of Abington and Whitman. He was promoted to Director of Veterans' Services in 2017. Tom is a life member of the Disabled American Veterans Chapter 119, in Whitman, where he served as Post Commander from 2011 to 2016.

Madam Speaker, Tom is known for his compassion, his kind smile, his quick sense of humor, his storytelling, and his affection for Dunkin' Donuts Iced Coffee. He is an avid freshwater fisherman and has participated in many firearms shooting competitions over the years. He has had the good fortune to be married to Jenny for forty-one years.

His passionate advocacy for veterans set an example to all who worked with him, and I extend my sincere congratulations and appreciation to him upon his retirement. It is my distinct honor to join with Tom McCarthy's family, friends and contemporaries to thank him for his service to the United States and to the veterans of Abington and Whitman, Massachu-

• This "bullet" symbol identifies statements or insertions which are not spoken by a Member of the Senate on the floor. Matter set in this typeface indicates words inserted or appended, rather than spoken, by a Member of the House on the floor. CELEBRATING THE CAREER OF JOE FRANCO

HON. DAN NEWHOUSE

OF WASHINGTON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES Monday, November 2, 2020

Mr. NEWHOUSE. Madam Speaker, today, I rise to celebrate and honor the distinguished service of my constituent, Joe Franco. Throughout his years, Joe has diligently worked to improve and protect American communities, including ours in Central Washington.

A native of Carlsbad, New Mexico, Joe first served our nation in the United States Navy before his distinguished career in nuclear waste cleanup. He began working at the Waste Isolation Pilot Plant at the Department of Energy's field office in 1989. Over the years, he became an experienced operative in federal nuclear energy projects, and in 2006, he brought his talents to Central Washington's Richland Operations Office at the Hanford

Site, where he was ultimately named Deputy Manager.

During his service as a federal employee, Joe's work was crucial to our nation's ongoing nuclear cleanup efforts. He is an example of the country's best and brightest minds hard at work advancing the Department of Energy's mission to protect our environment and strengthen our national security.

On behalf of Central Washington, I salute Joe for his significant contributions to the greater Tri-Cities community and to the United States.

HONORING KENNETH ROBINETTE

HON. DAN BISHOP

OF NORTH CAROLINA IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES Monday, $November\ 2$, 2020

Mr. BISHOP of North Carolina. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Mr. Kenneth Robinette, longtime Chairman of the Richmond County Board or Commissioners. Chairman Robinette is retiring after 23 years or service.

Kenneth was raised in Spartanburg, South Carolina and after graduating from Newberry College, moved to Richmond County, North Carolina. Of his extensive tenure on the county commission, 21 years were spent as the chairman. Kenneth served his community with integrity and helped it grow through economic development initiatives. He was deeply involved with the development of retail establishments including Dollar General, Advance Auto Parts, and many others. Kenneth also played a pivotal role in the development of residential communities al National Golf Club, McLendon Hills, and Mid-South Club.

Kenneth has devoted his life lo public service and has helped his community continue to grow through his selfless acts of service. Thanks to his leadership, Richmond County is a better place to live.

It is an honor to celebrate Kenneth Robinette today.